Inquiry On
Court Of Continuing Jurisdiction For A Child

This document is used to identify the court that has exclusive jurisdiction in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship or a certification that no suit affecting the child is on file with the Vital Statistics Unit.

Section 155.101 of the Texas Family Code provides that "the vital statistics unit shall, on the written request of the court, an attorney or a party: 1) identify the court that last had continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of the child in a suit and give the document number of the suit; or 2) state that the child has not been the subject of a suit". The provisions of this section apply to suits affecting the parent-child relationship filed on or after January 1, 1974. This request can be faxed to us at (512) 458-7164 or mailed to:
