2.B.2. Household Furnishings

P-2. All household furniture, furnishings, fixtures, goods, art objects, collectibles, appliances, and equipment in the possession of Petitioner or subject to Petitioner's sole control.

2.B.6. Employee Benefits and Retirement

All terms of the division should be included in the agreement; if they are not included, they are not awarded. The language below presents examples only and must be modified for the actual division and different plan.

The following must be included:

- the full and accurate plan name (note that, for example, unless the participant works for Fidelity, "Fidelity 401(k)" is NOT the plan name);
- the precise method of division;
- the date of division (typically the date of the MSA or the divorce);
- all features (e.g., loans, survivor benefits) awarded; and
- who is responsible for the QDRO preparation and submission and all associated fees.

Special consideration for defined contribution plans: If gains and losses are not included, determine how to handle the shortfall if the amount available at segregation is less than the amount awarded. Will the QDRO award the alternate payee 100 percent of the account balance in this event? How will the deficiency be handled?

Special consideration for defined benefit plans: If the participant is already receiving a monthly benefit, will the participant have to pay the alternate payee the portion of the benefit between the date of divorce and the date the plan starts paying the alternate payee directly? If so, specify how, using enforceable language.

Or

b. Portion Awarded to Other Spouse

The following language should be used only if the party is specifically awarded all benefits in all possible plans, except for a portion that is awarded to the other spouse. If only specific retirement plans are awarded, each plan should be awarded individually, and this language should not be used. See c. below.

P-6. Except for [the/those] portion[s] of Petitioner's employee and retirement benefits in [exact name of each applicable plan] expressly awarded to Respondent in this agreement, all sums, whether matured or unmatured, accrued or unaccrued, vested or otherwise, together with all increases thereof, the proceeds therefrom, and any other rights related to any profit-sharing plan, retirement plan, Keogh plan, pension plan, employee stock option plan, 401(k) plan, employee savings plan, accrued unpaid bonuses, disability plan, or other benefits existing by reason of Petitioner's past, present, or future employment [include if desired: , including but not limited to: [description]].

Division of retirement benefits depends on the type of retirement plan. See chapter 25 of this manual.

f. *Other Employment Benefits—
Portion of Other Spouse's Benefits Awarded*

More detailed provisions may be needed, depending on the type of benefit involved. It is suggested that this section be modified based on the type of benefit or stock at issue. Because [name] is to receive the family homestead of the parties, an encumbrance for owelty of partition against the entirety of the property is needed to secure the payment of the resulting debt to [name].

An encumbrance for owelty of partition is created against the entirety of the homestead property described as follows: [legal description].

The purpose of the encumbrance is to secure the payment of the debt of [name] in favor of [name] of [number] dollars ($[amount]), resulting from the [Name] will sign a note payable to [name] in the amount of the debt specified above and payable according to the terms specified above. [Name] will also sign a deed of trust to secure payment of the debt resulting from the owelty of partition.

($[amount]) is necessary to make a just and right partition of the property. An equitable lien is created against the following property:

Describe the property to be subject to the lien. Include the legal description of any real property. For placing a lien on homestead, see 2.G. Additional collateral may be included and UCC filings required. See chapter 24 of this manual for additional closing documents.

This lien is in the nature of a purchase-money lien. The property described above is a part of the partition agreement. The entire interest in the property described above is subject to the lien.

[Name] will sign a vendor's lien note for [number] dollars ($[amount]) payable to [name]. The note will bear interest at [percent] percent per year, compounded annually. It will be payable according to the following terms: [describe the terms of the note].

[Name] will sign an owlty lien deed of trust [specify applicable security instruments, including UCC forms] to secure the note.

2.I. Lien for Reimbursement

2.9 Lien for Reimbursement

Warning: Each of the following items requires special treatment under the Internal Revenue Code and the income tax regulations. - partnerships—income/loss; capital account

These items will require additional analysis and tax calculations. Consult a tax adviser.

If both state and federal taxes are involved, reword the following paragraphs as appropriate.

The designations “party A” and “party B” are used in 2.M. to distinguish between the two parties within these provisions only. The designations may not apply consistently to the same individuals in all portions of 2.M. or when they appear in other provisions in the agreement.

2.M.1. Liability for Federal Income Taxes for Prior

2.M.1.a. Sole Liability of One Spouse

[Name of party A] will be solely responsible for all federal income tax liabilities of the parties allocable to the period from the date of marriage through December 31, [year preceding year of divorce], and will timely pay any taxes, penalties, and interest due thereon and will indemnify and hold [name of party B] and [name of party B]’s property harmless therefrom unless such additional tax, penalty, or interest resulted from [name of party B]’s omission of income or claim of erroneous deduction, in which case [name of party B] will pay, and hold [name of party A] and [name of party A]’s property harmless from, the additional tax, penalty, and interest allocable to the omitted income or erroneous deduction.

Or

2.M.1.b. Shared Liability of Spouses

[Name of party A] and [name of party B] will be equally responsible for all federal income tax liabilities of the parties allocable to the period from the date of marriage through December 31, [year preceding year of divorce], and each party will timely pay 50 percent of any taxes, penalties, and interest due thereon and will indemnify and hold the other party and the other party’s property harmless from the portion of such tax, penalty, and interest required to be paid by the indemnifying party unless that additional tax, penalty, or interest resulted from a party’s omission of income or claim of erroneous deduction, in which case that party will pay, and hold the other party and the other party’s property harmless from, the additional tax, penalty, and interest allocable to the omitted income or erroneous deduction.

Continue with the following.

2.M.2. Tax Refund

If a refund of tax or other amounts is made for any year during the parties' marriage through December 31, [year preceding year of divorce], each party will be entitled to one-half of the refund amount, and the party receiving the refund check is designated a constructive trustee for the benefit of the other party to the extent of one-half of the refund amount, and the party receiving the refund check will pay to the other party one-half of the refund amount within five days of receipt of the refund check. Each party will endorse the refund check on presentation by the other party.

The refund may be allocated in the same proportion as the predivorce tax liabilities, or, if one party is paying all the taxes, that party may receive the entire refund.

2.M.3. Treatment/Allocation of Income for Year of Divorce for Tax Purposes

The term "I.R.C." means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Select 2.M.3.a., 2.M.3.b., 2.M.3.c., or 2.M.3.d.

2.M.3.a. *Treatment/Allocation—
No Stated Method*

For the calendar year [year of divorce], each party will file a federal income tax return and report thereon the reporting party's share of the income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits, including estimated taxes and withholding taxes, of the parties during the calendar year [year of divorce] prior to the date of divorce, and of the reporting party on and after the date of divorce, in accordance with the I.R.C. and this agreement.

Or

Warning: Do not include provisions for preparation and filing of tax returns for year of divorce or provisions for allocation of income, gains, losses, deductions, or credits or tax liabilities for year of divorce between the parties unless that language will be reviewed by a tax adviser after consultation with your client.

2.M.3.b. *Treatment/Allocation—
General Rule—50 Percent Each*

For the calendar year [year of divorce], each party will prepare and file a federal income tax return in accordance with the I.R.C. and report on that party's tax return 50 percent of the community income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits of one or both parties during the period January 1 of the calendar year [year of divorce] and prior to the date of divorce (the "predivorce period"); all of the reporting party's income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits during the period beginning on [date of divorce] through December 31 of the calendar year [year of divorce] (the "postdivorce period"); and all of the reporting party's separate income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits during the predivorce period. Each party will take credit for 50 percent of the prior year tax overpayment carryforward of the parties to the calendar year [year of divorce]; 50 percent of all estimated tax payments and withholding taxes made by, in the name of, or for the benefit of either party for the predivorce period; and 100 percent of all estimated tax payments and withholding taxes made by, in the name of, or for the benefit of the reporting party for the postdivorce period.

- Provisions for Allocation of Tax Liabilities for Year of Divorce as between Parties Filing under the General Rule

Caution: Provisions for apportioning income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits and tax liability between the parties will not override the Internal Revenue Code and will not prevent the IRS from collecting taxes from a party in accordance with applicable law. Such provisions, if not consistent with applicable law, will give the client protection only to the extent that the provisions are enforceable by contract.

The following paragraphs provide formulas for determining the portion of the tax liability of one party required under the agreement to be paid by the other party for the year of divorce, i.e., one party required to report for tax purposes 50 percent of all predivorce period community income and other party required under the agreement to pay reporting party's taxes on that predivorce period community income. The allocations in these paragraphs are very complicated examples. Practitioners are strongly advised to consult with tax professionals when using these formulas. The remarriage of a party during the year of divorce, for example, may affect how well these formulas work in ways the parties may not have anticipated.

If 2.M.3.b. is used, select one of the following three paragraphs for allocation of tax liability between the parties. These are not filing methods. Then include 2.M.3.b.\(4\) concerning the independent calculation of the tax allocation under those paragraphs.

2.M.3.b.(1) Allocation—Actual Effective Rate

For the calendar year [year of divorce], [name of party A] will be responsible for and will timely pay [name of party B], and hold [name of party B] and [name of party B]'s property harmless from, the portion of federal income taxes required to be paid by [name of party B] as shown on the federal income tax return of [name of party B] for the calendar year [year of divorce] equal to an amount (not less than zero) determined by the independent calculation of [(X times Y) minus Z], where X (the effective rate of federal income tax) is the quotient of the income tax liability (before tax credits) as shown on [name of party B]'s federal income tax return for the calendar year [year of divorce] divided by the taxable income as shown on [name of party B]'s federal income tax return for the calendar year [year of divorce]; Y is the hypothetical amount of taxable income that would be required to be shown on [name of party B]'s federal income tax return for the calendar year [year of divorce] if the only taxable income of [name of party B] were the predivorce period income, gains, losses, and deductions allocable to [name of party B] under this agreement; and Z is an amount equal to the predivorce period tax credits allocable to [name of party B] under this agreement. The amount agreed to be paid by [name of party A] to [name of party B] will be paid within [number] days after the independent calculation is made. Taxable income will be determined in accordance with the I.R.C. The term "predivorce period" means the period during the calendar year [year of divorce] prior to the date of divorce.

Or

2.M.3.b.(2) *Allocation—
Hypothetical Marginal
Rate (Bottom)*

For the calendar year [year of divorce], [name of party A] will be responsible for and will timely pay [name of party B], and hold [name of party B] and [name of party B]'s property harmless from, the hypothetical amount of federal income taxes that would be required to be paid by [name of party B] as shown on a federal income tax return of [name of party B] for the calendar year [year of divorce] equal to an amount determined by the independent calculation of [(hypothetical federal income tax computed on X) minus Z], where X is the hypothetical amount of taxable income that would be required to be shown on [name of party B]'s federal income tax return for the calendar year [year of divorce] if the taxable income of [name of party B] were only the predivorce period income, gains, losses, and deductions allocable to [name of party B] under this agreement and Z is an amount equal to the predivorce period tax credits allocable to [name of party B] under this agreement. The amount agreed to be paid by [name of party A] to [name of party B] will be paid within [number] days after the independent calculation is made. Taxable income will be determined in accordance with the I.R.C. The term “predivorce period” means the period during the calendar year [year of divorce] prior to the date of divorce.

Or

2.M.3.b.(3) *Allocation—
Hypothetical Marginal Rate (Top)*

For the calendar year [year of divorce], [name of party A] will be responsible for and will timely pay [name of party B], and hold [name of party B] and [name of party B]’s property harmless from, the hypothetical amount of federal income taxes that would be required to be paid by [name of party B] as shown on a federal income tax return of [name of party B] for the calendar year [year of divorce] equal to an amount determined by the independent calculation of $[(\text{hypothetical federal income tax computed on } X) \text{ minus } Z]$, where X is (a) the actual taxable income amount as shown on the federal income tax return of [name of party B] for the calendar year [year of divorce] minus (b) the hypothetical amount of taxable income that would be required to be shown on the federal income tax return of [name of party B] for the calendar year [year of divorce] if the taxable income of [name of party B] were only the income, gains, losses, and deductions allocable to [name of party B] for the postdivorce period and Z is the amount of tax credits shown on the income tax return of [name of party B] for the calendar year [year of divorce] minus the amount of such tax credits allocable to the postdivorce period. The amount required to be paid by [name of party A] to [name of party B] will be paid within [number] days after the independent calculation is made. Taxable income will be determined in accordance with the I.R.C. The term “postdivorce period” means the period of the calendar year [year of divorce] on and after the date of divorce.

If 2.M.3.b.\(1\), 2.M.3.b.\(2\), or 2.M.3.b.\(3\) is used, include 2.M.3.b.\(4\).

2.M.3.b.(4) *Allocation—
Independent Calculation*

The parties will employ by [date] [name of accountant] to prepare the independent calculation described above and will direct [name of accountant] to submit the independent calculation to each party by [date]. [Name of party B] will provide [name of accountant] with [name of party B]’s tax return and any other information reasonably required by [name of accountant] by [date]. After [name of accountant] delivers the independent calculation to each party, each party will have [number] days to review and object to the independent calculation in writing to [name of accountant] and the other party, specifying the basis for that party’s objection to the independent calculation.

If neither party timely objects to the independent calculation, or if the parties are able to resolve any objections within fourteen days of the objection, the fees of [name of accountant] for the preparation of the independent calculation will be paid as follows: [specify manner of payment by each party].

If a party objects to the independent calculation and the parties are unable to resolve these objections within fourteen days of the objection, the parties will submit the independent calculation to binding arbitration in accordance with Texas arbitration law. In this event, each party expressly waives any right to trial by a court or trial by a jury regarding the determination of the independent calculation. The parties will appoint an arbitrator, in the manner provided below, who will be either an attorney board certified in tax law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization or a certified public accountant licensed in Texas and specializing in tax law. The arbitrator's decision will be binding in all respects.

The party who first objected to the independent calculation will designate in writing the name of an arbitrator not later than twenty-one days after the date of that party's objection, and not later than seven days after that designation, the other party will designate in writing the name of an arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator within seven days after the second party's designation, the two designees will select a qualified arbitrator within [number] days thereafter, who will be designated the sole arbitrator of the dispute. Each party will submit to the arbitrator in writing the disputed issues relating to the independent calculation with supporting documents and authorities by the date the arbitrator sets. If the parties cannot agree on the ground rules and procedures to be followed during the arbitration proceedings, the arbitrator will have the sole authority to establish the ground rules and procedures to be followed during the arbitration proceeding. If the arbitrator determines that a hearing is necessary, the parties will attend the arbitration hearing on the date and at the time and place set by the arbitrator. Absent agreement to the contrary, either party may furnish a court reporter, but none will be required. The parties will pay both the cost of arbitration and [name of accountant]'s fees for the preparation of the independent calculation as the arbitrator directs. The award of the arbitrator will be binding and conclusive on the parties. The parties agree that the arbitrator may deliver the arbitrator's award by e-mail to the parties or to their designated representatives. Any court of competent jurisdiction may enter a judgment confirming the arbitration award.

2.M.3.c. *Treatment/Allocation—
Partition of Taxable Income to Pre–Date of Divorce*

The following provision partitions, for tax purposes, between the parties as of January 1 of the year of divorce the income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits of the parties for the period January 1 of the year of divorce through the date of divorce with the intent that each party pay tax only on that party's income, etc., for tax purposes.

The Texas Family Code requires a court to confirm an agreed partition or exchange of the income and earnings from a spouse's property, wages, salaries, and other forms of compensation received on or after January 1 of the year in which the suit for dissolution of marriage was filed or that were received in another year during which the spouses were married for any part of the year. Tex. Fam. Code § 7.002\(c\). It is unclear whether the Internal Revenue Service or the courts will recognize the retroactive effect of such a partition to a calendar year before the year of divorce. The wise practitioner will advise the client to consult with a certified public accountant or tax attorney before relying on this statute.

For the purposes of determining income tax liability, the parties agree and hereby partition, as a party's sole and separate property beginning January 1 of the calendar year of [year of divorce] and prior to the date of divorce, 100 percent of the income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits attributable to or derived from—

- a. that party's personal earnings;
- b. the property awarded to that party as that party's sole and separate property in this agreement;
- c. the property confirmed as that party's sole and separate property in this agreement; and
- d. the property in that party's sole name, whether community or separate property, that was owned by that party during the calendar year [year of divorce] and prior to the date of the divorce and that was disposed on or after January 1, [year of divorce], but before the date of divorce.

Include the following paragraph if applicable.

Notwithstanding the allocations in item d. above, the parties further agree and hereby partition, as that party's sole and separate property during the calendar year [year of divorce] prior to the date of divorce ("predivorce period"), [percent] percent to [name of party A] and [percent] percent to [name of party B] of the income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits attributable to the following property that was disposed during the predivorce period:
[describe property held in both parties' names or in one party's sole name during the predivorce period].

Continue with the following if 2.M.3.c. is used.

The partition described above further assigns to a party estimated tax payments and withholding taxes made by, in the name of, or for the benefit of that party from January 1, [year of divorce], through the date of divorce, as if the same were that party's sole and separate property. For the purposes of determining each party's income tax liability, the property referenced above in items b. and c. for that party and each such property that was disposed on or after January 1, [year of divorce], and before the date of divorce, to the extent the income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits attributable to the property are partitioned to that party, will be deemed to have been partitioned to that party and have been that party's separate property as of January 1, [year of divorce], or the date of the property's acquisition, if later.

For the calendar year [year of divorce], each party will file a federal income tax return in accordance with the I.R.C. and this agreement.

Or

2.M.3.d. Treatment/Allocation
26 USC § 66(a)— Community Income—
Living Apart

The following alternative method of allocating between the spouses and reporting community income for the year of divorce may be used if the parties satisfy the requirements of Internal Revenue Code section 66(a) and the treasury regulations thereunder. To qualify—

1. the spouses must have been married to each other during any part of the calendar year;
2. the spouses must have lived apart (separate residences) for all of that calendar year and must have not filed a joint return for that calendar year;
3. one or both of the spouses must have earned income for the calendar year that is community income; and
4. there must have been no transfers (directly or indirectly) of earned income between the spouses during that calendar year other than de minimis amounts and transfers for the benefit of children.

Warning: Payments of financial obligations of one party with the other party's earned income may violate item 4. above regardless of whether those payments were made under a court order.

Earned income is defined in I.R.C. § 911(d)(2) as amounts received as compensation for personal services.

The parties represent that they have lived apart at all times during the calendar year of [year of divorce], that [name[s] of party[ies]] [has/have] earned income that is community income during that calendar year, and that there have been no transfers of earned income between the parties from January 1, [year of divorce], through the date of divorce. Each party will file a federal income tax return in accordance with I.R.C. sections 66(a) and 879(a) for the entire year ending December 31, [year of divorce].

Each party will be solely liable for the tax liability shown on [his or her/his/her] return and will timely pay and hold the other party and the other party's property harmless from any liability of the reporting party for federal income taxes for the calendar year [year of divorce].

There are major differences in the allocation of income between the general rule (see 2.M.3.b.) and I.R.C. § 66(a). The parties should be advised by a qualified tax adviser about the proper allocation of income when filing under this code section.

Each party will use as a credit against that party's income tax liability for [year of divorce] 100 percent of all estimated tax payments and withholding taxes made by, in the name of, or for the benefit of that party, 50 percent of the prior year tax overpayment carryforward of the parties to the calendar year [year of divorce], and 50 percent of all estimated tax payments made in the names of both parties for the period prior to the date of divorce.

If the Internal Revenue Service disallows the reporting of community income in accordance with sections 66(a) and 879(a), allocation of tax liability will still be made in the same proportions as though the income tax were calculated under section 66(a) and each party will pay or reimburse the other party for the amount of income tax paid by the other party in excess of the amount of income tax the other party would have paid if I.R.C. section 66(a) had applied.

Continue with the following.

2.M.4. Indemnification

For the calendar year [year of divorce], each party will indemnify and hold the other party and the other party's property harmless from any tax liability associated with the reporting party's federal income tax return for that year unless the parties have agreed to allocate their tax liability in a manner different from that reflected on their returns.

2.M.5. Preparation of Returns for Year of Divorce

2.M.5.a. Exchange of Information

Each party will furnish such information to the other party as is requested to prepare the requesting party's federal income tax returns for any year preceding or including [year of divorce] within thirty days of receipt of a written request for the information, and in no event will the available information for [year of divorce] be exchanged later than March 1, [year following year of divorce]. As requested information becomes available after that date, it will be provided within ten days of receipt.

2.M.5.b. Third-Party Preparation

Both parties will cooperate in the preparation of separate income tax returns for [year of divorce] by supplying to [name of preparer] all information necessary for the preparation of each return in accordance with this agreement. Both parties will provide the information to the preparer within ten days of any request for the information.

Select one of the following.

[Name of party] will pay all fees and charges for the preparation and filing of each party's federal income tax return for the calendar year [year of divorce], which payment will be made within ten days of receipt of the bill for those fees and charges.

Or

Each party will pay all fees and charges for the preparation and filing of that party's federal income tax return for [year of divorce].

Continue with the following as applicable.

2.M.6. Preserving Records

Each party will preserve for a period of seven years from the date of divorce all presently existing financial and tax-related documents, information, and records relating to the community and separate estates of the parties and the preparation of the party's federal and, if applicable, state tax returns for [year of divorce]. Each party will allow the other party access to these documents, information, and records as reasonably necessary for the determination of that party's tax liability or to respond to an examination or audit by the Internal Revenue Service or other governmental agency within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice from the party requesting access to the documents, information, and records. Access will include the right to copy the documents, information, and records.

2.M.7. Payment of Taxes Not Income

All payments made to the other party in accordance with the allocation provisions for payment of federal income taxes contained in this Agreement Incident to Divorce are not deemed income to the party receiving those payments but are part of the property division and necessary for a just and right division of the parties' estate.

2.M.8. Tax Exemption for Child[ren]

I.R.C. § 152(e) provides that the custodial parent will be entitled to dependency exemptions under I.R.C. § 151 for dependent children unless the custodial parent executes IRS Form 8332 (form 24-30 in this manual). Form 8332 may be used to release the exemption for a single year, for a number of specified years, or for all future years. See the practice notes at section 23.46.

Use 2.M.8.a. if the parties agree that one party will have the exclusive right to claim a child as a dependent for income tax purposes.

2.M.8.a. Exemption to One Party

[Name of party A] will have the sole right to claim [name[s] of child[ren]] as [a dependent/dependents] for income tax purposes on [name of party A]'s income tax returns for all years beginning with the calendar year [year]. Not later than [number] days after the date of divorce [name of party B] will execute and deliver to [name of party A] at the law offices of [name of attorney] at [location] an IRS Form 8332 permitting [name of party A] this right. [Name of party B] will not to try to claim [the child/these children] as [a dependent/dependents] for income tax purposes beginning with the calendar year [year] unless [name of party A] has executed and delivered to [name of party B] an IRS Form 8332 permitting [name of party B] that right.

Or

Use 2.M.8.b. if the parties agree that they will split having the exclusive right to claim a child as a dependent for income tax purposes on an even-and odd-numbered-year basis.

2.M.8.b. Exemption Split between Parties

[Name of party A] will have the sole right to claim [name[s] of child[ren]] as [a dependent/dependents] for income tax purposes on [name of party A]'s income tax returns for even-numbered years beginning with the calendar year [year]. Not later than [number] days after the date of divorce [name of party B] will execute and deliver to [name of party A] at the law offices of [name of attorney] at [location] an IRS Form 8332 permitting [name of party A] this right. [Name of party B] will not to try to claim [the child/these children] as [a dependent/dependents] for income tax purposes for even-numbered years beginning with the calendar year [year] unless [name of party A] has executed and delivered to [name of party B] an IRS Form 8332 permitting [name of party B] that right.

[Name of party B] will have the sole right to claim [name[s] of child[ren]] as [a dependent/dependents] for income tax purposes on [name of party B]'s income tax returns for odd-numbered years beginning with the calendar year [year]. 4. Spousal Maintenance

Spousal Maintenance

Parties should not include any provisions deviating from chapter 8 of the Family Code unless they want to exceed the amount of monthly spousal maintenance or the duration of spousal maintenance that a court may order without an agreement. Parties wanting to deviate from the termination grounds set forth in section 8.056 of the Family Code should use the alimony provisions instead, as that deviation may cause a court to find the postdivorce support is not spousal maintenance, despite what the parties call it.

[Name of paying party] will pay spousal maintenance to [name of receiving party] of [number] dollars ($[amount]) per month for [number] months, beginning on [date], with each payment being due and payable on the [day of month] of each month. The maintenance obligation will terminate earlier on the first occurrence of an event set forth in section 8.056 of the Texas Family Code.

The parties stipulate that under chapter 8 of the Texas Family Code, without an agreement of the parties, the maximum monthly spousal maintenance obligation the Court could order [name of paying party] to pay [name of receiving party] is [number] dollars ($[amount]) and the maximum duration of a spousal maintenance obligation the Court could order [name of paying party] to pay [name of receiving party] is [number] months. [Include if applicable: The parties understand that the Court may not enforce by contempt or income withholding any provision of an agreed order for maintenance that exceeds the amount of periodic support the Court could have ordered under chapter 8 of the Family Code or for any period of maintenance beyond the period of maintenance the Court could have ordered under that chapter.]

This spousal maintenance obligation will be governed by the provisions of chapter 8 of the Texas Family Code and may be modified, enforced, or terminated only in accordance with those provisions.

5. Alimony

Article 5

Alimony

The following language is intended for contractual alimony only, as contrasted with court-ordered spousal maintenance.

Contractual alimony, unlike chapter 8 spousal maintenance, is not modifiable except as specifically provided in the agreement.

5.A. Purpose and Intent*5.1 Purpose and Intent of Article*

It is the mutual desire of the parties to provide a continuing measure of support for [name of receiving party] after divorce. These support payments undertaken by [name of paying party] are intended as contractual alimony, and all provisions of this article will be interpreted in a manner consistent with that intention. This alimony obligation is contractual in nature and will not be governed by the provisions of chapter 8 of the Texas Family Code and may not be modified, enforced, or terminated in accordance with those provisions.

5.B. Terms, Conditions, and Contingencies*5.2 Terms, Conditions, and Contingencies5.B.1. Amount*

Amount—[Name of paying party] will pay to [name of receiving party] [number] dollars ($[amount]) per month as alimony. These payments will be payable [specify], on or before the [specify] day of each month, beginning on the first such day after the date of divorce in this case. [Include if applicable: In addition, [name of paying party] will pay [directly to [name of receiving party]/ to [name] for the benefit of [name of receiving party]] the following expenses as additional alimony: [specify expenses, e.g., premiums on insurance insuring life of [name of paying party]].]*

5.B.2. Terma. Indefinite Term

Or

b. Limited Term

Include 5.B.3. through 5.B.8. as applicable.

5.B.3. Receiving Party Death Contingency

5.B.6. Other Contingencies

[Other contingencies]—The alimony obligation will [also] terminate on the following contingencies: [specify other contingencies].

Or

5.B.8. Claim against Estate

Include 5.B.9. if applicable.

5.B.9. Insurance

Insurance—As long as alimony is payable under this article, [name of paying party] will name and maintain [name of receiving party] as the primary beneficiary to a portion of the proceeds on the following life insurance policies: [specify name of company, policy number, face amount of policy, and amount agreed to keep in force for each policy].

As long as alimony is payable under this article, [name of paying party] will keep the life insurance in full force and effect, at [name of paying party]'s expense, in an amount sufficient to pay the sum of the then-remaining alimony payments under this article. Within thirty days after receiving written request, [name of paying party] will furnish written proof from the life insurance company confirming the coverage required under this article. The policies described in this paragraph will not be pledged or encumbered so as to impair [name of receiving party]'s protection.

Caution: When providing for insurance coverage, be sure to include provisions for disposition of excess insurance benefits to be payable to either the insured's estate or some third party.

Continue with the following. Modify if payments are to be made to a third party for the receiving party's benefit.

5.B.10. Payment Procedures

Payment Procedures—[Name of paying party] will make all alimony payments, except as provided otherwise, by personal check, money order, or cashier's check payable to [name]. All payments sent by mail should be addressed as follows: [specify address] or at such other address[es] of which [name of receiving party] notifies [name of paying party] in writing. Payments will be timely made if deposited in the U.S. mail on or before the date provided for the payment under this article and if delivered to [name of receiving party] no more than ten days later.

Continue with the following as applicable.

5.C. Reduction of Amount of Alimony

5.3 Reduction of Amount of Alimony

The amount of monthly alimony then payable under this article will be reduced by the [percentage/dollar amount] indicated on the occurrence of each of the following events:

1. Marriage of [name of receiving party]: [[percent] percent/[number] dollars ([$amount])).
2. Sale of property located at [address]: [[percent] percent/[number] dollars ([$amount])).
3. [Specific date or other condition]: [[percent] percent/[number] dollars ([$amount])).
4. Disability of [name of paying party] to the extent that [name of paying party] is unable to be gainfully employed and qualifies for Social Security disability benefits (or qualifies for disability benefits under private disability insurance then in effect). The amount of reduction will be equal to the percentage of reduction in [name of paying party]'s gross monthly income, whether taxable or not.

5.D. Nontransferability

5.4 Nontransferability

Neither the agreement to pay alimony nor the right to receive alimony under this article is assignable or transferable.

5.E. Default and Acceleration

5.5 Default and Acceleration

[Name of paying party] agrees that time is of the essence in the payment of the periodic alimony payments. If default is made by [name of paying party] in the prompt payment of any periodic amounts due under the terms of this agreement and if, after notice, the default continues for a period of more than [number] days, the entire remaining alimony obligation of [name of paying party], at the option of [name of receiving party], will then be accelerated, together with an amount sufficient to reimburse [name of receiving party] for any reasonable expenses resulting from the default by [name of paying party], including attorney's fees, costs of suit, and tax and/or penalty. [Name of receiving party] will be entitled to a money judgment for these amounts, such amounts to be confirmed by the court having jurisdiction over the proceedings initiated by [name of receiving party] to secure that judgment, subject to the proven affirmative defenses, if any, of [name of paying party].

If additional security for alimony is available, such as oil and gas royalties, security provisions to secure payments should be included.

The receipt issued upon filing this application will serve as the registration receipt and proof of application for Registration Purposes Only. Foreign Vehicles: Foreign vehicles applying for Registration Purposes Only must attach DOT Form HS-7 or U.S. Customs Form CF-7501 to indicate the vehicle is: 1) over 25 years old, or 2) complies with Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards, or 3) is being imported in the United States for a temporary period by a nonresident or a member of the armed forces of a foreign country on assignment in the U.S., and does not conform to the Federal Motor Vehicle Standards and cannot be sold in the U.S. Nontitle Registration: Certain trailers, farm equipment, construction machinery, oil well servicing machinery, water well drilling units, etc. are either exempt from, or not eligible for title, but are eligible for, or required to, obtain registration or a specialty plate in order to operate on the highway. Notice
- The sales and use tax must be paid to the county tax assessor-collector within 30 days from the date of purchase or entry of the vehicle into Texas. - A $2.50 transfer fee is paid to transfer current registration to the new owner in addition to the title application fee and other applicable fees. If the registration is not current, full registration fees are due unless applying for Title Only. - A 6.25 percent motor vehicle sales and use tax is imposed on the sales price (less trade-in allowance) of motor vehicles for use in Texas or a motor vehicle purchased outside of the state and later brought into this state by a Texas resident. - Standard Presumptive Value (SPV) applies to private-party sales of most used motor vehicles purchased or brought into Texas. The tax is computed on the greater of the sales price or 80 percent of the SPV on the day of title application. - New Texas residents are subject to a $90 use tax on a vehicle brought into this state that was previously registered to the new resident in another state or foreign country. This is in lieu of the 6.25 percent use tax imposed on a Texas resident. - A $10 gift tax is due when a person receives a motor vehicle as a gift from an immediate family member, guardian, or a decedent's estate. A vehicle donated to, or given by, a non-profit service organization qualifying under IRC 501(c)(3) is also taxed as a gift. Both donor and recipient must sign the Comptroller's joint affidavit, Affidavit of Motor Vehicle Gift Transfer (Form 14-317). The affidavit and the title application must be submitted in person by either the donor or recipient. - A transaction in which a motor vehicle is transferred to another person without payment of consideration and one that does not qualify as a gift described above is a sale and will be subject to tax calculated on the vehicle's standard presumptive value. - A late penalty equal to 5 percent of the tax will be charged if the tax or surcharge is paid from 1 to 30 calendar days late. If more than 30 calendar days late, the penalty will be 10 percent of the tax; minimum penalty is $1. - In addition to the late tax payment penalty, Texas Transportation Code provides for an escalating delinquent transfer penalty of up to $250 for failure to apply for title within 30 days from the date of title assignment. Submit this application along with proper evidence of ownership and appropriate valid proof of financial responsibility such as a liability insurance card or policy. - All new residents applying for a Texas title and registration for a motor vehicle must file at the county tax assessor-collector of the county in Texas where the applicant resides within 30 days of establishing residency. Texas law requires that all vehicles previously registered and titled or registered in another state or country be inspected for safety and the vehicle identification number verified before such vehicles may be registered in Texas. These inspections must be made by a state appointed safety inspection station that will complete a Texas Vehicle Inspection Report. This form must be submitted to the county tax assessor-collector with your application for registration and Texas title.

As an incident to the divorce proceeding, Grantor and Grantee have agreed that Grantee will acquire the full fee simple title in and to the homestead and that a debt in the amount of $[amount] will be created in favor of Grantor and a lien or owelty of partition will be fixed on the entirety of the homestead to secure the debt. Grantee specifically acknowledges that the lien or owelty of partition is on the entirety of the property and is superior to Grantee's rights of use and occupancy of the property as Grantee's homestead or otherwise.

Grantee joins in the execution of this deed for the purpose of accepting delivery thereof and acknowledging this agreement and the validity of the deed of trust lien, vendor's lien, and lien for owelty created herein on the property and the priority and superiority of the liens to any right of use, occupancy, and homestead that [he/she] may have, hold, or claim in and to the entirety of the property.

Grantee agrees to provide proof of payment (including escrows) of all obligations paid under the assumed note to Grantor on request. Grantee and Grantor agree to provide each other with ongoing access to all passwords and ongoing online access related to the assumed note. Grantor and Grantee agree to forward a copy of any and all correspondence from the underlying Lender to the other party within five business days of receipt.

Other Exceptions to Conveyance and Warranty:

A. Granting Clause

For value received and to secure payment of the note, Grantor conveys the property to Trustee in trust. Grantor warrants and agrees to defend the title to the property, subject to the other exceptions to conveyance and warranty. On payment of the note and all other amounts secured by this deed of trust, this deed of trust will have no further effect, and Beneficiary will release it at Grantor's expense.

B. Grantor's Obligations

B.1. Grantor agrees to maintain all property and liability insurance coverages with respect to the Property, revenues generated by the Property, and operations on the Property that Beneficiary reasonably requires ("Required Insurance Coverages"), issued by insurers and written on policy forms acceptable to Beneficiary, and as to property loss, that are payable to Beneficiary under policies containing standard mortgagee clauses, and deliver evidence of the Required Insurance Coverages in a form acceptable to Beneficiary before execution of this deed of trust and again at least ten days before the expiration of the Required Insurance Coverages.

B.2. Grantor agrees to—

- a. keep the property in good repair and condition;
- b. pay all taxes and assessments on the property before delinquency, not authorize a taxing entity to transfer its tax lien on the property to anyone other than Beneficiary, and not request a deferral of the collection of taxes pursuant to section 33.06 of the Texas Tax Code;
- c. defend title to the property subject to the other exceptions to conveyance and warranty and preserve the lien's priority as it is established in this deed of trust;
- d. obey all laws, ordinances, and restrictive covenants applicable to the property;
- e. keep any buildings occupied as required by the Required Insurance Coverages;
- f. if the lien of this deed of trust is not a first lien, pay or cause to be paid all prior lien notes and abide by or cause to be abided by all prior lien instruments; and
- g. notify Beneficiary of any change of address.

C. Beneficiary's Rights

C.1. Beneficiary may appoint in writing a substitute trustee, succeeding to all rights and responsibilities of Trustee.

C.2. If the proceeds of the note are used to pay any debt secured by prior liens, Beneficiary is subrogated to all the rights and liens of the holders of any debt so paid.

C.3. Beneficiary may apply any proceeds received under the property insurance policies covering the property either to reduce the note or to repair or replace damaged or destroyed improvements covered by the policy. If the property is Grantor's primary residence and Beneficiary reasonably determines that repairs to the improvements are economically feasible, Beneficiary will make the insurance proceeds available to Grantor for repairs.

C.4. Notwithstanding the terms of the note to the contrary, and unless applicable law prohibits, all payments received by Beneficiary from Grantor with respect to the note or this deed of trust may, at Beneficiary's discretion, be applied first to amounts payable under this deed of trust and then to amounts due and payable to Beneficiary with respect to the note, to be applied to late charges, principal, or interest in the order Beneficiary in its discretion determines.

C.5. If Grantor fails to perform any of Grantor's obligations, Beneficiary may perform those obligations and be reimbursed by Grantor on demand for any amounts so paid, including attorney's fees, plus interest on those amounts from the dates of payment at the rate stated in the note for matured, unpaid amounts. The amount to be reimbursed will be secured by this deed of trust.

C.6. COLLATERAL PROTECTION INSURANCE NOTICE

In accordance with the provisions of section 307.052(a) of the Texas Finance Code, Beneficiary hereby notifies Grantor as follows:

(A) Grantor is required to:

- (i) keep the collateral insured against damage in the amount Beneficiary specifies;
- (ii) purchase the insurance from an insurer that is authorized to do business in the state of Texas or an eligible surplus lines insurer; and
- (iii) name Beneficiary as the person to be paid under the policy in the event of a loss;

(B) Grantor must, if required by Beneficiary, deliver to Beneficiary a copy of the policy and proof of the payment of premiums; and

(C) if Grantor fails to meet any requirement listed in Paragraph (A) or (B), Beneficiary may obtain collateral protection insurance on behalf of Grantor at Grantor's expense.

C.7. If a default exists in payment of the note or performance of Grantor's obligations and the default continues after any required notice of the default and the time allowed to cure, Beneficiary may—

- a. declare the unpaid principal balance and earned interest on the note immediately due;
- b. exercise Beneficiary's rights with respect to rent under the Texas Property Code as then in effect;
- c. direct Trustee to foreclose this lien, in which case Beneficiary or Beneficiary's agent will cause notice of the foreclosure sale to be given as provided by the Texas Property Code as then in effect; and
- d. purchase the property at any foreclosure sale by offering the highest bid and then have the bid credited on the note.

C.8. Beneficiary may remedy any default without waiving it and may waive any default without waiving any prior or subsequent default.

D. Trustee's Rights and Duties

If directed by Beneficiary to foreclose this lien, Trustee will—

D.1. either personally or by agent give notice of the foreclosure sale as required by the Texas Property Code as then in effect;

D.2. sell and convey all or part of the property “AS IS” to the highest bidder for cash with a general warranty binding Grantor, subject to prior liens and to the other exceptions to conveyance and warranty and without representation or warranty, express or implied, by Trustee;

D.3. from the proceeds of the sale, pay, in this order—

- a. expenses of foreclosure, including a reasonable commission to Trustee;
- b. to Beneficiary, the full amount of principal, interest, attorney’s fees, and other charges due and unpaid;
- c. any amounts required by law to be paid before payment to Grantor; and
- d. to Grantor, any balance; and

D.4. be indemnified, held harmless, and defended by Beneficiary against all costs, expenses, and liabilities incurred by Trustee for acting in the execution or enforcement of the trust created by this deed of trust, which includes all court and other costs, including attorney’s fees, incurred by Trustee in defense of any action or proceeding taken against Trustee in that capacity.

E. General Provisions

E.1. If any of the property is sold under this deed of trust, Grantor must immediately surrender possession to the purchaser. If Grantor does not, Grantor will be a tenant at sufferance of the purchaser, subject to an action for forcible detainer.

E.2. Recitals in any trustee’s deed conveying the property will be presumed to be true.

E.3. Proceeding under this deed of trust, filing suit for foreclosure, or pursuing any other remedy will not constitute an election of remedies.

E.4. This lien will remain superior to liens later created even if the time of payment of all or part of the note is extended or part of the property is released.

E.5. If any portion of the note cannot be lawfully secured by this deed of trust, payments will be applied first to discharge that portion.

E.6. Grantor assigns to Beneficiary all amounts payable to or received by Grantor from condemnation of all or part of the property, from private sale in lieu of condemnation, and from damages caused by public works or construction on or near the property. After deducting any expenses incurred, including attorney's fees and court and other costs, Beneficiary will either release any remaining amounts to Grantor or apply such amounts to reduce the note. Beneficiary will not be liable for failure to collect or to exercise diligence in collecting any such amounts. Grantor will immediately give Beneficiary notice of any actual or threatened proceedings for condemnation of all or part of the property.

E.7. Grantor collaterally assigns to Beneficiary all present and future rent from the property and its proceeds. Grantor warrants the validity and enforceability of the assignment. Grantor will apply all rent to payment of the note and performance of this deed of trust, but if the rent exceeds the amount due with respect to the note and the deed of trust, Grantor may retain the excess. If a default exists in payment of the note or performance of this deed of trust, Beneficiary may exercise Beneficiary's rights with respect to rent under the Texas Property Code as then in effect. Beneficiary neither has nor assumes any obligations as lessor or landlord with respect to any occupant of the property. Beneficiary may exercise Beneficiary's rights and remedies under this paragraph without taking possession of the property. Beneficiary will apply all rent collected under this paragraph as required by the Texas Property Code as then in effect. Beneficiary is not required to act under this paragraph, and acting under this paragraph does not waive any of Beneficiary's other rights or remedies.

E.8. Interest on the debt secured by this deed of trust will not exceed the maximum amount of nonusurious interest that may be contracted for, taken, reserved, charged, or received under law. Any interest in excess of that maximum amount will be credited on the principal of the debt or, if that has been paid, refunded. On any acceleration or required or permitted prepayment, any such excess will be canceled automatically as of the acceleration or prepayment or, if already paid, credited on the principal of the debt or, if the principal of the debt has been paid, refunded. This provision overrides any conflicting provisions in this and all other instruments concerning the debt.

E.9. In no event may this deed of trust secure payment of any debt that may not lawfully be secured by a lien on real estate or create a lien otherwise prohibited by law.

E.10. If Grantor transfers any part of the property without Beneficiary's prior written consent, Beneficiary may declare the note immediately payable and invoke any remedies provided in this deed of trust for default. If the property is residential real property containing fewer than five dwelling units or a residential manufactured home, this provision does not apply to (a) a subordinate lien or encumbrance that does not transfer rights of occupancy of the property; (b) creation of a purchase-money security interest for household appliances; (c) grant of a leasehold interest of three years or less without an option to purchase; (d) transfer to a spouse or children of Grantor; (e) transfer to a relative of Grantor on Grantor's death; (f) a transfer resulting from a decree of a dissolution of marriage, a legal separation agreement, or an incidental property settlement agreement by which the spouse of Grantor becomes an owner of the property; or (g) transfer to an inter vivos trust in which Grantor is and remains a beneficiary and occupant of the property.

E.11. When the context requires, singular nouns and pronouns include the plural.

E.12. The term note includes all extensions, modifications, and renewals of the note and all amounts secured by this deed of trust.

E.13. This deed of trust binds, benefits, and may be enforced by successors in interest of all parties.

E.14. If Grantor and Maker are not the same person, the term Grantor includes Maker.

E.15. Grantor and each surety, endorser, and guarantor of the note waive, to the extent permitted by law, all (a) demand for payment, (b) presentation for payment, (c) notice of intention to accelerate maturity, (d) notice of acceleration of maturity, (e) protest, (f) notice of protest, and (g) rights under sections 51.003, 51.004, and 51.005 of the Texas Property Code.

E.16. Grantor agrees to pay reasonable attorney's fees, trustee's fees, and court and other costs of enforcing Beneficiary's rights under this deed of trust if an attorney is retained for its enforcement.

E.17. If any provision of this deed of trust is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other provision will not be affected.

E.18. Grantor hereby grants Beneficiary a right of first refusal with respect to Grantor's power to authorize any third party (other than Beneficiary pursuant to its right as set forth in this instrument) to pay ad valorem taxes on the property and authorize a taxing entity to transfer its tax lien on the property to that third party. Grantor's authorization to any third party (other than Beneficiary) to pay the ad valorem taxes and receive transfer of a taxing entity's lien for ad valorem taxes shall be null and void and of no force and effect unless Beneficiary, within ten days after receiving written notice from Grantor, fails to pay the ad valorem taxes pursuant to Beneficiary's right as set forth in this instrument.

E.19. Grantor represents that this deed of trust and the note are given for the following purposes:

This deed of trust is given to comply with the Final Decree of Divorce and obligation imposed therein in Cause No. [number], rendered by the [designation] Court of [county] County, Texas, styled “[style of case].”

Promise to Pay

Maker promises to pay to the order of Payee the principal amount plus interest at the annual interest rate. This note is payable at the place for payment and according to the terms of payment. All unpaid amounts are due by the maturity date. If any amount is not paid either when due under the terms of payment or on acceleration of maturity, Maker promises to pay any unpaid amount plus interest from the date the payment was due to the date of payment at the annual interest rate on matured, unpaid amounts.

Prepayment Clause

Maker may prepay this note in any amount at any time before the maturity date without penalty or premium. Prepayments will be applied to installments on the last maturing principal, and interest on that prepaid principal will immediately cease to accrue.

Defaults and Remedies

If Maker defaults in the payment of this note or in the performance of any obligation in any instrument securing or collateral to this note, Payee may declare the unpaid principal balance, earned interest, and any other amounts owed on the note immediately due and may exercise all other rights and remedies available at law or in equity.

Attorney's Fees

Maker also promises to pay reasonable attorney's fees and court and other costs if an attorney is retained to collect or enforce the note. These expenses will bear interest from the date of advance at the annual interest rate on matured, unpaid amounts. Maker will pay Payee these expenses and interest on demand at the place for payment. These expenses and interest will become part of the debt evidenced by the note and will be secured by any security for payment.

Usury Savings

Interest on the debt evidenced by this note will not exceed the maximum rate or amount of nonusurious interest that may be contracted for, taken, reserved, charged, or received under law. Any interest in excess of that maximum amount will be credited on the principal amount or, if the principal amount has been paid, refunded. On any acceleration or required or permitted prepayment, any excess interest will be canceled automatically as of the acceleration or prepayment or, if the excess interest has already been paid, credited on the principal amount or, if the principal amount has been paid, refunded. This provision overrides any conflicting provisions in this note and all other instruments concerning the debt.

Other Clauses

Each Maker is responsible for all obligations represented by this note.

When the context requires, singular nouns and pronouns include the plural.

This note is given to evidence the indebtedness imposed on Maker by the Final Decree of Divorce entered in Cause No. [number] by the [designation] Court of [county] County, Texas, styled “[style of case].”

Other Exceptions to Conveyance and Warranty:

Consideration: Beneficiary has conveyed the property to Grantor, who as part of the consideration promised to pay the note assumed and to be bound by the deed of trust assumed.

A. Granting Clause

For value received and to secure Grantor's assumption, Grantor conveys the property to Trustee in trust. Grantor warrants and agrees to defend the title to the property, subject to the other exceptions to conveyance and warranty. If Grantor performs all the covenants of the note and deed of trust assumed and if Beneficiary has not filed a notice of advancement, a release of the deed of trust assumed will release this deed of trust to secure assumption and Beneficiary's vendor's lien.

B. Grantor's Obligations

Grantor agrees to—

B.1. perform all the covenants of the Note and Deed of Trust assumed; and

B.2. notify Beneficiary and Lender of any change of address.

C. Beneficiary's Rights

C.1. Beneficiary may appoint in writing a substitute trustee, succeeding to all rights and responsibilities of Trustee.

C.2. If Grantor fails to perform any of Grantor's obligations under the note assumed or deed of trust assumed, Beneficiary may perform those obligations, advance funds required, and then be reimbursed by Grantor on demand for any amounts so advanced, including attorney's fees, plus interest on those amounts from the dates of payment at the highest legal rate. The amount to be reimbursed will be secured by this deed of trust to secure assumption.

C.3. Beneficiary may file a sworn notice of such advancement in the office of the county clerk in the county in which the property is located. The notice will detail the dates, amounts, and purposes of the amounts advanced and the legal description of the property.

C.4. If Grantor fails on demand to reimburse Beneficiary for the amounts advanced and such failure continues after Beneficiary gives Grantor notice of the failure and the time within which it must be cured, to the extent required by law or by written agreement, Beneficiary may—

- a. exercise Beneficiary's rights with respect to rent under the Texas Property Code as then in effect;
- b. direct Trustee to foreclose this lien, in which case Beneficiary or Beneficiary's agent will cause notice of the foreclosure sale to be given as provided by the Texas Property Code as then in effect; and

- c. purchase the property at any foreclosure sale by offering the highest bid and then have the bid credited to the amount owed to Beneficiary.

D. Trustee's Rights and Duties

If directed by Beneficiary to foreclose this lien, Trustee will—

D.1. either personally or by agent give notice of the foreclosure sale as required by this deed of trust to secure assumption and the Texas Property Code as then in effect;

D.2. sell and convey all or part of the property “AS IS” to the highest bidder for cash with a general warranty binding Grantor, subject to the prior lien and to the other exceptions to conveyance and warranty and without representation or warranty, express or implied, by Trustee;

D.3. from the proceeds of the sale, pay, in this order—

- a. expenses of foreclosure, including a reasonable commission to Trustee;
- b. to Beneficiary, the full amount advanced, attorney's fees, and other charges due and unpaid;
- c. any amounts required by law to be paid before payment to Grantor; and
- d. to Grantor, any balance; and

D.4. be indemnified, held harmless, and defended by Beneficiary against all costs, expenses, and liabilities incurred by Trustee for acting in the execution or enforcement of the trust created by this deed of trust to secure assumption, which includes all court and other costs, including attorney's fees, incurred by Trustee in defense of any action or proceeding taken against Trustee in that capacity.

E. General Provisions

E.1. If any of the property is sold under this deed of trust to secure assumption, Grantor must immediately surrender possession to the purchaser. If Grantor does not, Grantor will be a tenant at sufferance of the purchaser, subject to an action for forcible detainer.

E.2. Recitals in any trustee's deed conveying the property will be presumed to be true.

E.3. Proceeding under this deed of trust to secure assumption, filing suit for foreclosure, or pursuing any other remedy will not constitute an election of remedies.

E.4. This lien will be superior to liens later created even if Beneficiary has made no advancements when later liens are created.

E.5. If any portion of the advancements cannot be lawfully secured by this deed of trust to secure assumption, payments will be applied first to discharge that portion.

E.6. A sale of the property under this deed of trust to secure assumption—

- a. is subject to Grantor's continuing obligation to make all payments owing on the note assumed and to perform all obligations under the deed of trust assumed; and
- b. does not extinguish Trustee's right to conduct subsequent sales of the property for future Grantor defaults under this deed of trust to secure assumption.

E.7. Grantor collaterally assigns to Beneficiary all present and future rent from the property and its proceeds. Grantor warrants the validity and enforceability of the assignment.

Grantor will apply all rent to payment of the note assumed and performance of the deed of trust assumed, but if the rent exceeds the amount due with respect to the note and deed of trust assumed, Grantor may retain the excess. If a default exists in payment of the note assumed or performance of this deed of trust to secure assumption or of the deed of trust assumed, Beneficiary may exercise Beneficiary's rights with respect to rent under the Texas Property Code as then in effect. Beneficiary neither has nor assumes any obligations as lessor or landlord with respect to any occupant of the property. Beneficiary may exercise Beneficiary's rights and remedies under this paragraph without taking possession of the property. Beneficiary will apply all rent collected under this paragraph as required by the Texas Property Code as then in effect. Beneficiary is not required to act under this paragraph, and acting under this paragraph does not waive any of Beneficiary's other rights or remedies.

E.8. Interest on the debt secured by this deed of trust to secure assumption will not exceed the maximum amount of nonusurious interest that may be contracted for, taken, reserved, charged, or received under law. Any interest in excess of that maximum amount will be credited on the principal of the debt or, if that has been paid, refunded. On any acceleration or required or permitted prepayment, any such excess will be canceled automatically as of the acceleration or prepayment or, if already paid, credited on the principal of the debt or, if the principal of the debt has been paid, refunded. This provision overrides any conflicting provisions in this and all other instruments concerning the debt.

E.9. Any action taken under this deed of trust to secure assumption will not extinguish the rights of Beneficiary to proceed against Grantor under the indemnity contained in the deed by which Grantor assumed the note and deed of trust assumed.

E.10. When the context requires, singular nouns and pronouns include the plural.

E.11. This deed of trust to secure assumption binds, benefits, and may be enforced by the successors in interest of all parties.

E.12. Grantor waives and surrenders to Beneficiary (a) Grantor's power to authorize anyone (other than Beneficiary or Grantor) to pay ad valorem taxes on the property and (b) Grantor's power to authorize a taxing entity to transfer its tax lien on the property to anyone other than Beneficiary. Grantor agrees and declares that any authorization from Grantor to another (other than Beneficiary) to pay the taxes and transfer a tax lien on the property is void.

E.13. If all or any part of the property is sold, conveyed, leased for a period longer than three years, leased with an option to purchase, or otherwise sold (including any contract for deed) without Beneficiary's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld in Beneficiary's sole discretion, Beneficiary may declare a default of this agreement and seek to foreclose on the property. The creation of a subordinate lien, any conveyance under threat or order of condemnation, or the passage of title by reason of the death of Grantor or by operation of law will not entitle Beneficiary to exercise the remedies provided in this paragraph.

E.14. Grantor agrees to provide proof of payment (including escrows) of all obligations paid under the assumed note to Beneficiary on request. Grantor and Beneficiary agree to provide each other with ongoing access to all passwords and ongoing online access related to the assumed note. Grantor and Beneficiary agree to forward a copy of any and all correspondence from the underlying Lender to the other party within five business days of receipt.

Other Exceptions to Conveyance and Warranty:

A. Granting Clause

For value received and to secure payment of the note given pursuant to the owelty agreement between the parties as set forth in the Special Warranty Deed with Encumbrance for Owelty of Partition, Grantor conveys the property to Trustee in trust. Grantor warrants and agrees to defend the title to the property, subject to the other exceptions to conveyance and warranty. On payment of the note and all other amounts secured by this deed of trust, this deed of trust will have no further effect, and Beneficiary will release it at Grantor's expense.

B. Grantor's Obligations

B.1. Grantor agrees to maintain all property and liability insurance coverages with respect to the Property, revenues generated by the Property, and operations on the Property that Beneficiary reasonably requires ("Required Insurance Coverages"), issued by insurers and written on policy forms acceptable to Beneficiary, and as to property loss, that are payable to Beneficiary under policies containing standard mortgagee clauses, and deliver evidence of the Required Insurance Coverages in a form acceptable to Beneficiary before execution of this deed of trust and again at least ten days before the expiration of the Required Insurance Coverages.

B.2. Grantor agrees to—

- a. keep the property in good repair and condition;
- b. pay all taxes and assessments on the property before delinquency, not authorize a taxing entity to transfer its tax lien on the property to anyone other than Beneficiary, and not request a deferral of the collection of taxes pursuant to section 33.06 of the Texas Tax Code;
- c. defend title to the property subject to the other exceptions to conveyance and warranty and preserve the lien's priority as it is established in this deed of trust;
- d. obey all laws, ordinances, and restrictive covenants applicable to the property;
- e. keep any buildings occupied as required by the Required Insurance Coverages;
- f. if the lien of this deed of trust is not a first lien, pay or cause to be paid all prior lien notes and abide by or cause to be abided by all prior lien instruments; and
- g. notify Beneficiary of any change of address.

C. Beneficiary's Rights

C.1. Beneficiary may appoint in writing a substitute trustee, succeeding to all rights and responsibilities of Trustee.

C.2. If the proceeds of the note are used to pay any debt secured by prior liens, Beneficiary is subrogated to all the rights and liens of the holders of any debt so paid.

C.3. Beneficiary may apply any proceeds received under the property insurance policies covering the property either to reduce the note or to repair or replace damaged or destroyed improvements covered by the policy. If the property is Grantor's primary residence and Beneficiary reasonably determines that repairs to the improvements are economically feasible, Beneficiary will make the insurance proceeds available to Grantor for repairs.

C.4. Notwithstanding the terms of the note to the contrary, and unless applicable law prohibits, all payments received by Beneficiary from Grantor with respect to the note or this deed of trust may, at Beneficiary's discretion, be applied first to amounts payable under this deed of trust and then to amounts due and payable to Beneficiary with respect to the note, to be applied to late charges, principal, or interest in the order Beneficiary in its discretion determines.

C.5. If Grantor fails to perform any of Grantor's obligations, Beneficiary may perform those obligations and be reimbursed by Grantor on demand for any amounts so paid, including attorney's fees, plus interest on those amounts from the dates of payment at the rate stated in the note for matured, unpaid amounts. The amount to be reimbursed will be secured by this deed of trust.

C.6. COLLATERAL PROTECTION INSURANCE NOTICE

In accordance with the provisions of section 307.052(a) of the Texas Finance Code, Beneficiary hereby notifies Grantor as follows:

(A) Grantor is required to:

- (i) keep the collateral insured against damage in the amount Beneficiary specifies;
- (ii) purchase the insurance from an insurer that is authorized to do business in the state of Texas or an eligible surplus lines insurer; and
- (iii) name Beneficiary as the person to be paid under the policy in the event of a loss;

(B) Grantor must, if required by Beneficiary, deliver to Beneficiary a copy of the policy and proof of the payment of premiums; and

(C) if Grantor fails to meet any requirement listed in Paragraph (A) or (B), Beneficiary may obtain collateral protection insurance on behalf of Grantor at Grantor's expense.

C.7. If a default exists in payment of the note or performance of Grantor's obligations and the default continues after any required notice of the default and the time allowed to cure, Beneficiary may—

- a. declare the unpaid principal balance and earned interest on the note immediately due;
- b. exercise Beneficiary's rights with respect to rent under the Texas Property Code, as then in effect;
- c. direct Trustee to foreclose this lien, in which case Beneficiary or Beneficiary's agent will cause notice of the foreclosure sale to be given as provided by the Texas Property Code as then in effect; and
- d. purchase the property at any foreclosure sale by offering the highest bid and then have the bid credited on the note.

C.8. Beneficiary may remedy any default without waiving it and may waive any default without waiving any prior or subsequent default.

D. Trustee's Rights and Duties

If directed by Beneficiary to foreclose this lien, Trustee will—

D.1. either personally or by agent give notice of the foreclosure sale as required by the Texas Property Code as then in effect;

D.2. sell and convey all or part of the property “AS IS” to the highest bidder for cash with a general warranty binding Grantor, subject to prior liens and to the other exceptions to conveyance and warranty and without representation or warranty, express or implied, by Trustee;

D.3. from the proceeds of the sale, pay, in this order—

- a. expenses of foreclosure, including a reasonable commission to Trustee;
- b. to Beneficiary, the full amount of principal, interest, attorney’s fees, and other charges due and unpaid;
- c. any amounts required by law to be paid before payment to Grantor; and
- d. to Grantor, any balance; and

D.4. be indemnified, held harmless, and defended by Beneficiary against all costs, expenses, and liabilities incurred by Trustee for acting in the execution or enforcement of the trust created by this deed of trust, which includes all court and other costs, including attorney’s fees, incurred by Trustee in defense of any action or proceeding taken against Trustee in that capacity.

E. General Provisions

E.1. If any of the property is sold under this deed of trust, Grantor must immediately surrender possession to the purchaser. If Grantor does not, Grantor will be a tenant at sufferance of the purchaser, subject to an action for forcible detainer.

E.2. Recitals in any trustee’s deed conveying the property will be presumed to be true.

E.3. Proceeding under this deed of trust, filing suit for foreclosure, or pursuing any other remedy will not constitute an election of remedies.

E.4. This lien will remain superior to liens later created even if the time of payment of all or part of the note is extended or part of the property is released.

E.5. If any portion of the note cannot be lawfully secured by this deed of trust, payments will be applied first to discharge that portion.

E.6. Grantor assigns to Beneficiary all amounts payable to or received by Grantor from condemnation of all or part of the property, from private sale in lieu of condemnation, and from damages caused by public works or construction on or near the property. After deducting any expenses incurred, including attorney's fees and court and other costs, Beneficiary will either release any remaining amounts to Grantor or apply such amounts to reduce the note. Beneficiary will not be liable for failure to collect or to exercise diligence in collecting any such amounts. Grantor will immediately give Beneficiary notice of any actual or threatened proceedings for condemnation of all or part of the property.

E.7. Grantor collaterally assigns to Beneficiary all present and future rent from the property and its proceeds. Grantor warrants the validity and enforceability of the assignment. Grantor will apply all rent to payment of the note and performance of this deed of trust, but if the rent exceeds the amount due with respect to the note and the deed of trust, Grantor may retain the excess. If a default exists in payment of the note or performance of this deed of trust, Beneficiary may exercise Beneficiary's rights with respect to rent under the Texas Property Code as then in effect. Beneficiary neither has nor assumes any obligations as lessor or landlord with respect to any occupant of the property. Beneficiary may exercise Beneficiary's rights and remedies under this paragraph without taking possession of the property. Beneficiary will apply all rent collected under this paragraph as required by the Texas Property Code as then in effect. Beneficiary is not required to act under this paragraph, and acting under this paragraph does not waive any of Beneficiary's other rights or remedies.

E.8. Interest on the debt secured by this deed of trust will not exceed the maximum amount of nonusurious interest that may be contracted for, taken, reserved, charged, or received under law. Any interest in excess of that maximum amount will be credited on the principal of the debt or, if that has been paid, refunded. On any acceleration or required or permitted prepayment, any such excess will be canceled automatically as of the acceleration or prepayment or, if already paid, credited on the principal of the debt or, if the principal of the debt has been paid, refunded. This provision overrides any conflicting provisions in this and all other instruments concerning the debt.

E.9. In no event may this deed of trust secure payment of any debt that may not lawfully be secured by a lien on real estate or create a lien otherwise prohibited by law.

E.10. If Grantor transfers any part of the property without Beneficiary's prior written consent, Beneficiary may declare the note immediately payable and invoke any remedies provided in this deed of trust for default. If the property is residential real property containing fewer than five dwelling units or a residential manufactured home, this provision does not apply to (a) a subordinate lien or encumbrance that does not transfer rights of occupancy of the property; (b) creation of a purchase-money security interest for household appliances; (c) grant of a leasehold interest of three years or less without an option to purchase; (d) transfer to a spouse or children of Grantor; (e) transfer to a relative of Grantor on Grantor's death; (f) a transfer resulting from a decree of a dissolution of marriage, a legal separation agreement, or an incidental property settlement agreement by which the spouse of Grantor becomes an owner of the property; or (g) transfer to an inter vivos trust in which Grantor is and remains a beneficiary and occupant of the property.

E.11. When the context requires, singular nouns and pronouns include the plural.

E.12. The term note includes all extensions, modifications, and renewals of the note and all amounts secured by this deed of trust.

E.13. This deed of trust binds, benefits, and may be enforced by successors in interest of all parties.

E.14. If Grantor and Maker are not the same person, the term Grantor includes Maker.

E.15. Grantor and each surety, endorser, and guarantor of the note waive, to the extent permitted by law, all (a) demand for payment, (b) presentation for payment, (c) notice of intention to accelerate maturity, (d) notice of acceleration of maturity, (e) protest, (f) notice of protest, and (g) rights under sections 51.003, 51.004, and 51.005 of the Texas Property Code.

E.16. Grantor agrees to pay reasonable attorney's fees, trustee's fees, and court and other costs of enforcing Beneficiary's rights under this deed of trust if an attorney is retained for its enforcement.

E.17. If any provision of this deed of trust is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other provision will not be affected.

E.18. Grantor hereby grants Beneficiary a right of first refusal with respect to Grantor's power to authorize any third party (other than Beneficiary pursuant to its right as set forth in this instrument) to pay ad valorem taxes on the property and authorize a taxing entity to transfer its tax lien on the property to that third party. Grantor's authorization to any third party (other than Beneficiary) to pay the ad valorem taxes and receive transfer of a taxing entity's lien for ad valorem taxes shall be null and void and of no force and effect unless Beneficiary, within ten days after receiving written notice from Grantor, fails to pay the ad valorem taxes pursuant to Beneficiary's right as set forth in this instrument.

E.19. Grantor represents that this deed of trust and the note are given for the following purposes:

Form 24-19

This form may be used to provide for the management of jointly owned property after divorce. It may be incorporated by reference in the decree of divorce and the agreement incident to divorce.

Operating Trust Agreement for Jointly Owned Property after Divorce

This Operating Trust Agreement for Jointly Owned Property after Divorce is made by the joint owners, [name], Trustee, and [name], Beneficiary. The parties agree as follows:

1. The parties desire to own as tenants in common certain properties described in Schedule 1 of this agreement. Because these properties are difficult to evaluate, may periodically require additional cash contributions, and may periodically be sold, refinanced, or forfeited because other investors no longer desire to keep their interests in the asset, the parties agree that Trustee will act as trustee for Beneficiary in connection with Beneficiary's one-half undivided interest in the properties. Trustee's rights to manage and hold these properties are described in the following paragraphs.

2. Beneficiary consents for Trustee to act as trustee for Beneficiary's one-half undivided interest in the properties described in Schedule 1 of this agreement. Trustee recognizes Trustee's duty to exercise reasonable prudence and care in the management of Beneficiary's property as if it were Trustee's own. In that regard, Beneficiary acknowledges that the properties are also owned one-half by Trustee, and, in that respect, Beneficiary acknowledges that Trustee's management and preservation of the properties should be of benefit to both parties.

3. Trustee will have the right, in Trustee's sole and undivided discretion, to sell or vote for the sale of any asset held individually or held in a partnership under such terms and conditions as Trustee deems most appropriate. Trustee may from time to time elect not to make cash contributions required for the preservation of the properties. Before the property interest is forfeited, it must be offered to Beneficiary under the same terms and conditions.

Beneficiary must be given ten days' written notice of any such forfeiture of the property, affording Beneficiary the option to take over full and complete ownership. Beneficiary may then elect to make the cash contribution and to take over full and complete ownership of the property without further claim from Trustee. Trustee has the right at any time to declare any property covered by this agreement to be worthless. Upon such declaration, that property will be automatically removed from the terms of this agreement and may be claimed by Beneficiary, at Beneficiary's option, as Beneficiary's separate property.

4. Trustee will maintain a separate bank account through which all contributions and receipts will be made. Trustee will receive no compensation for the management and preservation of the properties. Beneficiary will have the right to periodically examine the books and records or designate an authorized person to do so. All receipts from the property, whether from sale, rental, or otherwise, must be deposited in the operating account. No money may be taken from the account other than for the management and preservation of the properties or for placement in an interest-bearing account. When all assets in the trust have been sold, transferred, or forfeited, and not before that time, any funds on deposit in the operating account will be distributed as follows:

- a. Trustee will be reimbursed for all contributions and expenses made or incurred by Trustee with respect to the properties during the term of this agreement; and
- b. the remaining funds will be divided 50 percent to Trustee and 50 percent to Beneficiary.

5. Trustee has the right to make reasonable and necessary expenditures in the management and preservation of the properties and the right to employ any contractors, brokers, attorneys, accountants, and the like that are reasonably necessary to manage and preserve the properties. Trustee also has the right to execute, acknowledge, and deliver any instruments necessary for the preservation, management, and sale of the properties.

- b. Debtor's failure to punctually and promptly pay Debtor's obligations evidenced by [the promissory note in accordance with its terms/[describe other obligation, such as alimony, contained in the decree or agreement]];
- c. the making or furnishing to Secured Party by or on behalf of Debtor of any warranty, representation, or statement that proves to have been false in any material respect when made or furnished;
- d. any event that results in acceleration in the maturity of Debtor's obligation;
- e. the making of any levy, seizure, or attachment of any collateral;
- f. Secured Party's reasonable belief that the prospect of payment of any indebtedness secured by this agreement or the performance of the security agreement is impaired; or
- g. death, dissolution, termination of existence, insolvency, business failure, appointment of a receiver for any part of the collateral, assignment for the benefit of creditors, or commencement of any proceeding in any bankruptcy or under any insolvency law by or against Debtor or any guarantor or surety for Debtor.

8. Rights of Secured Party on Occurrence of an Event of Default

On the occurrence of an event of default, Secured Party may foreclose the security interest in either of the following ways:

- a. Retention of Collateral. Secured Party may retain in satisfaction of Debtor's obligation that portion of the collateral that has a "fair value" equal to the amount of Debtor's obligations that Debtor has failed to pay. "Fair value" of the collateral is defined as follows: [if stock, include the following: Book value per share of common stock of [name], a corporation, multiplied by the number of shares of the stock constituting the collateral/[describe the face amount of any certificate of deposit, savings account, or other measure of the value of the collateral]].

Continue with the following if applicable.

Book value per share must be determined by subtracting the gross liabilities of the corporation from the gross assets (excluding goodwill and other intangible assets) of the corporation as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and multiplying the remainder by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be one and the denominator of which shall be the total number of shares of common stock of the corporation outstanding, all as of the date of the default.

- b. Sale of Collateral. Subject to the provisions of subchapter F, chapter 9, of the Texas Business and Commerce Code, Secured Party may instruct the escrow agent to offer the collateral at a public or private sale after ten days' written notice to Debtor.

9. Escrow Agent and Voting Rights

Debtor appoints [name] of [city], Texas, as escrow agent for the collateral. Concurrently with the delivery by the escrow agent of a receipt for the collateral, Debtor must deliver to the escrow agent collateral instruments of transfer, executed in blank, covering the collateral.

- a. Terms of Escrow. When satisfactory proof has been presented to the escrow agent that Debtor's obligations referred to in paragraph 1. above have been paid in full, the escrow agent must redeliver the [certificates of stock/
[describe other collateral pledged]] held by the escrow agent to Debtor, and all obligations between Secured Party and Debtor and of the escrow agent will cease. If Debtor defaults in the payment of Debtor's obligations, Secured Party may give written notice of the default to the escrow agent. The escrow agent must then, with reasonable dispatch, deliver the collateral to Secured Party for retention or offer the collateral for sale as provided in paragraph 8.

Continue with the following if applicable.

- b. Voting. As long as the collateral is held by the escrow agent and until Debtor defaults in Debtor's obligations, Debtor has the right to exercise all voting rights granted therein for all purposes. If requested by Debtor, Secured Party and the escrow agent must execute and deliver to Debtor the proxies and authorizations that are reasonably required to confirm the voting rights of Debtor during this period.
- c. Dividends. As long as the collateral is held by the escrow agent and until Debtor defaults in Debtor's obligations, all dividends, interest, and other income generated by the collateral belong to Debtor.
- d. Voting Trust. As long as the collateral is held by the escrow agent and until Debtor defaults in Debtor's obligations, Debtor has the right to assign the collateral to a voting trust, if available, in which event the escrow agent must accept certificates of the voting trust as substitution of collateral. In the event of default, the escrow agent must deliver the certificates of the voting trust to Secured Party in the same manner as in the case of the collateral.

10. Substitution of Escrow Agent

Debtor has the right at any time Debtor is not in default to remove the existing escrow agent and appoint any state or national bank chartered in Texas as substitute escrow agent. The substitute escrow agent must perform subject to the terms and conditions of this agreement as they may apply to the duties and functions of the original escrow agent.

11. Substitution of Collateral

Debtor has the right at any time to substitute certificates of deposit issued by any state or national bank chartered in Texas as security for Debtor's obligations in an amount equal to the then balance of Debtor's obligations secured by this agreement.

12. No Waiver of Rights or Remedies

- a. No Waiver. No failure or delay by Secured Party in exercising any rights, power, or privilege under this agreement operates as a waiver, and no single or partial exercise of any such power or privilege precludes any other or further exercise of any other right, power, or privilege.
- b. Severability. If any provision of this agreement is for any reason found to be unenforceable, all other provisions nevertheless remain enforceable.
- c. Notices. Any notices or other communications required or remitted under this agreement are sufficiently given if delivered personally or sent by certified mail, postage prepaid, to [name and address of debtor] and [name and address of secured party or representative], or at such other addresses as shall be furnished in writing by either party to the other, and will be deemed to have been given as of the date so delivered or deposited in the United States mail.

- d. Assignment of Secured Party. This agreement and the security interest it creates are assignable by Secured Party and inure to the benefit of Secured Party's heirs, executors, or administrators and bind Debtor and Debtor's heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, and assigns.
- e. Choice of Law. This agreement must be construed, and its performance enforced, under Texas law.

E.2. Change its name or jurisdiction of organization, merge or consolidate with any person, or convert to a different entity without notifying Secured Party in advance and taking action to continue the perfected status of the security interest in the collateral.

Or

Include the following if the debtor is an entity other than a corporation, limited partnership, or limited liability company.

E.2. Change the state in which Debtor's place of business (or chief executive office if Debtor has more than one place of business) is located, change its name, or convert to a different entity without notifying Secured Party in advance and taking action to continue the perfected status of the security interest in the collateral.

Or

Include the following if the debtor is an individual.

E.2. Change Debtor's name or state of residence without notifying Secured Party in advance and taking action to continue the perfected status of the security interest in the collateral.

Continue with the following.

E.3. Modify any term of any instrument or security in the collateral.

E.4. Commingle any payment on the collateral with any of Debtor's other funds or property.

F. Default and Remedies

F.1. A default exists if—

- a. Debtor, Obligor, or any secondary obligor fails to timely pay or perform any obligation or covenant in any written agreement between Secured Party and any of Debtor, Obligor, or secondary obligor;
- b. any representation in this agreement or in any other written agreement between Secured Party and any of Debtor, Obligor, or secondary obligor is materially false when made;
- c. a receiver is appointed for Debtor, Obligor, any secondary obligor, or any collateral;
- d. any collateral is assigned for the benefit of creditors;
- e. a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding is commenced by Debtor, a partnership in which Debtor is a general partner, Obligor, or any secondary obligor;
- f. a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding is commenced against Debtor, a partnership in which Debtor is a general partner, Obligor, or any secondary obligor, and the proceeding continues without dismissal for sixty days, the party against whom the proceeding is commenced admits the material allegations of the petition against it, or an order for relief is entered;
- g. any of the following parties is terminated, begins to wind up its affairs, is authorized to terminate or wind up its affairs by its governing body or persons, or any event occurs or condition exists that permits the termination or winding up of the affairs of any of the following parties: Debtor; a partnership of which Debtor is a general partner; Obligor; or any secondary obligor;
or
- h. any collateral is impaired by loss, theft, damage, levy and execution, issuance of an official writ or order of seizure, or destruction, unless it is promptly replaced with collateral of like kind and quality or restored to its former condition.

F.2. If a default exists, Secured Party may—

- a. demand, collect, convert, redeem, settle, compromise, receipt for, realize on, sue for, and adjust the collateral either in Secured Party's or Debtor's name, as Secured Party desires, or take control of any proceeds of the collateral and apply the proceeds against the obligation;
- b. take possession of any collateral not already in Secured Party's possession, without demand or legal process, and for that purpose Debtor grants Secured Party the right to enter any premises where the collateral may be located;
- c. without taking possession, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the collateral at any public or private sale in accordance with law;
- d. exercise any rights and remedies granted by law or this agreement;
- e. notify obligors on the collateral to pay Secured Party directly;
- f. as Debtor's agent, make any endorsements in Debtor's name and on Debtor's behalf of any instruments in the collateral and to any proceeds of the collateral;
- g. exercise and enforce all rights, including voting rights, available to an owner of the collateral; and
- h. transfer record ownership of any collateral to Secured Party.

F.3. Foreclosure of this security interest by suit does not limit Secured Party's remedies, including the right to sell the collateral under the terms of this agreement. Secured Party may exercise all remedies at the same or different times, and no remedy is a defense to any other. Secured Party's rights and remedies include all those granted by law and those specified in this agreement.

F.4. Secured Party's delay in exercising, partial exercise of, or failure to exercise any of its remedies or rights does not waive Secured Party's rights to subsequently exercise those remedies or rights. Secured Party's waiver of any default does not waive any other default by Debtor. Secured Party's waiver of any right in this agreement or of any default is binding only if it is in writing. Secured Party may remedy any default without waiving it.

F.5. Secured Party has no obligation to clean or otherwise prepare the collateral for sale.

F.6. Other than exercising reasonable care to assure safe custody of the collateral in its possession, Secured Party has no responsibility for the collateral. Secured Party has no obligation to collect any of the collateral and is not liable for failure to collect any of the collateral, for failure to preserve any right pertaining to the collateral, or for any act or omission on the part of Secured Party or Secured Party's officers, agents, or employees, except willful misconduct.

F.7. Secured Party has no obligation to satisfy the obligation by attempting to collect the obligation from any other person liable for it. Secured Party may release, modify, or waive any collateral provided by any other person to secure any of the obligation. If Secured Party attempts to collect the obligation from any other person liable for it or releases, modifies, or waives any collateral provided by any other person, that will not affect Secured Party's rights against Debtor. Debtor waives any right Debtor may have to require Secured Party to pursue any third person for any of the obligation.

F.8. If Secured Party must comply with any applicable state or federal law requirements in connection with a disposition of the collateral, such compliance will not be considered to adversely affect the commercial reasonableness of a sale of the collateral.

F.9. Secured Party may sell the collateral without giving any warranties as to the collateral. Secured Party may specifically disclaim any warranties of title or the like. This procedure will not be considered to adversely affect the commercial reasonableness of a sale of the collateral.

F.10. If Secured Party sells any of the collateral on credit, Debtor will be credited only with payments actually made by the purchaser and received by Secured Party for application to the indebtedness of the purchaser. If the purchaser fails to pay for the collateral, Secured Party may resell the collateral and Debtor will be credited with the proceeds of the sale.

F.11. If Secured Party purchases any of the collateral being sold, Secured Party may pay for the collateral by crediting the purchase price against the obligation.

F.12. Secured Party has no obligation to marshal any assets in favor of Debtor or against or in payment of the note, any of the other obligation[s], or any other obligation owed to Secured Party by Debtor or any other person.

F.13. If the collateral is sold after default, recitals in the bill of sale or transfer will be prima facie evidence of their truth and all prerequisites to the sale specified by this agreement and by law will be presumed satisfied.

G. General

G.1. Notice is reasonable if it is mailed, postage prepaid, to Debtor at Debtor's mailing address at least ten days before any public sale or ten days before the time when the collateral may be otherwise disposed of without further notice to Debtor.

G.2. This security interest will neither affect nor be affected by any other security for any of the obligation. Neither extensions of any of the obligation nor releases of any of the collateral will affect the priority or validity of this security interest.

G.3. This agreement binds, benefits, and may be enforced by the successors in interest of Secured Party and will bind all persons who become bound as debtors to this agreement. Assignment of any part of the obligation and Secured Party's delivery of any part of the collateral will fully discharge Secured Party from responsibility for that part of the collateral. If such an assignment is made, Debtor will render performance under this agreement to the assignee. Debtor waives and will not assert against any assignee any claims, defenses, or setoffs that Debtor could assert against Secured Party except defenses that cannot be waived. All representations, warranties, and obligations are joint and several as to each Debtor.

G.4. This agreement may be amended only by an instrument in writing signed by Secured Party and Debtor.

G.5. The unenforceability of any provision of this agreement will not affect the enforceability or validity of any other provision.

G.6. This agreement will be construed according to Texas law, without regard to choice-of-law rules of any jurisdiction. This agreement is to be performed in the county of Secured Party's mailing address.

G.7. Interest on the obligation secured by this agreement will not exceed the maximum amount of nonusurious interest that may be contracted for, taken, reserved, charged, or received under law. Any interest in excess of that maximum amount will be credited on the principal of the obligation or, if that has been paid, refunded. On any acceleration or required or permitted prepayment, any such excess will be canceled automatically as of the acceleration or prepayment or, if already paid, credited on the principal of the obligation or, if the principal of the obligation has been paid, refunded. This provision overrides any conflicting provisions in this and all other instruments concerning the obligation.

G.8. In no event may this agreement secure payment of any debt that may not lawfully be secured by a lien on real estate or create a lien otherwise prohibited by law.

G.9. When the context requires, singular nouns and pronouns include the plural.

G.10. Any term defined in sections 1.101 to 9.709 of the Texas Business and Commerce Code and not defined in this agreement has the meaning given to the term in the Code.

G.11. This agreement is given to comply with the Final Decree of Divorce rendered in Cause No. [number], styled “[style of case],” by the [designation] Court of [county] County, Texas, and the obligation imposed in that decree.

General Instructions

What's New

Exemption deduction suspended. The deduction for personal exemptions is suspended for tax years 2018 through 2025 by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. Although the exemption amount is zero, eligibility to claim an exemption may make you eligible for other tax benefits. See Pub. 501 for details. Although taxpayers can't claim a deduction for exemptions, eligibility to claim an exemption for a child remains important for determining who may claim the child tax credit, the additional child tax credit, and the credit for other dependents, as well as other tax benefits. See the instructions and Pub. 501 for details.

Purpose of Form

If you are the custodial parent, you can use this form to do the following.

- Release a claim to exemption for your child so that the noncustodial parent can claim an exemption for the child and claim the child tax credit, the additional child tax credit, and the credit for other dependents (if applicable).
- Revoke a previous release of claim to exemption for your child.

Release of claim to exemption. Complete this form (or sign a similar statement containing the same information required by this form) and give it to the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent must attach this form or similar statement to his or her tax return each year the exemption is claimed. Use Part I to release a claim to the exemption for the current year. Use Part II if you choose to release a claim to exemption for any future year(s).

Note: If the decree or agreement went into effect after 1984 and before 2009, you can attach certain pages from the decree or agreement instead of Form 8332, provided that these pages are substantially similar to Form 8332. See Post-1984 and pre-2009 decree or agreement on page 2.

Revocation of release of claim to exemption. Use Part III to revoke a previous release of claim to an exemption. The revocation will be effective no earlier than the tax year following the year in which you provide the noncustodial parent with a copy of the revocation or make a reasonable effort to provide the noncustodial parent with a copy of the revocation. Therefore, if you revoked a release on Form 8332 and provided a copy of the form to the noncustodial parent in 2018, the earliest tax year the revocation can be effective is 2019. You must attach a copy of the revocation to your tax return each year the exemption is claimed as a result of the revocation. You must also keep for your records a copy of the revocation and evidence of delivery of the notice to the noncustodial parent, or of reasonable efforts to provide actual notice.

Custodial Parent and Noncustodial Parent

The custodial parent is generally the parent with whom the child lived for the greater number of nights during the year. The noncustodial parent is the other parent. If the child was with each parent for an equal number of nights, the custodial parent is the parent with the higher adjusted gross income. For details and an exception for a parent who works at night, see Pub. 501.

Dependent Child

A dependent is either a qualifying child or a qualifying relative. See the instructions for your tax return for the definition of these terms. Generally, a child of divorced or separated parents will be a qualifying child of the custodial parent. However, if the special rule on page 2 applies, then the child will be treated as the qualifying child or qualifying relative of the noncustodial parent for purposes of the dependency exemption, the child tax credit, the additional child tax credit, and the credit for other dependents.

Special Rule for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents

A child is treated as a qualifying child or a qualifying relative of the noncustodial parent if all of the following apply.

1. The child received over half of his or her support for the year from one or both of the parents (see the Exception below). If you received payments under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program or other public assistance program and you used the money to support the child, see Pub. 501.
2. The child was in the custody of one or both of the parents for more than half of the year.
3. Either of the following applies.

a. The custodial parent agrees not to claim an exemption for the child by signing this form or a similar statement. If the decree or agreement went into effect after 1984 and before 2009, see Post-1984 and pre-2009 decree or agreement below.

b. A pre-1985 decree of divorce or separate maintenance or written separation agreement states that the noncustodial parent can claim the child as a dependent. But the noncustodial parent must provide at least $600 for the child's support during the year. This rule does not apply if the decree or agreement was changed after 1984 to say that the noncustodial parent cannot claim the child as a dependent.

For this rule to apply, the parents must be one of the following.

- Divorced or legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance.
- Separated under a written separation agreement.
- Living apart at all times during the last 6 months of the year.

If this rule applies, and the other dependency tests in the instructions for your tax return are also met, the noncustodial parent can claim an exemption for the child.

Exception. If the support of the child is determined under a multiple support agreement, this special rule does not apply, and this form should not be used.

Post-1984 and pre-2009 decree or agreement. If the divorce decree or separation agreement went into effect after 1984 and before 2009, the noncustodial parent can attach certain pages from the decree or agreement instead of Form 8332, provided that these pages are substantially similar to Form 8332. To be able to do this, the decree or agreement must state all three of the following.

1. The noncustodial parent can claim the child as a dependent without regard to any condition (such as payment of support).
2. The other parent will not claim the child as a dependent.
3. The years for which the claim is released.

The noncustodial parent must attach all of the following pages from the decree or agreement.

- Cover page (include the other parent's SSN on that page).
- The pages that include all of the information identified in (1) through (3) above.
- Signature page with the other parent's signature and date of agreement.

The noncustodial parent must attach the required information even if it was filed with a return in an earlier year.

Post-2008 decree or agreement. If the divorce decree or separation agreement went into effect after 2008, the noncustodial parent can't attach certain pages from the decree or agreement instead of Form 8332.

Specific Instructions

Custodial Parent

Part I. Complete Part I to release a claim to exemption for your child for the current tax year.

Part II. Complete Part II to release a claim to exemption for your child for one or more future years. Write the specific future year(s) or "all future years" in the space provided in Part II.

To help ensure future support, you may not want to release your claim to the exemption for the child for future years.

Part III. Complete Part III if you are revoking a previous release of claim to exemption for your child. Write the specific future year(s) or "all future years" in the space provided in Part III.

The revocation will be effective no earlier than the tax year following the year you provide the noncustodial parent with a copy of the revocation or make a reasonable effort to provide the noncustodial parent with a copy of the revocation. Also, you must attach a copy of the revocation to your tax return for each year you are claiming the exemption as a result of the revocation. You must also keep for your records a copy of the revocation and evidence of delivery of the notice to the noncustodial parent, or of reasonable efforts to provide actual notice.

Example. In 2015, you released a claim to exemption for your child on Form 8332 for the years 2016 through 2020. In 2018, you decided to revoke the previous release of exemption. If you completed Part III of Form 8332 and provided a copy of the form to the noncustodial parent in 2018, the revocation will be effective for 2019 and 2020. You must attach a copy of the revocation to your 2019 and 2020 tax returns and keep certain records as stated earlier.

Noncustodial Parent

Attach this form or similar statement to your tax return for each year you claim the exemption for your child. You can claim the exemption only if the other dependency tests in the instructions for your tax return are met.

If the custodial parent released his or her claim to the exemption for the child for any future year, you must attach a copy of this form or similar statement to your tax return for each future year that you claim the exemption. Keep a copy for your records.

Note: If you are filing your return electronically, you must file Form 8332 with Form 8453, U.S. Individual Income Tax Transmittal for an IRS e-file Return. See Form 8453 and its instructions for more details.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. In preparing the closing documents relating to your divorce, deeds may need to be prepared, executed, and filed with the clerk's office of the county in which the property is located to effect the transfer of ownership.

If property is to be conveyed to you, you have the right to have a title policy issued with regard to each such conveyance or to have a title search or abstract letter issued. This office does not issue title policies, nor do we prepare abstracts or conduct title searches related to the conveyance of real estate or to secure obligations created in divorce documents.

In preparing any real estate documents in your divorce, we rely solely on information you provide us about the ownership of property, legal descriptions, existing liens, encumbrances, or other restrictions that may affect the conveyance of title.

If you wish to have a title policy issued or a title search performed or abstract prepared, please advise me in writing, and I will be happy to refer this aspect of the closing documents relating to your case to a title company. You may also consult with a title company of your choice or an abstract attorney. You will need to arrange the payment of their charges directly with the title company.

Please advise this office, in writing, if you desire to have a title search, abstract letter, or title policy issued, or any other research done with regard to the real estate closing documents that may need to be prepared to conclude your case.

Sincerely,

Letter to Client at Conclusion of Representation

[Date]

[Name and address of client]

[Salutation]

Thank you for allowing us to represent you in your [specify type of action]. We hope you have been pleased with our representation, and we invite any comments, good or critical, that would assist us in our representation of future clients.

Now that our representation of you is concluded, I want to make suggestions to tie up loose ends.

1. As you know, we hold certain originals or copies of documents in connection with your case. Please call to set up a time to pick up any documents you want to keep. We will retain your file for [period of time], after which it will be destroyed.

2. If you had health insurance under your ex-spouse's group employment insurance, you have the right under federal law to convert your coverage into your name in accordance with COBRA. You have only thirty days, however, from the date the decree was signed to give notice to your ex-spouse's employer and insurance company that you are making that election. You must do so within the thirty-day period, or you may waive your ability to have this coverage. Please contact me immediately if you have any questions concerning this issue.

3. If you have not already done so, please consider having a new will prepared to make certain the people you want will receive properties owned by you in the event of your death. Please call me if you would like our office to handle this matter for you or refer you to another attorney.

4. Because a will may not affect certain assets (retirement plans, financial accounts, and life insurance), please contact the companies through whom you have those assets and sign whatever documents they require to change beneficiaries.

5. If your address has changed or if your name was changed in the decree, please contact the following to determine what you need to do to change your information on their records:

Social Security Administration at [address or telephone number];

Department of Public Safety Driver's License Division at [address or telephone number];

Credit card companies;

Insurance—vehicle, home, life, and so forth;

Internal Revenue Service at 800-829-1040;

Mortgage holders;

Utilities on your residence;

State licensing agencies; and

U.S. Department of State, to change your name on your passport. (For information, log onto <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/passports.html>.)

If your name was changed, it may not be possible to change your driver's license until you have received your new Social Security card. And because many of the others will require the driver's license change before they will modify their records, we suggest you contact the Department of Public Safety Driver's License Division first.

Include 6., 7., 8., and 9. as applicable.

6. Specifically in connection with the Social Security issue, because you were married to your ex-spouse for at least ten years, at age sixty-two you will be able to apply to draw Social Security benefits on your own account or on your ex-spouse's account, depending on which will benefit you more. However, please note that you may lose your right to draw Social Security benefits on your ex-spouse's account if you remarry someone other than your ex-spouse. For more information, I recommend that you seek advice from a financial professional with expertise in Social Security benefits.

7. In connection with the child issues in your case:

- a. You should notify schools or day-care facilities of any changes in the pickup or delivery schedule and whether there are any changes in who has authority to pick up your child.
- b. You should advise the school if there are any changes of address or telephone number for either party so that each parent will receive notices, mailings, and reports.
- c. If any of the events occur as set forth in the decree to require the notifications also listed in the decree (such as change of address or employment), you should make the required notifications immediately.

8. In connection with properties you were awarded:

- a. You will need to record any documents necessary to transfer title into your name. You will also need to contact the holder of the mortgage to make certain all escrow deposits and any other benefits (such as private mortgage insurance) accruing from your ownership of the property are also transferred into your name.
- b. We have secured a power of attorney on the vehicle(s) awarded to you. You should take this power of attorney, the title(s) to the vehicle(s), and evidence of liability insurance to the auto registration office at [address] to have the title(s) changed to your name.
- c. If you were awarded a portion of a retirement plan, you will need to submit to the plan administrator the necessary qualified domestic relations order (QDRO) to transfer your portion into an account solely in your name. Once the QDRO has qualified with the plan requirements, the plan administrator will send certain documents directly to you. I strongly recommend that you seek the advice of a financial planner or tax advisor to obtain advice regarding your options, including whether you should roll the account over into another type of plan, and the consequences thereof.
- d. You should also review the payee of the survivor benefits under your 401(k) or other retirement plan. Sometimes the grant of a divorce will not have the effect of changing the beneficiaries.
- e. Please contact the insurance companies on any life insurance policies you received or policies covering any asset you received (your house, vehicle, and so forth) to make certain all transfer and other forms have been signed to properly effectuate the intent of the decree.

9. Specifically in connection with financial accounts that were awarded to you (bank accounts, individual retirement accounts, stocks and bonds, and so forth), please contact the financial institutions holding those accounts and follow their advice to make certain your ex-spouse's name is not on the accounts and that your ex-spouse has no authority over the accounts.

Continue with the following.

10. You should take care to change any computer or phone passwords to ensure your Internet privacy.

11. As stated in our initial letter to you, we do not give tax advice. Accordingly, please contact a certified public accountant, accountant, or other person whom you choose and make certain you have everything from the divorce proceeding that you will need for preparation of your next tax return and to make certain you take whatever action may be required that will be necessary or that may benefit you in the payment of taxes.

Again, thank you for allowing us to represent you. If you have any questions about this letter, your file, or our representation, now or in the future, please do not hesitate to give me a call.

Sincerely yours,

[Name of attorney]

Form 24-35Letter to Client Regarding Changing Beneficiary and Fiduciary Designations*[Date]*[Name and address of client]Re: [style of case][Salutation]

The [granting of a divorce/granting of an annulment/declaring of a marriage void] will cause significant changes in the beneficiary provisions of your employee benefits, will, trusts, life insurance, and other financial plans.

The Texas Family Code declares that the designating provision of your retirement plan or other employee benefit in favor of your former spouse is ineffective. You should contact your plan administrator immediately and arrange to change the designation to an alternate beneficiary.

The Family Code also declares that any provisions in your life insurance policies in favor of your former spouse are ineffective. This fact could lead to unintended consequences, so you should contact your insurance agent to make any necessary beneficiary changes.

The Texas Estates Code declares that, unless the will provides otherwise, all provisions in your will, including trusts as well as fiduciary appointments, are read as though your former spouse predeceased you. The Estates Code also revokes certain beneficiary designations in multiparty financial accounts and nontestamentary transfers such as revocable trust instruments in the event of a divorce. Additionally, if you have executed a transfer on death deed, it would be advisable to take action to revoke the deed. You should obtain the services of an attorney to determine what this means to your estate plan and assist you with any changes.

Other financial documents, such as certificates of deposit and accounts with rights of survivorship, should also be reviewed to determine what impact the termination of marriage will have.

Needless to say, these steps should be undertaken immediately.

Sincerely yours,

D.3. from the proceeds of the sale, pay, in this order—

- a. expenses of foreclosure, including a reasonable commission to Trustee;
- b. to Beneficiary, the full amount advanced, attorney's fees, and other charges due and unpaid;
- c. any amounts required by law to be paid before payment to Grantor; and
- d. to Grantor, any balance; and

D.4. be indemnified, held harmless, and defended by Beneficiary against all costs, expenses, and liabilities incurred by Trustee for acting in the execution or enforcement of the trust created by this deed of trust to secure assumption, which includes all court and other costs, including attorney's fees, incurred by Trustee in defense of any action or proceeding taken against Trustee in that capacity.

E. General Provisions

E.1. If any of the property is sold under this deed of trust to secure assumption, Grantor must immediately surrender possession to the purchaser. If Grantor does not, Grantor will be a tenant at sufferance of the purchaser, subject to an action for forcible detainer.

E.2. Recitals in any trustee's deed conveying the property will be presumed to be true.

E.3. Proceeding under this deed of trust to secure assumption, filing suit for foreclosure, or pursuing any other remedy will not constitute an election of remedies.

E.4. This lien will be superior to liens later created even if Beneficiary has made no advancements when later liens are created.

E.5. If any portion of the advancements cannot be lawfully secured by this deed of trust to secure assumption, payments will be applied first to discharge that portion.

E.6. A sale of the property under this deed of trust to secure assumption—

- a. is subject to Grantor's continuing obligation to make all payments owing on the note assumed and to perform all obligations under the deed of trust assumed; and
- b. does not extinguish Trustee's right to conduct subsequent sales of the property for future Grantor defaults under this deed of trust to secure assumption.

E.7. Grantor collaterally assigns to Beneficiary all present and future rent from the property and its proceeds. Grantor warrants the validity and enforceability of the assignment. Grantor will apply all rent to payment of the note assumed and performance of the deed of trust assumed, but if the rent exceeds the amount due with respect to the note and deed of trust assumed, Grantor may retain the excess. If a default exists in payment of the note assumed or performance of this deed of trust to secure assumption or of the deed of trust assumed, Beneficiary may exercise Beneficiary's rights with respect to rent under the Texas Property Code as then in effect. Beneficiary neither has nor assumes any obligations as lessor or landlord with respect to any occupant of the property. Beneficiary may exercise Beneficiary's rights and remedies under this paragraph without taking possession of the property. Beneficiary will apply all rent collected under this paragraph as required by the Texas Property Code as then in effect. Beneficiary is not required to act under this paragraph, and acting under this paragraph does not waive any of Beneficiary's other rights or remedies.

E.8. Interest on the debt secured by this deed of trust to secure assumption will not exceed the maximum amount of nonusurious interest that may be contracted for, taken, reserved, charged, or received under law. Any interest in excess of that maximum amount will be credited on the principal of the debt or, if that has been paid, refunded. On any acceleration or required or permitted prepayment, any such excess will be canceled automatically as of the acceleration or prepayment or, if already paid, credited on the principal of the debt or, if the principal of the debt has been paid, refunded. This provision overrides any conflicting provisions in this and all other instruments concerning the debt.

E.9. Any action taken under this deed of trust to secure assumption will not extinguish the rights of Beneficiary to proceed against Grantor under the indemnity contained in the deed by which Grantor assumed the note and deed of trust assumed.

E.10. When the context requires, singular nouns and pronouns include the plural.

E.11. This deed of trust to secure assumption binds, benefits, and may be enforced by the successors in interest of all parties.

E.12. Grantor waives and surrenders to Beneficiary (a) Grantor's power to authorize anyone (other than Beneficiary or Grantor) to pay ad valorem taxes on the property and (b) Grantor's power to authorize a taxing entity to transfer its tax lien on the property to anyone other than Beneficiary. Grantor agrees and declares that any authorization from Grantor to another (other than Beneficiary) to pay the taxes and transfer a tax lien on the property is void.

E.13. If all or any part of the property is sold, conveyed, leased for a period longer than three years, leased with an option to purchase, or otherwise sold (including any contract for deed) without Beneficiary's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld in Beneficiary's sole discretion, Beneficiary may declare a default of this agreement and seek to foreclose on the property. The creation of a subordinate lien, any conveyance under threat or order of condemnation, or the passage of title by reason of the death of Grantor or by operation of law will not entitle Beneficiary to exercise the remedies provided in this paragraph.

E.14. Grantor agrees to provide proof of payment (including escrows) of all obligations paid under the assumed note to Beneficiary on request. Grantor and Beneficiary agree to provide each other with ongoing access to all passwords and ongoing online access related to the assumed note. Grantor and Beneficiary agree to forward a copy of any and all correspondence from the underlying Lender to the other party within five business days of receipt.

This form may not be used if the participant is already in pay status and can be used only for participants who have not yet retired.

Caveat: No form or model QDRO should be used as a substitute for the knowledge necessary to divide a retirement benefit. Each plan has different requirements, so this form must be modified depending on the plan. Be very careful in drafting a qualified domestic relations order. It is advisable to get the help of an expert to prepare the order and to prequalify the qualified domestic relations order with the plan administrator before the order is signed by the judge. Approval by the plan does not mean that the QDRO was prepared in accordance with the decree or the negotiated division, but only that it meets the requirements for a QDRO under ERISA.

This form is designed to be used only for the preparation of an order dividing a defined benefit private retirement plan that is a qualified plan under ERISA. It is recommended that this order be signed at the same time as the decree to avoid complications and additional costs for the client.

Before drafting a defined benefit plan QDRO, it is essential to understand the difference between a shared-payment (shared-interest) QDRO and a separate-interest QDRO. These terms are widely used by plan administrators, model QDROs, and publications on QDROs. See the practice notes at section 25.46. This form is to divide a separate-interest defined benefit plan. For a form to divide a shared-interest plan, see form 25-4.

A QDRO may be used for the division of marital property, child support, spousal maintenance, or alimony. This model QDRO should be adjusted accordingly, depending on the purpose of the QDRO.

Qualified Domestic Relations Order

[Private Retirement Plan—Defined Benefit—Separate-Interest]

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Designation as QDRO*Effect of the Order as a Qualified Domestic Relations Order*

This order shall be incorporated into and shall become an integral part of the [name of order] signed in this case as if recited verbatim in the decree. This order creates and recognizes the existence of an alternate payee's right to receive a portion of the participant's benefits payable under an employer-sponsored defined benefit pension plan that is qualified under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA). This order is intended to constitute a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO) under section 414(p) of the Code and section 206(d)(3) of ERISA.

If the QDRO is for spousal maintenance or alimony, adopt the terminology that the plan uses.

This order is entered pursuant to the authority granted in the applicable domestic relations laws of Texas concerning [marital property rights/child support/alimony/[specify]].

2. Plan Information

The Plan

The name of the plan to which this order applies is the [formal name of plan] (the "Plan"). Further, any successor plan to the Plan or any other plan(s) to which liability for provision of Participant's benefits described below is incurred shall also be subject to the terms of this order. Any benefits accrued by Participant under a predecessor plan of the employer or any other defined benefit plan sponsored by Participant's employer, where liability for benefits accrued under such predecessor plan or other defined benefit plan has been transferred to the Plan, shall also be subject to the terms of this order. Any changes in the plan administrator, plan sponsor, or name of the Plan shall not affect Alternate Payee's rights as stipulated under this order.

3. Participant Information*Participant Information*

Following is the identification and contact information of the participant (“Participant”):

Name:

Social Security number: See Addendum

Birth date: See Addendum

Address:

4. Alternate Payee Information*Alternate Payee Information*

Following is the identification and contact information of the alternate payee (“Alternate Payee”):

Name:

Birth date: See Addendum

Address:

Alternate Payee is the [spouse/former spouse/child/dependent] of Participant.

Participant and Alternate Payee shall have the duty to notify the Plan Administrator in writing of any changes in their mailing address subsequent to the entry of this order.

5. Definition of Terms*Definition of Terms*

“Earliest Retirement Age” has the meaning given that term by section 414(p)(4)(B) of the Code, which means the earlier of—

1. the date on which Participant is entitled to distribution under the Plan, or
2. the later of—
 - a. the date Participant attains age fifty, or
 - b. the earliest date on which Participant could begin receiving benefits under the Plan if separated from service.

“QPSA” means a preretirement survivor annuity as provided under the terms of the Plan or otherwise as defined in section 417(c) of the Code.

Include the following if applicable.

“QJSA” means a qualified joint and survivor annuity as provided under the terms of the Plan or otherwise as defined in section 417(b) of the Code.

6. Division of Benefits*Division of Benefits*

The parties were married on [date of marriage], and they were divorced on [date of divorce].

The date of division of Participant’s benefit under the Plan is [date of division].

This order is a separate-interest QDRO, and the benefit shall be paid over the lifetime of Alternate Payee.

See the practice notes at section 25.46 for an analysis of shared-payment (shared-interest) and separate-interest QDROs. It is wise to have the alternate payee select the form of payment in writing after the alternate payee has obtained advice from the appropriate professional. If the participant is in pay status, the parties must use a shared-payment QDRO.

Select one of the following.

6.A. Percentage

Select one of the following.

6.A.1. When Benefits Are All Community Property

This order awards, assigns, and grants to Alternate Payee an amount equal to [percent] percent of Participant's accrued benefit under the Plan as of [date of division].

Alternate Payee [shall/shall not] receive a proportionate share of any cost-of-living adjustments (COLAs) or other economic improvements made to Participant's benefits.

Or

6.A.2. When Benefits Are Not All Community Property

When the benefits are not all community property, the appropriate calculations must be performed to determine the community-property portion. The formula below is the formula set out in Berry v. Berry, 647 S.W.2d 945 (Tex. 1983), but should be modified based on any agreements reached by the parties.

This order awards, assigns, and grants to Alternate Payee an amount equal to [percent] percent of the community-property portion of Participant's accrued benefit under the Plan as of [date of division]. The community-property portion is determined by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of credited service earned between [date of marriage] and [date of division], and the denominator of which is the total number of months of credit service earned as of [date of division].

Alternate Payee [shall/shall not] receive a proportionate share of any cost-of-living adjustments (COLAs) or other economic improvements made to Participant's benefits.

Or

Caution: Not all plans will accept a dollar amount as an award for a separate-interest QDRO.

6.B. Dollar Figure

This order awards, assigns, and grants to Alternate Payee a portion of Participant's vested accrued benefit under the Plan as of [date of division], in an amount equal to $[amount] per month, which shall be further adjusted to incorporate any actuarial adjustments necessary for early retirement, optional benefit forms, or the adjustment of payments to the life expectancy of Alternate Payee.

7. Temporary or Supplemental Benefits

Temporary or Supplemental Benefits

Alternate Payee [shall/shall not] be entitled to a proportionate share of any early retirement supplements, interim supplements, or temporary benefits that become payable to Participant that are not considered by the Plan Administrator to be a part of Participant's accrued benefit as set forth in the assignment section of this order.

Include if applicable.

If Alternate Payee is entitled to a proportionate share of any early retirement subsidy provided under the Plan, and Alternate Payee elects to begin receiving the benefit before Participant's commencement, Alternate Payee will be entitled only to the unsubsidized portion of the assigned benefits. When Participant retires, Alternate Payee's benefit will be recalculated to include a proportionate share of any early retirement subsidy that may be payable.

8. Commencement Date and Form of Payment to Alternate Payee

Commencement Date and Form of Payment to Alternate Payee

Alternate Payee may elect to commence Alternate Payee's benefits under the Plan at any time on or after the date Participant attains the Earliest Retirement Age. Alternate Payee's assigned share of the benefits is to be actuarially adjusted for early retirement according to the terms of the Plan.

Alternate Payee may elect to defer commencement of the benefits awarded until the latest date allowed by the Plan. Alternate Payee may elect to commence benefits in any one of the allowable benefit distribution options permitted under the terms and provisions of the Plan, other than a QJSA with Alternate Payee's subsequent spouse.

Early Commencement

Should any early commencement reduction be necessary if Alternate Payee commences benefits before Participant's normal retirement date, that reduction shall be applied to Alternate Payee's benefits in accordance with applicable Plan provisions.

9. Death of Participant*Death of Participant*

Use 9.A. if, as in most plans, no QPSA is required to preserve the benefit awarded.

9.A. Plan Does Not Require QPSA

As this is a separate-interest QDRO, the death of Participant at any time will not affect Alternate Payee's right to receive the benefit awarded in this order.

Use 9.B. if a QPSA is required to preserve the benefit awarded.

9.B. Plan Requires QPSA9.B.1. Participant's Death before Benefit CommencementDeath of Participant before Benefit Commencement Date*

Select 9.B.1.a. or 9.B.1.b.

9.B.1.a. Alternate Payee Not Deemed Surviving Spouse

If Participant predeceases Alternate Payee and neither Alternate Payee nor Participant has commenced benefits under the Plan, Alternate Payee shall not be deemed to be the surviving spouse of Participant for any purpose.

Or

9.B.1.b. Alternate Payee Deemed Surviving Spouse

If Participant predeceases Alternate Payee and neither Alternate Payee nor Participant has commenced benefits under the Plan, Alternate Payee shall be deemed to be the surviving spouse of Participant for purposes of the preretirement survivor annuity, [in an amount equal to Alternate Payee's assigned interest as set forth in the assignment section of this order/in an amount that is proportional to Alternate Payee's share of the pension benefit awarded/for any and all preretirement surviving spouse benefits], and any subsequent spouse of Participant shall not be treated as a surviving spouse of Participant for those purposes. For purposes of determining the eligibility for such surviving spouse benefits, Alternate Payee and Participant have satisfied the one-year marriage requirement in sections 401(a)(11) and 417(d) of the Code and as may be required under the provisions of the Plan. If the costs associated with providing this preretirement survivor annuity benefit are not fully subsidized by Participant's employer, Participant must make an affirmative election for such preretirement survivor annuity benefits coverage in a timely manner and in accordance with the employer's election procedures. If Participant terminates [his/her] employment before retirement, Participant shall still be required to maintain the preretirement survivor coverage in place for the benefit of Alternate Payee. At all times, Participant shall do all things necessary to maintain the preretirement survivorship coverage that protects Alternate Payee's benefits.

Continue with 9.B.2.

9.B.2. *Participant's Death after Benefit Commencement

Death of Participant after Benefit Commencement Date

Pursuant to the terms of the commencement section of this order, Alternate Payee's benefits are based on Alternate Payee's life expectancy. Once Alternate Payee commences Alternate Payee's assigned share of the benefits in accordance with the terms of this order, Alternate Payee's right to continued benefits shall be unaffected by the subsequent death of Participant.

10. Death of Alternate Payee

Death of Alternate Payee

If Alternate Payee predeceases Participant before the commencement of Alternate Payee's benefits, Alternate Payee's share of Participant's benefits shall become payable to Alternate Payee's designated beneficiary(ies) or estate, but only to the extent permitted by the Plan. If the Plan does not permit Alternate Payee to designate a beneficiary, beneficiaries, or Alternate Payee's estate for such purposes, Alternate Payee's assigned share of the benefits shall [revert to Participant/inure to the Plan]. Should Alternate Payee predecease Participant after Alternate Payee's benefit commencement date, such remaining benefits, if any, will be paid in accordance with the form of benefit elected by Alternate Payee.

11. Participant Constructive Trustee

Participant Constructive Trustee

If the Plan pays to Participant any benefits that are assigned to Alternate Payee pursuant to the terms of this order, Participant is designated a constructive trustee to the extent that Participant has received such benefit payments and shall immediately return, within three days of receipt by Participant, the amounts so received directly to the Plan.

12. Savings Clause*Savings Clause*

This order is not intended and shall not be construed in such a manner as to require the Plan to—

1. provide any type or form of benefit or any option not otherwise provided under the Plan,
2. provide increased benefits (determined on the basis of actuarial value), or
3. require the payment of any benefits to Alternate Payee that are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order that was previously determined to be a QDRO.

13. Tax Treatment*Tax Treatment of Distribution*

For purposes of sections 402(a) and 72 of the Internal Revenue Code, any Alternate Payee who is the spouse or former spouse of Participant shall be treated as the distributee of any distribution or payments made to Alternate Payee under the terms of this order and, as such, will be required to pay the appropriate income taxes on such distribution.

14. Continued Jurisdiction*Continued Qualified Status of Order and Continued Jurisdiction*

It is the intention of the parties that this qualified domestic relations order continue to qualify as a qualified domestic relations order. The Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction over the parties and property to the extent necessary to render an amended or corrected domestic relations order for the payment of benefits to Alternate Payee.

15. Effect of Plan Termination

If the plan terminates and the alternate payee has been awarded a dollar figure, the alternate payee will always receive that dollar figure whether or not the participant's benefit is reduced by the PBGC unless the QDRO contains specific instructions relating to the PBGC.

Effect of Plan Termination

If the Plan is terminated or partially terminated, whether on a voluntary or involuntary basis, Alternate Payee shall have the right to receive Alternate Payee's assigned benefits in accordance with the terms of this qualified domestic relations order and the termination procedure of the Plan and, if applicable, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. Alternate Payee's benefits shall also be guaranteed to the same extent in accordance with the Plan's termination rules and in the same ratio as Participant's benefits are guaranteed.

16. Separate Property

Separate Property

The benefits payable to Alternate Payee pursuant to this order shall be the separate property of Alternate Payee, and Participant is hereby divested of all right, title, and interest in that property. The Plan benefits not assigned to Alternate Payee pursuant to this order shall be the separate property of Participant, and Alternate Payee is hereby divested of all right, title, and interest in that property.

17. Application of the Order*Application of the Order*

This order relates to the period that starts with the execution of this order by the Court and ends when all benefits assigned to Alternate Payee have been distributed, in full, from the trust or other funding vehicle of the Plan, in conformity with the provisions of this order.

18. Conflict*Conflict*

In the case of a conflict between the terms of this qualified domestic relations order and the terms of the Plan, the terms of the Plan will prevail.

JUDGE PRESIDING

ERISA and IRC provisions do not require the signatures of the clients or attorneys for the QDRO to qualify. Most plans do not require signatures of the attorneys or parties for the QDRO to qualify, but the attorneys may want their clients to sign the QDRO for other reasons.

Prepare the addendum containing sensitive identifying information for the participant and the alternate payee for transmission to the plan, but do not file it with the court. See form 25-6.

Form 25-4

This form must be used if the participant is already receiving payments and may also be used for participants who have not yet retired.

Caveat: No form or model QDRO should be used as a substitute for the knowledge necessary to divide a retirement benefit. Each plan has different requirements, so this form must be modified depending on the plan. Be very careful in drafting a qualified domestic relations order. It is advisable to get the help of an expert to prepare the order and to prequalify the qualified domestic relations order with the plan administrator before the order is signed by the judge. Approval by the plan does not mean that the QDRO was prepared in accordance with the decree or the negotiated division, but only that it meets the requirements for a QDRO under ERISA.

This form is designed to be used only for the preparation of an order dividing a defined benefit private retirement plan that is a qualified plan under ERISA. It is recommended that this order be signed at the same time as the decree to avoid complications and additional costs for the client.

Before drafting a defined benefit plan QDRO, it is essential to understand the difference between a shared-payment (shared-interest) QDRO and a separate-interest QDRO. These terms are widely used by plan administrators, model QDROs, and publications on QDROs. See the practice notes at section 25.46. This form is to divide a shared-interest defined benefit plan. For a form to divide a separate-interest plan, see form 25-3.

A QDRO may be used for the division of marital property, child support, spousal maintenance, or alimony. This model QDRO should be adjusted accordingly, depending on the purpose of the QDRO.

The date of division of Participant’s benefit under the Plan is [date of division].

This order is a shared-interest QDRO, and the benefit shall be based on Participant’s life expectancy and form of payment.

See the practice notes at section 25.46 for an analysis of shared-payment (shared-interest) and separate-interest QDROs. It is wise to have the alternate payee select the form of payment in writing after the alternate payee has obtained advice from the appropriate professional. If the participant is in pay status, the parties must use a shared-payment QDRO.

Select one of the following.

6.A. Division by Percentage

This order awards, assigns, and grants to Alternate Payee an amount equal to [percent] percent of Participant’s monthly benefit payments under the Plan as of [date of division].

Many plans require that the alternate payee receive a share of the COLAs. Confirm before using the “shall not” option in the following paragraph.

Alternate Payee [shall/shall not] receive a proportionate share of any cost-of-living adjustments (COLAs) or other economic improvements made to Participant’s benefits.

Or

6.B. Division by Formula

When the benefits are not all community property, the appropriate calculations must be performed to determine the community-property portion. However, some plans will not accept a formula for a shared-interest QDRO, so check with the plan before doing so. The formula below assumes the participant is already retired.

This order awards, assigns, and grants to Alternate Payee an amount equal to [percent] percent of the community-property portion of Participant’s accrued benefit under the Plan as of [date of division]. The community-property portion is determined by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of credited service earned between [date of marriage] and [date of division], and the denominator of which is the total number of months of credit service earned as of Participant’s date of retirement.

Many plans require that the alternate payee receive a share of the COLAs. Confirm before using the “shall not” option in the following paragraph.

Alternate Payee [shall/shall not] receive a proportionate share of any cost-of-living adjustments (COLAs) or other economic improvements made to Participant’s benefits.

Or

6.C. Dollar Figure

From the benefits otherwise payable to Participant each month, this order awards, assigns, and grants to Alternate Payee an amount equal to [number] dollars ($[amount]) of the Participant's monthly benefit payments under the Plan.

Many plans do not allow for cost-of-living adjustments on dollar figure awards. However, if the plan does allow for such, include the following paragraph. Confirm before using the "shall not" option.

If allowed by the Plan, Alternate Payee [shall/shall not] receive a proportionate share of any cost-of-living adjustments (COLAs) or other economic improvements made to Participant's benefits.

7. Temporary or Supplemental Benefits*Temporary or Supplemental Benefits*

Most plans require that the alternate payee receive a share of the supplements. Confirm before using the "shall not" option in the following paragraph.

Alternate Payee [shall/shall not] be entitled to a proportionate share of any early retirement supplements, interim supplements, or temporary benefits that become payable to Participant that are not considered by the Plan Administrator to be a part of Participant's accrued benefit as set forth in the assignment section of this order.

8. Commencement Date and Form of Payment to Alternate Payee*Commencement Date and Form of Payment to Alternate Payee*

Alternate Payee shall commence Alternate Payee's share of the benefits when Participant commences Participant's benefits or as soon as possible after this order is to be determined to be a qualified domestic relations order, if later. Alternate Payee will continue to receive Alternate Payee's share of the benefits until the earlier of Alternate Payee's death or Participant's death.

Alternate Payee's assigned share of the benefits shall be based on the life expectancy of Participant.

Alternate Payee's shared-interest benefit shall be paid to Alternate Payee in accordance with the form of payment selected by Participant at the time of Participant's benefit commencement. Alternate Payee may not elect a form of benefit payment for Alternate Payee's shared-interest award.

9. Death of Participant

Death of Participant

Include 9.A. only if the participant is not in pay status.

9.A. Preretirement Survivor Annuity

Select 9.A.1. or 9.A.2.

9.A.1. Alternate Payee Not Deemed Surviving Spouse

If Participant dies before commencing [his/her] benefits under the Plan, Alternate Payee shall not be deemed to be the surviving spouse of Participant for purposes of the QPSA.

Or

9.A.2. Alternate Payee Deemed Surviving Spouse

If Participant dies before commencing [his/her] benefits under the Plan, Alternate Payee shall be deemed to be the surviving spouse of Participant for purposes of the preretirement survivor annuity, [in an amount equal to Alternate Payee's assigned interest as set forth in the assignment section of this order/in an amount that is proportional to Alternate Payee's share of the pension benefit awarded/for any and all preretirement surviving spouse benefits]. For purposes of determining the eligibility for such surviving spouse benefits, Alternate Payee and Participant have satisfied the one-year marriage requirement in sections 401(a)(11) and 417(d) of the Code and as may be required under the provisions of the Plan. If the costs associated with providing this preretirement survivor annuity benefit are not fully subsidized by Participant's employer, Participant must make an affirmative election for such preretirement survivor annuity benefits coverage in a timely manner and in accordance with the employer's election procedures. If Participant terminates [his/her] employment before retirement, Participant shall still be required to maintain the preretirement survivor coverage in place for the benefit of Alternate Payee. At all times, Participant shall do all things necessary to maintain the preretirement survivorship coverage that protects Alternate Payee's benefits.

Select 9.B. or 9.C.

Include 9.B. if the participant is in pay status. If the participant is not in pay status, use 9.C.

9.B. Postretirement Survivor Annuity Participant Already in Pay Status

If Participant predeceases Alternate Payee, Alternate Payee's assigned benefit payments shall cease at that time unless otherwise provided by the form of payment Participant elected at commencement. Alternate Payee will receive a survivor annuity or other death benefits, after the assigned benefit payments cease, only if Participant's form of payment and beneficiary elections provide for such benefits.

Or

9.C. Postretirement Survivor Annuity for Participant Not in Pay Status

Select 9.C.1. or 9.C.2.

9.C.1. Alternate Payee Not Treated as Surviving Spouse

If Participant is not receiving a retirement benefit at the time the order is qualified, Alternate Payee will not be deemed to be the surviving spouse of Participant for purposes of receiving a portion of the QJSA.

Or

9.C.2. Alternate Payee Designated Surviving
Spouse

If Participant predeceases Alternate Payee after Participant's date of retirement, Alternate Payee shall be deemed to be the surviving spouse of Participant for purposes of establishing Alternate Payee's entitlement to receipt of this monthly postretirement survivor annuity, and any subsequent spouse of Participant shall not be treated as a surviving spouse of Participant for those purposes. For purposes of determining the eligibility for such surviving spouse benefits, Alternate Payee and Participant have satisfied the one-year marriage requirement as enumerated in sections 401(a)(11) and 417(d) of the Code and as may be required under the provisions of the Plan. On Participant's retirement, Participant shall be required to elect Participant's benefit in the form of a [percent] percent joint and survivor annuity.

10. Death of Alternate Payee*Death of Alternate Payee*

If Alternate Payee predeceases Participant before or after Alternate Payee's commencement of benefits, Alternate Payee's portion of Participant's benefits, as stipulated herein, shall [revert to Participant/inure to the Plan].

Or (if allowed by the plan)

If Alternate Payee predeceases Participant before the commencement of Alternate Payee's benefits, Alternate Payee's share of Participant's benefits shall become payable to Alternate Payee's designated beneficiary(ies) or estate, but only to the extent permitted under the terms of the Plan. If the Plan does not permit Alternate Payee to designate a beneficiary, beneficiaries, or Alternate Payee's estate for such purposes, Alternate Payee's assigned share of the benefits shall [revert to Participant/inure to the Plan].

11. Participant Constructive Trustee*Participant Constructive Trustee*

If the Plan pays to Participant any benefits that are assigned to Alternate Payee pursuant to the terms of this order, Participant is designated a constructive trustee to the extent that Participant has received such benefit payments and shall immediately return, within three days of receipt by Participant, the amounts so received directly to the Plan.

12. Savings Clause*Savings Clause*

This order is not intended and shall not be construed in such a manner as to require the Plan to—

1. provide any type or form of benefit or any option not otherwise provided under the Plan,
2. provide increased benefits (determined on the basis of actuarial value), or
3. require the payment of any benefits to Alternate Payee that are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order that was previously determined to be a QDRO.

13. Tax Treatment

Tax Treatment of Distribution

For purposes of sections 402(a) and 72 of the Internal Revenue Code, any Alternate Payee who is the spouse or former spouse of Participant shall be treated as the distributee of any distribution or payments made to Alternate Payee under the terms of this order and, as such, will be required to pay the appropriate income taxes on such distribution.

It is the intention of the parties that this qualified domestic relations order continue to qualify as a qualified domestic relations order. The Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction over the parties and property to the extent necessary to render an amended or corrected domestic relations order for the payment of benefits to Alternate Payee.

15. Effect of Plan Termination

If the plan terminates and the alternate payee has been awarded a dollar figure, the alternate payee will always receive that dollar figure whether or not the participant's benefit is reduced by the PBGC, unless the QDRO contains specific instructions relating to the PBGC.

Effect of Plan Termination

If the Plan is terminated or partially terminated, whether on a voluntary or involuntary basis, Alternate Payee shall have the right to receive Alternate Payee's assigned benefits in accordance with the terms of this qualified domestic relations order and the termination procedure of the Plan and, if applicable, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. Alternate Payee's benefits shall also be guaranteed to the same extent in accordance with the Plan's termination rules and in the same ratio as Participant's benefits are guaranteed.

16. Separate Property*Separate Property*

The benefits payable to Alternate Payee pursuant to this order shall be the separate property of Alternate Payee, and Participant is hereby divested of all right, title, and interest in that property. The Plan benefits not assigned to Alternate Payee pursuant to this order shall be the separate property of Participant, and Alternate Payee is hereby divested of all right, title, and interest in that property.

17. Conflict*Conflict*

In the case of a conflict between the terms of this qualified domestic relations order and the terms of the Plan, the terms of the Plan will prevail.

JUDGE PRESIDING

ERISA and IRC provisions do not require the signatures of the clients or attorneys for the QDRO to qualify. Most plans do not require signatures of the attorneys or parties for the QDRO to qualify, but the attorneys may want their clients to sign the QDRO for other reasons.

Prepare the addendum containing sensitive identifying information for the participant and the alternate payee for transmission to the plan, but do not file it with the court. See form 25-6.

Caveat: No form or model QDRO should be used as a substitute for the knowledge necessary to divide a retirement benefit. Each plan has different requirements, so this form must be modified depending on the plan. Be very careful in drafting a qualified domestic relations order. It is advisable to get the help of an expert to prepare the order and to prequalify the qualified domestic relations order with the plan administrator before the order is signed by the judge. Approval by the plan does not mean that the QDRO was prepared in accordance with the decree or the negotiated division, but only that it meets the requirements for a QDRO under ERISA.

This form is designed to be used only for the preparation of an order dividing a defined contribution private retirement plan that is a qualified plan under ERISA. It is recommended that this order be signed at the same time as the decree to avoid complications and additional costs for the client.

A QDRO may be used for the division of marital property, child support, spousal maintenance, or alimony. This model QDRO should be adjusted accordingly, depending on the purpose of the QDRO.

QUALIFIED DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDER

This order is intended to meet the requirements for a “qualified domestic relations order” relating to the EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT SYSTEM OF TEXAS, hereinafter called the “Plan.” This Order is an integral part of the Decree of Divorce granted on date divorce granted. In compliance with those requirements, the following is specified:

1. This Order assigns a portion of the benefits payable under the Plan to name of alternate payee in recognition of his/her marital rights in name of participant's benefits payable under the Plan.
2. Participant in the Plan is name of participant, whose last known mailing address is participant's address, whose birth date is birth date, and whose Social Security Number is social security number.
3. Alternate Payee is name of alternate payee, whose last known mailing address is alternate payee's address, whose birth date is alternate payee birth date, and whose Social Security Number is alternate payee SSN. Participant and Alternate Payee became married on date of marriage.
4. As part of a just and right division of the estate of the parties, Alternate Payee is hereby awarded a portion of any benefits payable with respect to Participant which Participant, or Participant's designated beneficiary, surviving spouse, or estate may become entitled to receive from the Plan, by way of a return of accumulated contributions or by way of any annuity that may become payable as a result of Participant's participation in the Plan, such portion to be determined by:

multiplying one-half, or other proportionate share of the community property interest by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of credited service with the Plan earned by Participant between date of marriage and the date the divorce was granted, and the denominator of which is the amount of credited service by Participant under the Plan on the date the divorce was granted, and then multiplying that product by the value of the benefit that would be payable to Participant or Participant's designated beneficiary, surviving spouse or estate by the Plan, as if the Participant were eligible to receive such benefit on the date the divorce was granted.

5. The award to Alternate Payee under paragraph 4 of this Order is expressly made subject to the following provisions:
- (a) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit or any option not otherwise provided under the Plan.
 - (b) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to provide increased benefits determined on the basis of actuarial value.
 - (c) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to pay any benefits to an Alternate Payee named in this Order which are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order previously determined to be a qualified domestic relations order.
 - (d) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the payment of benefits to the Alternate Payee before the retirement of the Participant, the distribution of a withdrawal of contributions to the Participant as authorized by the statutes governing the Plan, or other distribution to the Participant required by law.
 - (e) This Order shall be interpreted to require that, in the event of Participant's retirement before normal retirement age, the benefits payable to Alternate Payee shall be reduced in a proportionate amount.
 - (f) This Order shall not be interpreted to require the designation of a particular person as the recipient of benefits in the event of the Participant's death, or to require the selection of a particular benefit payment plan or option.
 - (g) Applicable Texas laws and rules do not currently permit alternate payees to receive any future benefit increases. In the event that, after the date the divorce was granted, the Texas Legislature provides or requires any benefit increase specifically for alternate payees of the Plan, Alternate Payee shall receive a proportionate part of such increase or such other amount as directed by the Texas Legislature, unless such an increase would disqualify this Order as a qualified domestic relations order under applicable law or unless such increase would otherwise conflict with the rules of the Plan.
 - (h) In the event that, after the date of divorce was granted, the amount of any benefit otherwise payable to Participant is reduced by law, the portion of benefits payable to Alternate Payee shall be reduced in a proportionate amount.
 - (i) If, as a result of Participant's death after the date the divorce was granted, a payment is made by the Plan to Participant's estate, surviving spouse, or designated beneficiaries, which payment does not relate in any way to Participant's length of employment or accumulated contributions with the Plan, but is purely a death benefit as a result of employment or retired status at the time of death, no portion of such payment is community property, and Alternate Payee shall have no interest in such death benefit.
 - (j) In lieu of paying Alternate Payee the interest awarded by this Order, the Plan may pay the Alternate Payee an amount that is the actuarial equivalent of that interest in the form of (1) an annuity payable in equal monthly installments for the life of the Alternate Payee, or (2) a lump sum.
 - (k) All payments to Alternate Payee under this Order shall terminate upon Alternate Payee's death or at such earlier date as may be required as a result of the retirement option selected by Participant.

6. All benefits payable under the Plan other than those payable under paragraph 4, above, to Alternate Payee shall be payable to Participant in such manner and form as Participant may elect in his/her sole and undivided discretion, subject only to Plan requirements.
7. Alternate Payee is ORDERED to report any retirement payments received on any applicable income tax return, and to promptly notify the Plan of any changes in Alternate Payee's mailing address. The Plan is authorized to issue a Form 1099R or other form required by the Internal Revenue Service on any direct payment made to Alternate Payee.
8. Participant is designated a constructive trustee for receiving any retirement benefits under the Plan that are due to Alternate Payee but paid to Participant. Participant is ORDERED to pay the benefit defined in this paragraph directly to Alternate Payee within three (3) days after receipt by Participant. All payments made directly to Alternate Payee by the Plan shall be a credit against funds required to be paid by this Order.
9. The Court retains jurisdiction to amend this Order so that it will constitute a qualified domestic relations order under the Plan even though all other matters incident to this action or proceeding have been fully and finally adjudicated.

- service or disability retirement benefits include monthly retirement annuity payments payable to a retiree, continuing optional annuity payments paid to a beneficiary, distributions under the Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP), distributions of the Partial Lump Sum Option (PLSO), and supplemental payments;
- death or survivor benefits include a distribution of any monthly annuity payments paid as a death benefit to a beneficiary, a distribution of a lump sum benefit, any monthly benefits paid to a surviving spouse, dependent parent of the decedent, or minor children of the decedent, and a distribution of an amount equal to the remaining balance of Participant's accumulated contributions paid as a death benefit;
- accumulated contributions include member contributions made on behalf of the Participant plus all accumulated interest and has the meaning provided in § 821.001(1), Texas Government Code, or its successor statute; and

The portion awarded to Alternate Payee is payable if, as, and when such distributions are made as provided by the Plan's governing laws and rules based on Participant's membership in, credit with, or contributions to the Plan. The portion of the distribution of benefits or total accumulated contributions that is awarded and that is to be paid to Alternate Payee shall be determined as follows:

Select ONE of the following options by marking the applicable box (do not omit the unselected option):

☐ OPTION 1

Multiply the distribution by a percentage derived from the following formula:

$$CP \text{ awarded} \times \frac{\text{standard annuity based on salary and service during marriage}}{\text{standard annuity based on salary and service at time of distribution}}$$

The community property (CP in the equation above) awarded is the Alternate Payee's interest in the community property as determined by the court and may be expressed as a fraction, a percentage or a decimal. The Alternate Payee's interest in the community property is _____ (INSERT INTEREST AWARDED BY THE COURT).

The numerator of the fraction establishing the community's interest in Participant's total benefit is the amount of a standard service retirement annuity unreduced for early retirement calculated under the retirement law and rules in effect on the end date of division but using only service and salary credit that TRS determines has been acquired by Participant between the date of the parties' marriage and the end date of division and maintained with the System as of the end date of division, even if Participant has not yet reached normal retirement age, the service credit is less than the minimum required to be eligible to receive a service retirement annuity, and the average salary must be calculated with fewer salary years than specified by applicable laws and rules.

The denominator of the fraction is:

- for distributions made after the retirement of Participant, the amount of a standard service retirement annuity unreduced for early retirement calculated under the laws and rules in effect at the time of Participant's latest effective date of retirement and based on Participant's membership in, credit with, or contributions to the System as of Participant's latest effective date of retirement; and
- for distributions made prior to the retirement of the Participant, the amount of a standard service retirement annuity, unreduced for early retirement, which would have been used to calculate the service retirement benefit payable if Participant had retired at the end of the month in which the distribution is authorized to be made. For the purpose of determining the amount of a normal age standard service retirement annuity which would have been used to calculate the benefit payable if Participant had retired, the Plan may calculate the annuity by using the service credit acquired and maintained by Participant, even if it is less than the minimum required to be eligible to receive a service retirement annuity, and by using an average salary, even if it must be calculated with fewer salary years than specified by applicable laws and rules. The term "standard service retirement annuity" as used in this Order is defined by § 824.203, Texas Government Code, or its successor statute.

☐ OPTION 2

Multiply the distribution by _____ % (INSERT PERCENT AWARDED BY THE COURT. AWARD MUST BE LESS THAN ONE HUNDRED PERCENT (100%)). The percent awarded is a percent of the total distribution payable on behalf of Participant and is not limited to a percentage of benefits accrued only during the marriage. If the application of the percent awarded results in a distribution of Participant's separate property to the Alternate Payee, the parties acknowledge the award and agree to the distribution and the Court finds that the award of separate property is necessary for the just and right division of the parties' community property.

Select one or more of the following special instructions if needed by marking the applicable box (do not omit unselected instructions):

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 1:

The above language notwithstanding, in no event shall Alternate Payee receive more than a total of $ _____ (INSERT TOTAL AMOUNT) plus interest, calculated from the end date of division to the date distribution to the Alternate Payee begins, as provided in § 825.307(b), Texas Government Code, or its successor statute.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 2:

The above language notwithstanding, in no event shall Alternate Payee receive more than a total of $ _____ (INSERT TOTAL AMOUNT).

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 3:

The above language notwithstanding and except as provided in Section 6(g) of this order, in no event shall Alternate Payee receive more than $_____ (INSERT AMOUNT) per month from any monthly retirement annuity payment.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 4 (only available if selected Option 1):

The above language notwithstanding, in determining the amount of service credit acquired during the marriage, service credit acquired under the terms of the Employee Retirement System of Texas (ERS) but transferred to TRS at the time of distribution shall be credited at the time the service was acquired or earned under ERS rather than the time of the transfer to TRS.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 5 (only available if selected Option 1):

The above language notwithstanding, in determining the amount of service credit acquired during the marriage, _____ (INSERT TOTAL NUMBER OF YEARS of SERVICE CREDIT TO BE EXCLUDED) years of service credit purchased during the marriage are excluded from the total years of service credit acquired during the marriage.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 6:

Alternate Payee is awarded and shall receive _____ (INSERT INTEREST AWARDED BY THE COURT) of a special refund of deposits or contributions that were made to and maintained with TRS between date of marriage and the end date of division and _____ (INSERT INTEREST AWARDED BY THE COURT) of any interest, if credited, that TRS determines is attributable to these deposits or contributions. The community property interest awarded is the Alternate Payee's interest in the community property as determined by the court and may be expressed as a fraction, a percentage or a decimal. Special refund means a return of deposits or contributions that should not have been made to TRS on behalf of the member or that were based on compensation that cannot be used for calculation of TRS benefits and is refundable under the terms of the Plan.

6. TRS is directed to disburse to Alternate Payee the portion of distributions assigned under Paragraph No. 5 of this Order, if, as, and when such distributions are made as provided by the System's governing laws and rules based on Participant's membership in, credit with, or contributions to the System, subject to the following provisions:

(a) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit or any option not otherwise provided under the Plan.

(b) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to provide increased benefits determined on the basis of actuarial value.

(c) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to pay any benefits to an alternate payee named in this Order which are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order previously determined to be a qualified domestic relations order.

(d) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the payment of benefits to Alternate Payee before the retirement of Participant, the distribution of a withdrawal of contributions to Participant as authorized by the statutes governing the Plan, or any other distribution required by law.

(e) If the Plan provides for a reduced benefit upon "early retirement," this Order shall be interpreted to require that, in the event of Participant's retirement before normal retirement age, the benefits payable to Alternate Payee shall be reduced proportionately.

(f) This Order shall not be interpreted to require the designation of a particular person as the recipient of benefits in the event of Participant's death or to require the selection of a particular benefit payment plan or option. However, notwithstanding the provisions of this Order, if Alternate Payee is designated as a beneficiary for any benefits payable by TRS upon the death of Participant, then Alternate Payee shall receive such payment to which Alternate Payee is entitled by law as beneficiary. If Alternate Payee is a joint beneficiary for a benefit, Alternate Payee shall receive the portion of the total benefit payable to the joint beneficiaries as specified in Paragraph No. 5 above; the portion of the benefit payment received by Alternate Payee as a joint beneficiary of Participant shall be credited toward satisfying the amount of the benefit payable to Alternate Payee as the alternate payee for Participant's interest. Additionally, as specified in Paragraph No. 5 above, Alternate Payee shall receive a portion of any other benefits which are payable to a beneficiary and for which Alternate Payee was not designated as a beneficiary.

(g) In the event that, after distribution of a benefit to Participant or a beneficiary has begun, the amount of the distribution is increased or reduced by law, then the amount payable to Alternate Payee shall be increased or reduced proportionately.

(h) If the Board of Trustees of the Plan has provided by rule that, in lieu of paying an alternate payee the interest awarded by a qualified domestic relations order, the Plan may pay an alternate payee an amount that is the actuarial equivalent of such interest in the form of (1) an annuity payable in equal monthly installments for the life of the alternate payee, or (2) a lump sum, then and only in that event Alternate Payee or Participant may request the Plan to make payment in this form, and the Plan is authorized to make payment in this form instead of in the manner otherwise described in this Order. This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to adopt such rules or to require the Plan to grant any request for payment in the form described in this provision. The determination of whether to pay an amount authorized by this provision in lieu of the interest otherwise awarded by this Order shall be at the sole discretion of the Plan.

The above language notwithstanding, Alternate Payee may make an election, if authorized by § 804.005, Texas Government Code, or its successor statute, to receive an amount in lieu of the interest awarded by this Order that is Alternate Payee's portion of the actuarial equivalent of the Participant's accrued benefit, determined as of the date of Alternate Payee's election. When authorized, Alternate Payee may make this election in writing to TRS if Participant has not yet retired but is at least 62 years of age and eligible to retire without reduction for early age. The amount is payable to Alternate Payee in the form authorized by law and as determined by TRS. The benefit payable on behalf of Participant is permanently reduced as required by law and as determined by TRS.

(i) The interest of Alternate Payee is governed by § 804.101, Texas

Government Code or its successor statute.

7. Any amount payable by TRS, other than those payable under Paragraph No. 5 above to Alternate Payee, shall be payable directly to Participant, Participant's beneficiary, or the estate, heirs, or legatees of either, in accordance with the TRS laws and rules. If Participant, Participant's beneficiary, or the estate of either receives any amount of a distribution that has been awarded to Alternate Payee, the recipient is designated a constructive trustee for the amount received and shall immediately transmit such amount to Alternate Payee.
8. If Alternate Payee or the estate, heirs, or legatees of Alternate Payee receive any amount of a distribution that should have been paid to Participant, Participant's beneficiary, or the estate, heirs, or legatees of either, the recipient is designated a constructive trustee for the amount received and shall immediately transmit such amount to Plan Participant or other person to whom the amount should have been paid.
9. If Participant, Alternate Payee, or the estate, heirs, or legatees of either receive any amount of a distribution that should not have been paid by the System, the recipient is designated a constructive trustee for the amount received and shall immediately transmit such amount to the System.
10. Alternate Payee is ORDERED to report any payments received on any applicable income tax return in accordance with Internal Revenue Code provisions or regulations in effect at the time any payments are issued by TRS. The Plan is authorized to issue a Form W-2P, Form 1099-R, or other applicable form on any direct payment made to Alternate Payee. Plan Participant and Alternate Payee shall allocate Participant's investment in contract in the manner established by the Internal Revenue Code and any applicable regulations.

11. Alternate Payee is ORDERED to provide the Plan prompt written notification of any changes in Alternate Payee's mailing address. TRS shall not be liable for failing to make payments to Alternate Payee if TRS does not have a current mailing address for Alternate Payee at time of payment.
12. Alternate Payee shall furnish a certified copy of this Order to TRS.
13. The Court retains jurisdiction to amend this Order so that it will constitute a qualified domestic relations order under the Plan even though all other matters incident to this action or proceeding have been fully and finally adjudicated. If the System determines at any time that changes in the law, the administration of the Plan, or any other circumstances make it impossible to calculate the portion of a distribution awarded to Alternate Payee by this Order and so notifies the parties, either or both parties shall immediately petition the Court for reformation of the Order.
14. It is the intent of this Court that this order conform to the model domestic relations order adopted by TRS. Any variance from the model order is inadvertent and shall be construed and administered by TRS in a manner consistent with the model order language.

This Order is intended to meet the requirements for a "qualified domestic relations order" relating to the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, hereinafter called the "Plan," "TRS," or "System," as set forth in Chapter 804, Title 8, Texas Government Code, and in applicable TRS rules, 34 TAC §§47.1 - 47.17. This Order is an integral part of the Decree of Divorce entered in this cause. In compliance with those requirements, the following is specified:

1. This Order assigns a portion of the benefits or amounts payable under the Plan to Alternate Payee in recognition of his/her marital rights in Participant's benefits or amounts payable under the Plan.

2. Participant in the Plan is _____

(INSERT NAME OF PARTICIPANT), whose last known mailing address is (INSERT PARTICIPANT'S ADDRESS) and whose Social Security number is excluded from this order to protect the Participant from identity theft. Participant is authorized to use an alternate method acceptable to TRS to verify the number.

3. Alternate Payee is _____ INSERT NAME OF ALTERNATE PAYEE), whose last known mailing address is _____ (INSERT ALTERNATE PAYEE'S ADDRESS) and whose Social Security number is excluded from this order to protect Alternate Payee from identity theft. Alternate Payee is authorized to use an alternate method acceptable to TRS to verify the number.

4. Participant and Alternate Payee were married on _____ (INSERT DATE OF MARRIAGE). The court orders that for purposes of this order, the end date for the division of property is _____ (INSERT END DATE OF DIVISION).

5. As part of a just and right division of the estate of the parties, Alternate Payee is awarded and shall receive from the Plan a portion of any of the following distributions paid by the Plan:

- distributions of service or disability retirement benefits (whether payable to Participant or a beneficiary); and
- survivor benefits paid at the death of a retiree.

For purpose of this order, the following definitions apply:

- service or disability retirement benefits include monthly retirement annuity payments payable to a retiree, continuing optional annuity payments paid to a beneficiary, distributions under the Deferred Retirement Option Program (DROP), distributions of the Partial Lump Sum Option (PLSO), and supplemental payments;
- survivor benefits paid at the death of a retiree are the benefits payable at the death of a retiree and include a lump sum survivor benefit; any monthly benefits paid to a surviving spouse, dependent parent of the decedent, or minor children of the decedent; and a distribution of an amount equal to the remaining balance of Participant's accumulated contributions paid as a death benefit; and
- accumulated contributions include member contributions made on behalf of the Participant plus all accumulated interest has the meaning provided in § 821.001(1), Texas Government Code, or its successor statute.

The portion awarded to Alternate Payee is payable if, as, and when such distributions are made as provided by the Plan's governing laws and rules based on Participant's membership in, credit with, or contributions to the Plan. The portion of the distribution of benefits that is awarded and that is to be paid to Alternate Payee shall be determined as follows:

☐ OPTION 1

Multiply the distribution by a percentage derived from the following formula:

$$CP \text{ awarded} \times \frac{\text{standard annuity based on salary and service during the marriage}}{\text{standard annuity based on salary and service at time of distribution}}$$

The community property (CP in the equation above) awarded is the Alternate Payee's interest in the community property as determined by the court and may be expressed as a fraction, a percentage or a decimal. The Alternate Payee's interest in the community property is _____ (INSERT INTEREST AWARDED BY THE COURT).

The numerator of the fraction establishing the community's interest in Participant's total benefit is the amount of a standard service retirement annuity unreduced for early retirement calculated under the retirement law and rules in effect at the latest effective date of retirement of Participant prior to the end date of division but using only the service and salary credit that TRS determines has been acquired by the Participant between the date of the parties' marriage and the latest effective date of retirement prior to the end date of division and maintained with the System as of the latest effective date of retirement prior to the end date of division, even if the service credit is less than the minimum required to be eligible to receive a service retirement annuity and the average salary must be calculated with fewer salary years than specified by applicable laws and rules.

The denominator of the fraction is the amount of a standard service retirement annuity unreduced for early retirement calculated under the laws and rules in effect at the time of Participant's latest effective date of retirement and based on Participant's membership in, credit with, or contributions to the System as of Participant's latest effective date of retirement. The term "standard service retirement annuity" as used in this Order is defined by § 824.203, Texas Government Code, or its successor statute.

☐ OPTION 2

Multiply the distribution by _____% (INSERT PERCENT AWARDED BY THE COURT. AWARD MUST BE LESS THAN ONE HUNDRED PERCENT (100%)). The percent awarded is a percent of the total distribution payable on behalf of Participant and is not limited to a percentage of benefits accrued only during the marriage. If the application of the percent awarded results in a distribution of Participant's separate property to the Alternate Payee, the parties acknowledge the award and agree to the distribution and the Court finds that the award of separate property is necessary for the just and right division of the parties' community property.

Select one or more of the following special instructions if needed by marking the applicable box (do not omit unselected instructions):

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 1:

The above language notwithstanding, in no event shall Alternate Payee receive more than a total of $ _____ (INSERT TOTAL AMOUNT) plus interest, calculated from the end date of division to the date distribution to the Alternate Payee begins, as provided in § 825.307(b), Texas Government Code, or its successor statute.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 2:

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 3:

The above language notwithstanding and except and as provided in Section 6(g) of this order, in no event shall Alternate Payee receive more than $ _____ (INSERT AMOUNT) per month from any monthly retirement annuity payment.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 4 (only available if selected Option 1):

The above language notwithstanding, in determining the amount of service credit acquired during the marriage, service credit acquired under the terms of the Employee Retirement System of Texas (ERS) but transferred to TRS at the time of distribution shall be credited at the time the service was acquired or earned under ERS rather than the time of the transfer to TRS.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 5 (only available if selected Option 1):

The above language notwithstanding, in determining the amount of service credit acquired during the marriage, _____ (INSERT TOTAL NUMBER OF YEARS OF SERVICE CREDIT TO BE EXCLUDED) years of service credit purchased during the marriage are excluded from the total years of service credit acquired during the marriage.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 6:

It is further ordered pursuant to § 824.1012, Texas Government Code, or its successor statute, that Participant is authorized to change the retirement plan selection made at the time of retirement from a continuing optional retirement annuity providing for the beneficiary to receive at the death of Participant, all or a portion of the monthly retirement annuity, for the remainder of beneficiary's life, to an increased standard annuity retirement plan that will pay Participant a monthly benefit for the remainder of Participant's life only, and in changing the retirement plan to a standard annuity payment plan, Participant is authorized to revoke and the court hereby approves the revocation of Alternate Payee as the beneficiary of the continuing optional retirement annuity. Changes authorized in this order must comply with the TRS plan terms and nothing in this order shall be construed as authorizing an action in violation of the plan terms. In addition, Participant must comply with any requirements of TRS in order to effect the change of the retirement plan and the revocation of Alternate Payee as beneficiary.

☐ SPECIAL INSTRUCTION 7:

It is further ordered pursuant to § 824.1013, Texas Government Code, or its successor statute, that Participant is authorized to change the Alternate Payee as beneficiary of the continuing optional retirement plan selection made at the time of retirement that provides for the Alternate Payee to receive at the death of Participant all or a portion of the monthly retirement annuity for the remainder of Alternate Payee's life, and to designate another beneficiary to receive the continuing optional retirement annuity at Participant's death. However, beneficiary changes under § 824.1013 are subject to the TRS plan terms, including the restriction on multiple beneficiary changes and the limits on the length of time payments may be due to a new beneficiary. Changes authorized in this order must comply with the TRS plan terms and nothing in this order shall be construed as authorizing an action in violation of the plan terms. In addition, Participant must comply with any requirements of TRS in order to effect the change from Alternate Payee as beneficiary of the continuing optional retirement annuity to a new beneficiary.

6. The Teacher Retirement System of Texas is directed to disburse to Alternate Payee the portion of distributions assigned under Paragraph No. 5 of this Order, if, as, and when such distributions are made as provided by the System's governing laws and rules based on Participant's membership in, credit with, or contributions to the System, subject to the following provisions:
 - (a) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit or any option not otherwise provided under the Plan.
 - (b) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to provide increased benefits determined on the basis of actuarial value.
 - (c) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to pay any benefits to an alternate payee named in this Order which are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order previously determined to be a qualified domestic relations order.

(d) This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the payment of benefits to Alternate Payee before the retirement of Participant, the distribution of a withdrawal of contributions to Participant as authorized by the statutes governing the Plan, or any other distribution required by law.

(e) If the Plan provides for a reduced benefit upon "early retirement," this Order shall be interpreted to require that, in the event of Participant's retirement before normal retirement age, the benefits payable to Alternate Payee shall be reduced proportionately.

(f) This Order shall not be interpreted to require the designation of a particular person as the recipient of benefits in the event of Participant's death or to require the selection of a particular benefit payment plan or option. However, notwithstanding the provisions of this Order, if Alternate Payee is designated as a beneficiary for any benefits payable by TRS upon the death of Participant, then Alternate Payee shall receive such payment to which Alternate Payee is entitled by law as beneficiary. If Alternate Payee is a joint beneficiary for a benefit, Alternate Payee shall receive the portion of the total benefit payable to the joint beneficiaries as specified in Paragraph No. 5 above; the portion of the benefit payment received by Alternate Payee as a joint beneficiary of Participant shall be credited toward satisfying the amount of the benefit payable to Alternate Payee as the alternate payee for Participant's interest. Additionally, as specified in Paragraph No. 5 above, Alternate Payee shall receive a portion of any other benefits which are payable to a beneficiary and for which Alternate Payee was not designated as a beneficiary.

(g) In the event that, after distribution of a benefit to Participant or a beneficiary has begun, the amount of the distribution is increased or reduced by law, then the amount payable to Alternate Payee shall be increased or reduced proportionately.

(h) If the Board of Trustees of the Plan has provided by rule that, in lieu of paying an alternate payee the interest awarded by a qualified domestic relations order, the Plan may pay an alternate payee an amount that is the actuarial equivalent of such interest in the form of (1) an annuity payable in equal monthly installments for the life of the alternate payee, or (2) a lump sum, then and only in that event Alternate Payee or Participant may request the Plan to make payment in this form, and the Plan is authorized to make payment in this form instead of in the manner otherwise described in this Order. This Order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to adopt such rules or to require the Plan to grant any request for payment in the form described in this provision. The determination of whether to pay an amount authorized by this provision in lieu of the interest otherwise awarded by this Order shall be at the sole discretion of the Plan.

The above language notwithstanding, Alternate Payee may make an election, if authorized by § 804.005, Texas Government Code, or its successor statute, to receive an amount in lieu of the interest awarded by this Order that is Alternate Payee's portion of the actuarial equivalent of the Participant's accrued benefit, determined as of the date of Alternate Payee's election. When authorized, Alternate Payee may make this election in writing to TRS if Participant has not yet retired but is at least 62 years of age and eligible to retire without reduction for early age. The amount is payable to Alternate Payee in the form authorized by law and as determined by TRS. The benefit payable on behalf of Participant is reduced as required by law and as determined by TRS.

(i) The interest of Alternate Payee is governed by § 804.101, Texas Government Code, or its successor statute.

7. Any amount payable by TRS, other than those payable under Paragraph No. 5 above to Alternate Payee, shall be payable directly to Participant, Participant's beneficiary, or the estate, heirs, or legatees of either, in accordance with the TRS laws and rules. If Participant, Participant's beneficiary, or the estate of either receives any amount of a distribution that has been awarded to Alternate Payee, the recipient is designated a constructive trustee for the amount received and shall immediately transmit such amount to Alternate Payee.
8. If Alternate Payee or the estate, heirs, or legatees of Alternate Payee receive any amount of a distribution that should have been paid to Participant, Participant's beneficiary, or the estate, heirs, or legatees of either, the recipient is designated a constructive trustee for the amount received and shall immediately transmit such amount to Plan Participant or other person to whom the amount should have been paid.

9. If Participant, Alternate Payee, or the estate, heirs, or legatees of either receive any amount of a distribution that should not have been paid by the System, the recipient is designated a constructive trustee for the amount received and shall immediately transmit such amount to the System.
10. Alternate Payee is ORDERED to report any payments received on any applicable income tax return in accordance with Internal Revenue Code provisions or regulations in effect at the time any payments are issued by TRS. The Plan is authorized to issue a Form W-2P, Form 1099-R, or other applicable form on any direct payment made to Alternate Payee. Plan Participant and Alternate Payee shall allocate Participant's investment in contract in the manner established by the Internal Revenue Code and any applicable regulations.
11. Alternate Payee is ORDERED to provide the Plan prompt written notification of any changes in Alternate Payee's mailing address. TRS shall not be liable for failing to make payments to Alternate Payee if TRS does not have a current mailing address for Alternate Payee at time of payment.
12. Alternate Payee shall furnish a certified copy of this Order to TRS.
13. The Court retains jurisdiction to amend this Order so that it will constitute a qualified domestic relations order under the Plan even though all other matters incident to this action or proceeding have been fully and finally adjudicated. If the System determines at any time that changes in the law, the administration of the Plan, or any other circumstances make it impossible to calculate the portion of a distribution awarded to Alternate Payee by this Order and so notifies the parties, either or both parties shall immediately petition the Court for reformation of the Order.

14. It is the intent of this Court that this order conform to the model domestic relations order adopted by TRS. Any variance from the model order is inadvertent and shall be construed and administered by TRS in a manner consistent with the model order language.

§109.14. PROVISIONS INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE

The following provisions of 34 Texas Administrative Code, §109.14 are expressly incorporated by reference in the TCERS prescribed QDRO.

- (1) The order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit or any option not otherwise provided under the Plan.
- (2) The order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to provide increased benefits determined on the basis of actuarial value.
- (3) The order shall not be interpreted in any way to require the Plan to pay any benefits to an/any Alternate Payee named in the order which are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order previously determined to be a qualified domestic relations order.
- (4) If the Plan provides for a reduced benefit upon "early retirement," the order shall be interpreted to require that, in the event of Participant's retirement before normal retirement age, the benefits payable to Alternate Payee shall be reduced in a proportionate amount.
- (5) The order shall not be interpreted to require the designation of a particular person as the recipient of benefits in the event of Participant's death, or to require the selection of a particular benefit payment plan or option.
- (6) In the event that, after the date of the order, the amount of any benefit otherwise payable to Participant is increased as a result of amendments to the law governing the Plan, Alternate Payee shall receive a proportionate part of such increase unless such an order would disqualify the order under the rules the Plan has adopted with regard to qualified domestic relations orders.
- (7) In the event that, after the date of the order, the amount of any benefit otherwise payable to Participant is reduced by law, the portion of benefits payable to Alternate Payee shall be reduced in a proportionate amount.
- (8) If, as a result of Participant's death after the date of the order, a payment is made by the Plan to Participant's estate, surviving spouse, or designated beneficiaries, which payment does not relate in any way to Participant's length of employment or accumulated contributions with the Plan, but rather is purely a death benefit payable as a result of employment or retired status at the time of death, no portion of such payment is community property, and Alternate Payee shall have no interest in such death benefit.
- (9) If the board of trustees of the Plan has by rule provided that, in lieu of paying an alternate payee the interest awarded by a qualified domestic relations order, the Plan may pay the alternate payee an amount that is the actuarial equivalent of an annuity payable in equal monthly installments for the life of the alternate payee, or a lump sum, then and in that event the Plan is authorized to make such a payment under the order.
- (10) All payments to Alternate Payee under the order shall terminate upon Alternate Payee's death, and Alternate Payee's beneficiary may be entitled to a benefit under §109.12.
- (11) All benefits payable under the Plan, other than those payable to Alternate Payee as provided in a qualified domestic order, shall be payable to Participant in such manner and form as Participant may elect in his/her sole and undivided discretion, subject only to Plan requirements.
- (12) Alternate Payee must report any retirement payments received on any applicable income tax return, and must promptly notify the Plan of any changes in Alternate Payee's mailing address. The Plan is authorized to issue a Form 1099R on any direct payment made to Alternate Payee.
- (13) Participant is designated a constructive trustee for receiving any retirement benefits under the Plan that are due to Alternate Payee but paid to Participant. Participant must pay the benefit defined in this paragraph directly to Alternate Payee within three days after receipt by Participant. All payments made directly to Alternate Payee by the Plan shall be a credit against this order.
- (14) The Court retains jurisdiction to amend the order so that it will constitute a qualified domestic relations order under the Plan even though all other matters incident to this action or proceeding have been fully and finally adjudicated.

This Order awards to Alternate Payee _____% of Retiree’s interest in the Plan, in recognition of Alternate Payee’s marital rights in Retiree’s benefits payable under the Plan.

CALCULATION OF AWARD — NUMBER 1

The following calculation shall be used if Retiree chose to retire under (a) single life option, (b) dual life option and named Alternate Payee as beneficiary, (c) guaranteed term option and named Alternate Payee as beneficiary, or (d) guaranteed term option and named someone other than Alternate Payee as beneficiary if the option has expired as of the date the Plan approves this Order.

This Order divides the monthly benefit currently payable to Retiree under the Plan as follows:

The actuarial present value of Retiree’s lifetime benefit is hereby split into two Single Life benefits. CALCULATION OF AWARD — NUMBER 2

The following calculation shall be used if Retiree selected a person other than Alternate Payee as beneficiary and chose to retire under (a) dual life payment option, or (b) guaranteed term payment option and the term has not expired.

The actuarial present value of Retiree's lifetime benefit minus the actuarial present value of the amount attributable to the beneficiary ("adjusted actuarial present value") is hereby split into two Single Life benefits. Alternate Payee's Single Life benefit is calculated based on the percentage awarded and Retiree's Single Life benefit is calculated based on the remaining adjusted actuarial present value. In the event that Retiree is eligible for any future cost-of-living adjustments, they will be awarded to Retiree and Alternate Payee based on the percentage awarded.

7. Benefit Commencement and Termination

When Benefits Begin and End

Employee is ORDERED to return that amount directly to the Plan within three days after receipt by Employee.

13. Continued Jurisdiction*Continued Jurisdiction*

The Court retains jurisdiction of this case for the purpose of making any clarifying orders that are necessary for the proper enforcement of the orders and provisions contained in this order and that may be necessary to ensure acceptance of this order as a court order acceptable for processing and to maintain its acceptable status.

Caveat: Although the military retirement division language may be included in the body of the decree of divorce, the better practice is to treat military retirement just as any other retirement asset that requires a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO) would be treated. Because a division order of military retirement does not fall under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, it is not a “qualified” order but simply a military retirement pension division order (MRPDO). The Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) does not require that the order regarding division of the retirement benefits be contained wholly in the decree, and the better practice is to have a separate order (“Military Retired Pay Division Order”) that specifically treats the division of the military retired pay and related military benefits. DFAS may require, however, that the person submitting the retirement division order for approval for direct payment (usually the nonmember spouse, since an application signed by that spouse must accompany the order) to the nonmember spouse submit the divorce decree, as well as the MRPDO that divides the military retirement if it is in a separate order, making sure that the terms of the decree and MRPDO are consistent. Some courts have taken the approach that the final decree is the awarding order and the MRPDO is the implementing order.

Military Retirement Pension Division Order

The Court, having entered a decree of divorce [coincident with the signing of this military retirement pension division order/in this case on [date]], finding that the entry of a Military Retirement Pension Division Order (MRPDO) is necessary to effectuate the terms of that decree of divorce, and further finding that the entry of an MRPDO is appropriate, makes the following specific findings and conclusions of law and enters them as an order in this proceeding.

Findings

The Court finds, in accordance with the Uniformed Services Former Spouses’ Protection Act, 10 U.S.C. § 1408, as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over [full name of servicemember] (“Servicemember”). [Include one or both of the following: The residence of Servicemember is in [city, county], Texas, other than because of military assignment during the proceeding./Servicemember has consented to the jurisdiction of the Court.]

2. Servicemember and [full name of former spouse] (“Former Spouse”) were originally married on [date], and that marriage lasted for [number] years and [number] months or more, during which time Servicemember served [number] years and [number] months or more of creditable service toward retirement.

The time in months and years that the parties were married during which the servicemember was earning retirement credit should not be stated to be “ten years or more” or “twenty years or more” but should be the actual years and months of overlapping marital service. The ten-year and twenty-year periods are relevant in determining the availability of direct payment from DFAS to the former spouse and the former spouse’s entitlement to certain medical and other benefits, respectively. See the practice notes at sections 25.75 and 25.80.

3. Servicemember’s Social Security number is --[last four numbers], [his/her] address is [address], and [his/her] birth date is [date].

4. Former Spouse’s Social Security number is --[last four numbers], [her/his] address is [address], and [her/his] birth date is [date].

5. The rights of Servicemember under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 3901–3920) have been observed and honored.

6. Servicemember [is/is not] retired from the United States [branch of service] at the time of this order.

7. The award of disposable retired pay made to Former Spouse in this order is made in compliance with the Uniformed Services Former Spouses’ Protection Act.

Direct payment is available from DFAS only if the parties were married for at least ten years during which the servicemember was also on active duty for at least ten years or in active reserve status and earned at least ten “good years” for reserve retirement credit. If this is not the case, the order must be written to provide for a constructive trust between the servicemember and the former spouse, and taxes must be dealt with because the servicemember will be taxed.

8. It is intended by this Court and the parties that the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) make the payments due to Former Spouse of [her/his] interest in the disposable retired pay awarded in this order directly to Former Spouse.

Terms and Definitions

With respect to the provisions of this MRPDO, the Court has used and applied the following terms and definitions:

1. “Retired pay” means monetary pay to which Servicemember is, or may hereafter be, entitled to receive on completion of the requisite number of years of creditable service to be entitled to nondisability retired pay as a result of service in the United States Armed Forces (active duty, reserve component, or national guard), whether called retired pay, retainer pay, or retirement pay.

2. “Disposable retired pay” has the meaning provided in the Uniformed Services Former Spouses’ Protection Act (10 U.S.C. § 1408 et seq.) in effect on the date of the parties’ divorce.

3. “USFSPA” means the Uniformed Services Former Spouses’ Protection Act (10 U.S.C. § 1408 et seq.) in effect on the date of the parties’ divorce.

4. “Defense Finance and Accounting Service” (DFAS) means, refers to, and includes the Secretary of the Department of Defense, the Director of the DFAS, the designated agent of either of these, and other appropriate subdivisions of the United States Government.

5. “COLA” means the cost-of-living adjustment increases that are made annually to a military retiree’s retired pay pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 1401a.

Award to Former Spouse

Use the following when the former spouse is to receive only a fixed-dollar award. The former spouse will not receive any COLAs thereafter authorized by Congress if a fixed dollar amount is awarded.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember’s retirement from the United States [branch of service], the sum of [number] dollars ($[amount]) of Servicemember’s monthly disposable retired pay.

When representing the servicemember, use the following for an active duty servicemember who entered the service before September 8, 1980.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember’s retirement from the United States [branch of service], the amount of retired pay then equal to [percentage awarded former spouse (usually 50 percent)] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember’s military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of months of servicemember’s service during marriage divided by number of months servicemember has been on active duty on date of divorce] percent multiplied by [percentage of servicemember’s gross retired pay entitlement if servicemember were allowed to retire on date of divorce, that is, 0.025 multiplied by number of full months of servicemember’s creditable service toward retirement on divorce divided by 12] percent multiplied by [servicemember’s base pay on date of divorce] divided by the amount of the monthly gross retired pay that Servicemember is entitled to receive at retirement multiplied by the amount of Servicemember’s monthly disposable retired pay at retirement.

When representing a servicemember who has not been in the military for twenty years, the attorney may wish to calculate the percentage of the servicemember's entitlement to retired pay taking into account the provisions of the Temporary Early Retirement Authority (TERA), 10 U.S.C. § 1293, which will necessarily have the effect of reducing the former spouse's share of the anticipated retired pay on divorce. See the following materials for discussions of the application of TERA to the calculation of military retired pay in such circumstances:

Or

When representing the former spouse, use the following for an active duty servicemember who entered the service before September 8, 1980.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember's retirement from the United States [branch of service], the amount of retired pay then equal to [percentage awarded former spouse (usually 50 percent)] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of months of servicemember's service during marriage divided by number of months servicemember has been on active duty on date of divorce] percent multiplied by [percentage of servicemember's gross retired pay entitlement if servicemember were allowed to retire on date of divorce, that is, 0.025 multiplied by number of full months of servicemember's creditable service toward retirement on divorce divided by 12] percent multiplied by the base pay of a servicemember with Servicemember's pay grade and longevity on the date of divorce determined on the date of Servicemember's retirement divided by Servicemember's monthly gross retired pay at retirement multiplied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay at retirement.

When representing the former spouse, determine the former spouse's share of the retired pay on divorce limited, however, to the pay grade and longevity of the servicemember on the date of divorce. See the following materials for discussions on the calculation of military retired pay:

1. James N. Higdon, Military Retirement and Divorce, chapter 63.2, State Bar of Texas 35th Advanced Family Law Course, August 2009.

Or

When representing the servicemember, use the following for an active duty servicemember who entered the service on or after September 8, 1980. If the servicemember is participating in the legacy retirement system, use 0.025 as the longevity factor in the formula; if the servicemember is participating in the Blended Retirement System (BRS), use 0.020 as the longevity factor. For a former spouse to receive a portion of lump sum payments made to a member pursuant to the member's election under the BRS, DFAS must have received and approved the application for former spouse payments prior to the member's receipt of the lump-sum amount. Be aware also of continuation pay bonuses under BRS.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember's retirement from the United States [branch of service], the amount of disposable retired pay calculated as follows: [percentage awarded former spouse] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of months of servicemember's service during marriage divided by number of months servicemember has been on active duty on date of divorce] percent multiplied by [percentage of servicemember's gross retired pay entitlement if servicemember were allowed to retire on date of divorce, that is, [0.025/0.020] multiplied by number of full months of servicemember's creditable service toward retirement on divorce divided by 12] percent multiplied by [servicemember's high-36 month base pay on date of divorce] divided by Servicemember's monthly gross retired pay at retirement multi- plied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay at retirement [include if service-member is participating in BRS: and any lump-sum payment of Servicemember's disposable retired pay].

Or

When representing the former spouse, use the following for an active duty servicemember who entered the service on or after September 8, 1980. If the servicemember is participating in the legacy retirement system, use 0.025 as the longevity factor in the formula; if the servicemember is participating in the BRS, use 0.020 as the longevity factor.

Because the servicemember's high-36 month base pay at the time of retirement for his or her pay grade and longevity on the date of divorce cannot be determined on the date of divorce but must wait for his or her retirement, it will probably be necessary to "clarify" the MRPDO at or after the date the servicemember retires because DFAS may not accept for processing an order that contains the "high-36 month base pay at the time of retirement" hypothetical. Therefore, both parties should be notified that a clarification suit will probably have to be filed and a clarifying order entered at that time.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember's retirement from the United States [branch of service], the amount of disposable retired pay calculated as follows: [percentage awarded former spouse] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of months of servicemember's service during marriage divided by number of months servicemember has been on active duty on date of divorce] percent multiplied by [percentage of servicemember's gross retired pay entitlement if servicemember were allowed to retire on date of divorce, that is, [0.025/0.020] multiplied by number of full months of servicemember's creditable service toward retirement on divorce divided by 12] percent multiplied by the high-36 month base pay of a servicemember with Servicemember's pay grade and longevity on the date of divorce determined on the date of Servicemember's retirement divided by Servicemember's monthly gross retired pay at retirement multiplied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay at retirement

[include if servicemember is participating in BRS: and any lump-sum payment of Servicemember's disposable retired pay].

Or

Use the following for an active duty servicemember who is retired at the time of divorce whether representing the servicemember or the former spouse.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember [percentage awarded former spouse (usually 50 percent)] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement, that is, number of months of servicemember's service during marriage divided by total number of months of servicemember's service at retirement] percent multiplied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay.

Or

When representing the servicemember, use the following for an active reservist servicemember who entered the service before September 8, 1980.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember's retirement from the United States [branch of service], the amount of retired pay then equal to [percentage awarded former spouse (usually 50 percent)] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of retirement points earned during marriage divided by total number of retirement points earned by servicemember on date of divorce] percent multiplied by [percentage of servicemember's gross retired pay entitlement if servicemember were allowed to retire on date of divorce, that is, 0.025 multiplied by servicemember's total retirement points on divorce divided by 360] percent multiplied by [servicemember's base pay on date of divorce] divided by Servicemember's monthly gross retired pay at retirement multiplied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay at retirement.

Or

When representing the former spouse, use the following for an active reservist servicemember who entered the service before September 8, 1980.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember's retirement from the United States [branch of service], the amount of retired pay then equal to [percentage awarded former spouse (usually 50 percent)] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of retirement points earned during marriage divided by total number of retirement points earned by servicemember on date of divorce] percent multiplied by [percentage of servicemember's gross retired pay entitlement if servicemember were allowed to retire on date of divorce, that is, 0.025 multiplied by servicemember's total retirement points on divorce divided by 360] percent multiplied by the base pay of a servicemember with Servicemember's pay grade and longevity on the date of divorce determined on the date of Servicemember's retirement divided by Servicemember's monthly gross retired pay at retirement multiplied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay at retirement.

Or

When representing the servicemember, use the following for an active reservist servicemember who entered the service on or after September 8, 1980. If the servicemember is participating in the legacy retirement system, use 0.025 as the longevity factor in the formula; if the servicemember is participating in the BRS, use 0.020 as the longevity factor.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember's retirement from the United States [branch of service], the amount of disposable retired pay calculated as follows: [percentage awarded former spouse] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of retirement points earned during marriage divided by total number of retirement points earned by servicemember on date of divorce] percent multiplied by [percentage of servicemember's gross retired pay entitlement if servicemember were allowed to retire on date of divorce, that is, [0.025/0.020] multiplied by servicemember's total retirement points on divorce divided by 360] percent multiplied by [servicemember's high-36 month base pay on the date of divorce] divided by Servicemember's monthly gross retired pay at retirement multiplied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay at retirement [include if servicemember is participating in BRS: and any lump-sum payment of Servicemember's disposable retired pay].

Or

When representing the former spouse, use the following for an active reservist servicemember who entered the service on or after September 8, 1980. If the servicemember is participating in the legacy retirement system, use 0.025 as the longevity factor in the formula; if the servicemember is participating in the BRS, use 0.020 as the longevity factor.

Because the servicemember's high-36 month base pay at the time of retirement for his or her pay grade and longevity on the date of divorce cannot be determined on the date of divorce but must wait for his or her retirement, it will probably be necessary to "clarify" the MRPDO at or after the date the servicemember retires, because DFAS may not accept for processing an order that contains the "high-36 month base pay at the time of retirement" hypothetical. Therefore, both parties should be notified that a clarification suit will probably have to be filed and a clarifying order entered at that time.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember, on Servicemember's retirement from the United States [branch of service], the amount of disposable retired pay calculated as follows: [percentage awarded former spouse] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of retirement points earned during marriage divided by total number of retirement points earned by servicemember at divorce] percent multiplied by [percentage of servicemember's gross retired pay entitlement if servicemember were allowed to retire on date of divorce, that is, [0.025/0.020] multiplied by servicemember's total retirement points on divorce divided by 360] percent multiplied by the high-36 month base pay of a servicemember with Servicemember's pay grade and longevity on the date of divorce determined on the date of Servicemember's retirement divided by Servicemember's monthly gross retired pay at retirement multiplied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay at retirement [include if servicemember is participating in BRS: and any lump-sum payment of Servicemember's disposable retired pay].

Or

Use the following for a reservist servicemember who is retired and receiving retired pay at the time of divorce whether representing the servicemember or the former spouse.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember [percentage awarded former spouse (usually 50 percent)] percent multiplied by [number of servicemember's retirement points earned during marriage divided by total number of servicemember's retirement points at retirement] percent multiplied by Servicemember's monthly disposable retired pay.

Or

Important: The attorney representing a servicemember who is retired but not accruing points or receiving retired pay will want to have the "retired pay" determined on the date of divorce rather than using a percentage of retired pay at retirement. In the latter formulation, the former spouse would receive the benefit of the cost-of-living increases that accrue from the date of the "retirement" or divorce to the date when the servicemember begins receiving retired pay, usually at age sixty. (In 2009, Congress passed a law to allow reservists and guardsmen who were recalled to and performed active duty on and after January 30, 2008, to be entitled to receive retired pay earlier than age sixty, at their election.)

Use the following for a reservist servicemember who is retired and not accruing retirement points but not receiving retired pay at the time of divorce, that is, one who is no longer a drilling reservist but has not yet become entitled to receive retired pay. If the servicemember is participating in the legacy retirement system, use 0.025 as the longevity factor in the formula; if the servicemember is participating in the BRS, use 0.020 as the longevity factor.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember [percentage awarded former spouse (usually 50 percent)] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of servicemember's retirement points earned during marriage divided by total number of servicemember's retirement points at divorce] percent multiplied by [0.025/0.020] multiplied by servicemember's total retirement points earned on date of divorce divided by 360] percent multiplied by [servicemember's high-36 month base pay at divorce] divided by Servicemember's gross retired pay at retirement multiplied by Servicemember's disposable retired pay at retirement [include if servicemember is participating in BRS: and any lump-sum payment of Servicemember's disposable retired pay].

Or

Use the following when representing the former spouse of a reservist servicemember who is retired and not accruing retirement points but not receiving retired pay at the time of divorce.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Former Spouse have judgment against and recover from Servicemember [percentage awarded former spouse (usually 50 percent)] percent multiplied by [percentage of community interest in servicemember's military retired pay entitlement on date of divorce, that is, number of servicemember's retirement points earned during marriage divided by total number of servicemember's retirement points at divorce] percent multiplied by Servicemember's disposable retired pay at retirement.

Select one of the following COLA provisions.

Use the following if the former spouse is to receive COLAs.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that DFAS, to the extent allowed by law, pay Former Spouse each month the calculated percentage of Servicemember's disposable retired pay at retirement, together with all COLAs applicable thereto, payable IF, AS and WHEN received by Servicemember.

Use the following if the former spouse is not to be awarded and receive COLAs.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that DFAS, to the extent allowed by law, pay Former Spouse each month the fixed dollar award out of Servicemember's disposable retired pay at retirement, payable IF, AS and WHEN received by Servicemember, but Former Spouse shall not be entitled to receive any COLAs related thereto.

Continue with the following when representing the former spouse if the court will include this language, since it protects the interest being awarded to the former spouse from the effects of VA waiver and/or the servicemember's application for combat-related special compensation (CRSC) (10 U.S.C. § 1413a). But see Howell v. Howell, 137 U.S. 1400 (2017) for the limitations on indemnification to a former spouse.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED that the award herein shall in no event be less than [number] dollars ($[amount]) per month, together with all COLAs hereafter applicable thereto, of Servicemember's retired pay. The Court recognizes, in making this award, that DFAS, pursuant to the USFSPA, is authorized to pay Former Spouse only the herein-awarded percentage of Servicemember's "disposable retired pay," and this Order, as to DFAS, should be so construed.

Include the following if applicable.

If the former spouse is to be awarded the right to receive the servicemember's Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) annuity benefits, a decision must be made about who is to pay for it if the parties wish to allocate the cost in a manner different from the federal requirements. DFAS subtracts the SBP premium from the gross retired pay in calculating disposable retired pay before division. If the former spouse is to pay the full cost of the SBP premiums, the simplest way to accomplish this result is to adjust the former spouse's percentage share of the disposable retired pay. The attorney who is not adequately informed on this issue should consult with someone who fully understands this aspect of retired pay calculation before reaching an agreement on this adjustment. If the former spouse's share is to be adjusted to provide for the former spouse's paying all of the cost of the monthly SBP premium, something like the following should be inserted at this point in the order unless the servicemember is already retired. SBP benefits are also affected by a servicemember's election to take lump-sum payments under the Blended Retirement System.

The Court finds that the foregoing calculated percentage of disposable military retired pay awarded Former Spouse has been reduced to provide for Former Spouse's payment of all of the monthly Survivor Benefit Plan premium cost.

Continue with the following.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the rest, residue, and remainder of the military retired pay of Servicemember is the sole and separate property of Servicemember.

Amounts in Excess of 50 Percent

IT IS ORDERED that if the dollar amount or award (or a larger sum as increases take effect) exceeds 50 percent of the disposable retired pay, DFAS shall pay to Former Spouse the maximum amount allowable under the USFSPA and Servicemember shall be responsible for paying the balance of the award each month to Former Spouse, and it is accordingly ORDERED.

If DFAS is not allowed to pay Former Spouse the full amount of Former Spouse's entitlement pursuant to this order for any reason, Servicemember is hereby ORDERED, within seven days of being notified by Former Spouse that Former Spouse is not receiving the full amount of Former Spouse's interest in the retired pay, to execute and deliver to DFAS all forms or documents that may then be necessary to effect an allotment payable to Former Spouse in the amount of the difference between the amount being paid directly to Former Spouse by DFAS and the full amount of Former Spouse's interest in the retired pay. Servicemember is FURTHER ORDERED to keep and maintain in full force and effect any allotment required by this provision, payable to Former Spouse at [address, city, state, zip code], or such other address as Former Spouse may hereafter specify in writing, until such time as Former Spouse begins receiving Former Spouse's full separate-property share of Servicemember's disposable retired pay as awarded herein directly from DFAS. That allotment may be canceled by Servicemember if and when Former Spouse begins receiving, and for as long as Former Spouse is receiving, Former Spouse's full separate-property share of Servicemember's disposable retired pay directly from DFAS, but only in that event or to avoid double payment of sums.

Include the following paragraph if applicable.

Since Former Spouse has been awarded the right to receive that share attributable to the interest awarded to Former Spouse herein of any and all COLAs or other increases in the monthly disposable retired pay hereinafter paid and if Former Spouse is not receiving from DFAS [her/his] full share of the retired pay herein awarded to Former Spouse, if and when COLAs are made to the retired pay received by Servicemember, Servicemember is hereby ORDERED to execute and deliver to DFAS all forms or documents that may then be necessary to effect an increase in the allotment to Former Spouse in the amount equal to the dollars-and-cents equivalent of that COLA attributable to Former Spouse's share of that disposable retired pay. Servicemember is hereby ORDERED to increase the allotment then in effect or, if applicable, initiate an allotment pursuant to the foregoing paragraph, within seven working days of the date Servicemember is notified by DFAS of the effective date of each COLA to the monthly retired pay payment.

Constructive Trust

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Servicemember be and is hereby designated a constructive trustee for the benefit of Former Spouse for the purpose of receiving the retired pay awarded herein to Former Spouse as Former Spouse's sole and separate property, and Servicemember be and is hereby ORDERED, on receipt thereof, to deliver by first-class mail to Former Spouse at [her/his] last known address by negotiable instrument that portion of each monthly retired pay payments awarded to Former Spouse herein not paid directly (or by allotment) by DFAS within three days of the receipt of any such payments by Servicemember. All payments made directly to Former Spouse by DFAS shall be a credit against this obligation.

For purposes of this order, Servicemember is specifically directed, on penalty of contempt, to pay Former Spouse's interest in the disposable retired pay as ordered in this order, and IT IS SO ORDERED. Servicemember is specifically directed that [he/she] is not relieved of that obligation except to the extent that [he/she] is specifically notified that 100 percent of Former Spouse's interest in the retirement benefit has been directly paid by DFAS, and IT IS SO ORDERED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any election of benefits that may hereafter be made by Servicemember shall not reduce the amount equal to the percentage of the retired pay or the amount of the retired pay the Court has herein awarded to Former Spouse, except as provided by federal law and prohibited from being changed by a state court order. In this regard, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Servicemember shall not merge [his/her] military retired pay with any other pension and shall not pursue any course of action that would defeat, reduce, or limit Former Spouse's right to receive Former Spouse's full separate-property share of Servicemember's retired pay as awarded in this order, unless otherwise ordered herein.

Death

IT IS ORDERED that the payment of the retired pay awarded in this order to Former Spouse shall continue until the death of Servicemember or Former Spouse.

Retiree Account Statements and Privacy Waiver

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Servicemember shall deliver by first class mail to Former Spouse at [former spouse's mailing address], or such other address as Former Spouse may hereafter specify in writing, a true and correct legible copy of each Retiree Account Statement received by Servicemember from DFAS within five days of its receipt.

IT IS ORDERED that Servicemember hereby waives any privacy or other rights as may be required for Former Spouse to obtain information relating to Servicemember's date of retirement, last unit assignment, full pay grade, past or present monthly annuity payments, or other information that may be required to enforce this award or to revise this order to make it enforceable.

Include the following if applicable.

Retirement

IT IS ORDERED that Servicemember shall notify Former Spouse of [his/her] application for retired pay, and provide Former Spouse with a true copy of [his/her] Application for Retired Pay Benefits, on the date [he/she] applies for those benefits. This notification shall be mailed by Servicemember to Former Spouse at [her/his] last known address. Servicemember is FURTHER ORDERED to provide to Former Spouse a true and correct copy of the first Retiree Account Statement received by [him/her] within five days of its receipt.

Continue with the following.

Application for Direct Payment of Retired Pay

Former Spouse is hereby directed to apply for Former Spouse's entitlement to a portion of Servicemember's disposable military retired pay by contacting the DFAS Legal Department, completing the Application for Former Spouse Payments from Retired Pay (DD Form 2293), and delivering it along with a certified copy of this MRPDO (certified within ninety days of its delivery to DFAS) and a photocopy of the parties' marriage certificate to:

DFAS-HGA-CL, Assistant General Counsel for Garnishment Operations, P.O. Box 998002, Cleveland, Ohio 44199-8002 by certified mail, return receipt requested.

DD Form 2293 can be accessed and downloaded at www.dtic.mil/whs/directives/infomgt/forms/efoms/dd2293.pdf.

Taxes

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Former Spouse shall include in [her/his] gross income for [her/his] taxable years of receipt all retired pay received by Former Spouse pursuant to this order, and, to the extent benefits are payable to Former Spouse by DFAS, Servicemember shall not include such benefits in Servicemember's gross income for such taxable years.

Survivor Benefit Plan

Important: If being awarded, it is mandatory that the order state clearly that Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) benefit coverage is being awarded to the former spouse, to the parties' children, or to both, as applicable.

Payment of the SBP monthly premiums is deducted from the gross retired pay by DFAS before DFAS applies the former spouse percentage, that is, divides the retired pay between the former spouse and the servicemember. If the attorney does not want the spouses to share in the cost and wants the former spouse to pay all of the cost of the SBP annuity, the premium should be deducted from the former spouse's share by reducing the percentage, or the former spouse can pay the servicemember each month (or other frequency period) for the coverage. Ensure that the former spouse pays only his or her share of the premium. For instance, if the former spouse is not receiving 50 percent of total retired pay, the former spouse will not be paying 50 percent of the premium, but will be paying only the percentage of the disposable pay that has been awarded to the former spouse. If the former spouse remarries before age fifty-five, his or her entitlement to be a SBP beneficiary is suspended for the duration of that marriage, but the former spouse can, on the termination of that marriage, petition DFAS for reinstatement of the suspended benefit. During the period of the suspended benefit, DFAS should, if timely notified, also suspend the payment of the monthly premiums.

A servicemember may designate only one class of beneficiary for the survivor benefits. Thus, if a former spouse beneficiary has been designated, a new spouse cannot be designated as a "spouse beneficiary" unless the former spouse is no longer an eligible beneficiary. Also, the servicemember is not permitted to award a fractional interest to the former spouse and leave a portion for a future spouse. DFAS will pay the survivor benefit to only the designated beneficiary(ies), i.e., spouse, spouse and children, former spouse or former spouse and children, on the death of the servicemember. Generally, the designation, once made, is irrevocable.

Use the following paragraph if the servicemember is retired, the spouse is currently designated as a spouse beneficiary of servicemember's SBP, and the spouse is to be redesignated as a former spouse beneficiary.

The Court further finds that Former Spouse is presently named a spouse beneficiary of Servicemember's Armed Forces Survivor Benefit Plan (which is deemed to include the Reserve Component Survivor Benefit Plan, if applicable) and that Servicemember's election to provide the Survivor Benefit Plan benefits to Former Spouse should be continued by Former Spouse's being designated as a former spouse beneficiary and that Former Spouse's designation as a former spouse beneficiary should not hereafter be modified, amended, withdrawn, reduced, or altered by Servicemember during Former Spouse's lifetime, and IT IS SO ORDERED.

Or

Use the following paragraph if the servicemember is not retired and the spouse is to be designated as a former spouse beneficiary of the SBP.

The Court further finds that Former Spouse should be designated as a former spouse beneficiary of Servicemember's Armed Forces Survivor Benefit Plan (which is deemed to include the Reserve Component Survivor Benefit Plan, if applicable) and that Servicemember is ordered to designate Former Spouse as a former spouse beneficiary of the Survivor Benefit Plan and that Former Spouse's designation as a former spouse beneficiary should not hereafter be modified, amended, withdrawn, reduced, or altered by Servicemember during Former Spouse's lifetime, and IT IS SO ORDERED.

Or

If an election is made to have the parties' children covered as beneficiaries of the SBP, recognize that the coverage will continue only as long as one or more of the children are under the age of eighteen; the coverage can be continued until age twenty-two if the child(ren) are enrolled in college or another qualifying educational institution. If electing such a coverage, use the following as applicable.

The Court further finds that [the parties' child[ren]/Former Spouse and the parties' child[ren]] should be designated as [a child beneficiary/child beneficiaries/former spouse and child beneficiaries] of Servicemember's Armed Forces Survivor Benefit Plan (which is deemed to include the Reserve Component Survivor Benefit Plan, if applicable) and that Servicemember is ordered to designate [the parties' child[ren]/Former Spouse and the parties' child[ren]] as [a child beneficiary/child beneficiaries/former spouse and child beneficiaries] of the Survivor Benefit Plan and that the designation of [the child[ren]/Former Spouse and the child[ren]] as [a child beneficiary/child beneficiaries/former spouse and child beneficiaries] should not hereafter be modified, amended, withdrawn, reduced, or altered by Servicemember during the child[ren]'s eligibility [include if applicable: or Former Spouse's lifetime], and IT IS SO ORDERED.

Or

Although it is not necessary to specifically provide that there will be no SBP former spouse coverage for the former spouse since the failure to award the SBP benefit at the time of divorce is res judicata on the issue (In re A.E.R., 2006 WL 349695 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2006) (mem. op.)), it is nevertheless recommended that the following paragraph be included to specifically address the benefit.

The Court further finds that Former Spouse should not be designated as a former spouse beneficiary of Servicemember's Armed Forces Survivor Benefit Plan, and IT IS SO ORDERED.

Continue with the following if the survivor benefit is awarded.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Servicemember shall elect to designate Former Spouse as a former spouse beneficiary of Servicemember's Survivor Benefit Plan. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to this order, Former Spouse be and is hereby deemed designated, to the extent permitted by law, a former spouse beneficiary of Servicemember's Survivor Benefit Plan to receive the highest Survivor Benefit Plan entitlement allowed by law.

Or

[number] dollars ($[amount]) per month.

Or

the percentage equal to the percentage of Servicemember's disposable retired pay awarded Former Spouse in this order.

Or

[set out other formula for determination of share].

Continue with the following.

Former Spouse is directed to apply for Former Spouse's entitlement to be deemed a former spouse beneficiary of Servicemember's Armed Forces Survivor Benefit Plan by notifying the DFAS Legal Department of this Court's deemed election pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 1447 et seq., completing a DD Form 2656-10 to effect the deemed election, and sending it, along with a certified copy of this order, to Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS), 8899 E. 56th Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46249-1200 by certified mail, return receipt requested.

Former Spouse's failure to register [her/his] deemed election within one year of the date this MRPDO is signed may, if not will, forever bar such an election for Former Spouse.

IT IS ORDERED that Servicemember shall not during Former Spouse's lifetime modify, amend, withdraw, or in any other manner alter the election to name Former Spouse as a former spouse beneficiary of Servicemember's Armed Forces Survivor Benefit Plan.

DD Form 2656-1, the form for a servicemember to make a voluntary election for former spouse and/or child coverage, can be accessed and downloaded at www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/forms/dd/dd2656-1.pdf.

DD Form 2656-10, the form for a former spouse to effect a deemed election for former spouse and/or child coverage, can be accessed and downloaded at www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/forms/dd/dd2656-10.pdf.

One of these forms must be sent to DFAS at the address above, along with a certified copy of the decree of divorce and/or MRPDO, to register the former spouse as a former spouse beneficiary within one year of the date of the signing of the decree of divorce. Failure to do so within the one-year period will probably bar the former spouse from former spouse coverage.

The packet containing the forms to make the deemed election for the former spouse should be sent via certified mail, return receipt requested, for tracking purposes.

Medical and Commissary Benefits

The following provision for medical and commissary benefits is applicable only under certain circumstances. See the practice notes at section 25.80.

The Court further finds that Former Spouse is entitled to receive medical and dental care under the terms of 10 U.S.C. section 1071 et seq. and to commissary and post exchange privileges to the same extent and on the same basis as a surviving spouse of a retired member of the United States Armed Forces following the date the Final Decree of Divorce is signed.

The following provision may be added if the parties were married for ten or more years during which the servicemember performed ten or more years of active/qualifying reserve duty. Otherwise, it should not be included in the order since DFAS will not, under current law, pay the former spouse's share of retired pay directly to her/him in those circumstances.

Although the Court and the parties intend that DFAS make direct payments to Former Spouse of Former Spouse's interest in the disposable retired pay awarded herein, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, if this order does not qualify for direct payment, Servicemember shall cooperate and do all things necessary to aid Former Spouse in obtaining a clarification of this order that will qualify for direct payment of Former Spouse's interest in the disposable retired pay awarded in this order. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Court reserves jurisdiction to enter such a clarifying order.

Continue with the following.

Without affecting the finality of the Final Decree of Divorce or this Military Retirement Pension Division Order, this Court expressly reserves the right pursuant to section 9.101 et seq. of the Texas Family Code to make orders necessary to clarify, amend, and enforce this order, and IT IS SO ORDERED.

2. A copy of the Decree of Divorce that has been certified within the last ninety days.

Whether or not the retired pay will be paid to the client soon, send a W-4P form to expedite action by DFAS; the form will be required before DFAS will make direct payments to the client.

6. A Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments.

DFAS will probably insist on payment by direct deposit. To expedite action by DFAS, send Department of Treasury Financial Management Service Form FMS 2231 with the initial application package.

7. Direct Deposit Authorization.

Motion for New Trial

This Motion for New Trial is brought by [name of movant], [party designation], who shows in support:

1. On [date] a judgment was signed by this Court in this case.
2. [Specifically allege trial court error in accordance with Tex. R. Civ. P. 320–322.]

The following are examples only.

- a. A new trial should be granted to Movant because this Court abused its discretion in denying Movant’s pretrial Motion for Continuance based on Respondent’s failure to properly respond to Movant’s discovery requests despite being ordered to do so by the Court. Because Movant was unable to obtain the requested discovery, [he/she] was unable to properly present [his/her] case.
- b. A new trial should be granted to Movant because this Court abused its discretion in allowing [name of respondent’s expert] to testify as an expert on Respondent’s behalf. The expert’s testimony was conjectural and speculative, and [he/she] lacked the knowledge to testify as an expert on the subject for which [he/she] was called.

- c. A new trial should be granted to Movant because this Court abused its discretion in excluding the testimony of Movant's expert, [name of movant's expert], as a rebuttal or impeachment witness to [name of respondent's expert]'s testimony.
- d. A new trial should be granted to Movant because this Court erroneously failed to disqualify Respondent's attorney, [name of respondent's attorney], [set forth basis for disqualification].
- e. A new trial should be granted to Movant because this Court abused its discretion in failing to grant Movant's request for a mistrial based on [set forth basis for mistrial].
- f. A new trial should be granted to Movant because Respondent made an improper and prejudicial jury argument. Specifically, [set forth prejudicial portions of jury argument].
- g. A new trial should be granted to Movant because this Court abused its discretion in denying Movant's objections to the jury charge. Specifically, [set forth basis for objections].
- h. A new trial should be granted to Movant because the evidence is legally and factually insufficient to support this Court's judgment. Specifically, the evidence is legally and factually insufficient to support this Court's judgment based on the following [jury findings/findings of fact]: [set forth specific jury findings or findings of fact].
- i. A new trial should be granted to Movant because this Court abused its discretion in making the property division.

- j. A new trial should be granted to Movant because (1) the following newly discovered evidence has come to Movant's knowledge since the trial, (2) the failure to discover the new evidence sooner was not for want of due diligence, (3) the new evidence is not cumulative evidence, and (4) the new evidence is so material that it would probably produce a different result if a new trial were granted: [specifically set forth the newly discovered evidence, which must be supported by affidavits].
- k. A new trial should be granted because of the following material jury misconduct: [specifically set forth the material jury misconduct, which must be supported by affidavits or by disclosure of a reasonable explanation and excuse as to why affidavits cannot be secured].

Continue with the following.

The above error[s] probably caused rendition of an improper judgment in the case. Tex. R. App. P. 44.1(a)(1).

3. [Name of movant] has a meritorious defense to the cause of action alleged in this case.
4. The granting of a new trial would not injure [name].
5. Justice will not be properly served unless a new trial is granted.

[Name of movant] prays that the Court set aside the judgment signed on [date] and grant a new trial.

[Salutation]

Appellant, [name of appellant], has filed a Notice of Appeal in this case from the [name of order being appealed] signed on [date] by [name of judge and court] to the [number] Court of Appeals in [location].

Pursuant to rule 34.6 of the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, I am formally requesting that you prepare an original of the reporter's record, with exhibits, for the following:

1. [Hearing/Trial] held on [date[s]].

Continue listing items as needed.

I specifically request that you include [designate parts of statement of facts (e.g., voir dire, opening and closing arguments, testimony of all witnesses, and charge conference) and exhibits]. [Include if seeking only a limited appeal: Appellant requests a partial reporter's record for the presentation of the following issues on appeal: [list points or issues to be presented].]

Please advise me immediately if you encounter problems with the preparation of this record, including the loss or inaudibility of any testimony or argument or the loss of any exhibits admitted or excluded. If, in preparing the reporter's record, you have original exhibits that cannot be released to the court of appeals without an order from the trial court, please advise me immediately, and I will submit the appropriate motion and order to the trial court for consideration.

Please contact me on receipt of this letter to discuss the anticipated preparation time you will require. [At that time, please also let me know the fee or deposit you will require to prepare this record, and I will make prompt arrangements for payment of that amount./ Pursuant to our telephone conversation, enclosed is my firm check in the amount of $[amount].] Once the reporter's record is completed, please let me know the balance due, if any, and I will make prompt arrangements for payment of that amount.

Continue with the following.

If you are unable to complete the reporter's record in time to file it as required, please notify the appellate court clerk of your estimate of when the record will be filed and send me a copy of your notice to the clerk.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Statement of Facts

State concisely and without argument the facts pertinent to the case. Support each allegation with references to the appendix or record.

*Argument and AuthoritiesA. Standard of Review: Availability of Mandamus Relief

Set forth basic standard-of-review language for mandamus relief.

Requisites to mandamus relief are a showing of (1) a legal duty to perform a nondiscretionary act, (2) a demand for performance of a nondiscretionary act, and (3) a refusal to perform after such demand was made. Erbs v. Bedard, 760 S.W.2d 750, 755 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1988) (orig. proceeding). Mandamus relief is available when under the circumstances of the case the facts and law permit the trial court to make but one decision—and the trial court has refused to make that decision—and remedy by appeal to correct the ruling is inadequate. Proffer v. Yates, 734 S.W.2d 671, 673 (Tex. 1987) (orig. proceeding).

Continue with the following.

The following language is appropriate for motions to transfer. In other cases, set forth authority and circumstances to support a showing of the relator's entitlement to mandamus relief for the issues being raised.

Mandamus is available to compel mandatory transfer in suits affecting the parent-child relationship. Proffer, 734 S.W.2d at 672; Arias v. Spector, 623 S.W.2d 312, 313 (Tex. 1981) (orig. proceeding). Transfer of a case to a county where the child has resided for more than six months is a mandatory ministerial duty under section 11.06(b) (now section 155.201) of the Texas Family Code. Proffer, 734 S.W.2d at 673. Parents and children who have a right under the mandatory venue provisions to venue in a particular county should not be forced to go through a trial that is for naught. Proffer, 734 S.W.2d at 673. Justice demands a speedy resolution of child custody and child support issues. Proffer, 734 S.W.2d at 673.

B. Issue No. 1:

Show how the points or issues presented, on the conclusively established facts, entitled relator to an order to transfer the proceedings. Cite controlling authority.

Prayer

Relator prays that this Court issue its writ of mandamus commanding the trial court to vacate the order of [date] denying Relator's Motion to Transfer and ordering the trial court to grant Relator's Motion to Transfer and transfer the case to [county] County, Texas.

Notice of Application for [Order/Writ] of Income Withholding for Spousal Maintenance

You, the obligor named below, are given notice in accordance with subchapter F, chapter 8, of the Texas Family Code that your employer will be required to withhold the amounts specified below for payment of both your current support obligation for spousal maintenance for the obligee named below and for any overdue spousal maintenance (arrearage) as follows:

Obligor

Name:

Social Security number:

Obligee

Name:

Social Security number:

Monthly spousal maintenance due: $[amount]

Total arrearage: $[amount]

As of: [date of this order]

Monthly amounts to be withheld from your wages on service of [order/writ]:

On current spousal maintenance: $[amount]

On spousal maintenance arrearage owed: $[amount]

Include the following if applicable.

You have failed to pay more than one spousal maintenance payment in accordance with your order of spousal maintenance. The [Order/Writ] of Income Withholding for Spousal Maintenance may include arrearages that accrue between the filing of this notice and the issuance of the [order/writ].

Continue with the following.

The order to withhold from your wages applies to each current or subsequent employer and period of employment.

If you do not contest this withholding within ten days after the receipt of this Notice of Withholding, your employer will be notified to begin deducting from your pay the amounts specified above.

Your sole ground for successfully contesting the issuance of [an Order/a Writ] of Income Withholding for Spousal Maintenance is a mistake of fact. If you claim that you are not the person who owes the spousal maintenance, or that you are not in arrears, or that the arrearage listed on the notice is incorrect, you can request a hearing by completing a Motion to Stay Issuance and Delivery of [Order/Writ] of Income Withholding for Spousal Maintenance and filing the motion within ten days of receipt of this notice with the clerk of the Court listed on the top of this notice.

Filing the attached motion will stay issuance and delivery of the [Order/Writ] of Income Withholding for Spousal Maintenance to your employer until a hearing is held.

If you contest this withholding, you will be afforded an opportunity to present your case to the court within thirty days of receipt of your notice of contest. The hearing will be limited to the disputed issues as stated on the Motion to Stay Issuance and Delivery of [Order/Writ] of Income Withholding for Spousal Maintenance.

At the hearing the court will decide the contested delinquency and will either enter an order for income withholding or decide that an order for income withholding should not be entered. It is anticipated that additional arrearages will accrue, and on hearing the court will be requested to confirm all amounts then due.

An unsworn declaration may be used in place of a verification. See form 8-27 .

Include the following paragraphs if part of the prior order is clarified.

Clarification of Prior Order

The Court finds that certain terms of the prior order of the Court are not specific enough to be enforced by contempt, that the prior order should be clarified, and that Respondent should be ordered to comply with the terms of the clarifying order no later than [date], which the Court specifically finds is a reasonable time for compliance.

IT IS ORDERED that the prior order of the Court is clarified as follows:

Set out in specific language the complete terms of the clarifying order. Be sure that the clarifying order does not substantively modify the prior order and that all terms necessary for an enforcement action are incorporated.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all terms of the prior order that are not clarified in this order shall remain in full force and effect. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall comply with the terms of the prior order that are clarified in this order no later than [date], after which these clarifying orders may be enforced by contempt.

Continue with the following.

Findings

The Court finds that on [date] Respondent was ordered to [make periodic payments of [include all applicable: child support/medical support/dental support]/pay [attorney's fees/court costs/attorney's fees and court costs]], in an order [include if applicable: in Cause No. [number], styled "[style of case]," in the [designation] Court of [county] County] that appears in the minutes of [this/the] Court and states in relevant part as follows: [quote the exact language of the order to be enforced].

Continue with the following.

Contempt Findings and Findings on Arrearages

The Court finds that Respondent has failed to pay [child support/attorney's fees/court costs] as ordered to [name] [include if applicable: through [name of agency through which support paid]] in the amounts and on the dates shown below:

Violation	Date Due	Date Paid	Amount Due	Amount Paid
The following are examples:

Repeat for medical support and for dental support, as applicable.

The Court finds that Respondent was able to pay [include all applicable: child support/medical support/dental support/attorney's fees/court costs] in the amounts and on the dates ordered as set out above and that Respondent is guilty of a separate act of contempt for each such separate failure to pay [include all applicable: child support/medical support/dental support/attorney's fees/court costs] in the amounts ordered.

Include the following if civil contempt is to be assessed.

The Court further finds that on the day of this hearing Respondent had the ability to comply with the order of the Court by paying the [include all applicable: child support arrearages/medical support arrearages/dental support arrearages/attorney's fees/court costs] set forth in violation[s] [number[s]] enumerated above.

Continue with the following.

[Include if applicable: The Court finds and confirms that the balance owed by Respondent on previously confirmed child support arrearages is $[amount], plus $[amount] in accrued interest on that amount.] The Court further finds and confirms that Respondent is in arrears in the amount of $[amount] for the period [date] through [date] and that interest has accrued [include if applicable: on those previously unconfirmed arrearages] in the amount of $[amount]. The Court further finds that attorney's fees and costs of $[amount] should be assessed against Respondent.

Or, if the arrearage is less than $20,000 and the court waives attorney's fees, include the following.

Or, if the arrearage is $20,000 or more, include the following if applicable.

The Court finds that attorney's fees and costs should not be assessed against Respondent because Respondent is involuntarily unemployed [and/or] disabled and lacks the financial resources to pay attorney's fees and costs.

Include the following if applicable.

The Court further finds that, at the time the motion requesting withholding from earnings for [include all applicable: child support/medical support/dental support] was filed, Respondent had been in arrears for an amount due for more than thirty days and the amount of the arrearages was an amount equal to or greater than that due for a one-month period.

Continue with the following if applicable.

The Court further finds that all [include all applicable: arrearages/current child support/current medical support/current dental support/attorney's fees/costs] amounts should be withheld from Respondent's earnings.

Clarification of Prior Order

The Court finds that certain terms of the prior order of the Court are not specific enough to be enforced by contempt, that the prior order should be clarified, and that Respondent should be ordered to comply with the terms of the clarifying order no later than [date], which the Court specifically finds is a reasonable time for compliance.

IT IS ORDERED that the prior order of the Court is clarified as follows:

Set out in specific language the complete terms of the clarifying order. Be sure that the clarifying order does not substantively modify the prior order and that all terms necessary for an enforcement action are incorporated.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all terms of the prior order that are not clarified in this order shall remain in full force and effect. Repeat for medical support and for dental support, as applicable.

The Court finds that Respondent was able to pay [include all applicable: child support/medical support/dental support/attorney's fees/court costs] in the amounts and on the dates ordered as set out above and that Respondent is guilty of a separate act of contempt for each such separate failure to pay [include all applicable: child support/medical support/dental support/attorney's fees/court costs] in the amounts ordered.

Include the following if applicable.

The Court further finds that, at the time the motion requesting withholding from earnings for [include all applicable: child support/medical support/dental support] was filed, Respondent had been in arrears for an amount due for more than thirty days and the amount of the arrearages was an amount equal to or greater than that due for a one-month period.

Withholding from Earnings for Attorney's Fees and Costs

The Court ORDERS that any employer of Obligor shall begin withholding from Obligor's disposable earnings not later than the first pay period following the date this order is delivered to the employer.

IT IS ORDERED that the amount of earnings to be withheld by the employer is:

1. [number] dollars ($[amount]) if Obligor is paid monthly.
2. [number] dollars ($[amount]) if Obligor is paid twice monthly.
3. [number] dollars ($[amount]) if Obligor is paid every other week.
4. [number] dollars ($[amount]) if Obligor is paid every week.

The employer shall withhold earnings in the above amount for as long as Obligor is employed by the employer or until the full amount of [number] dollars ($[amount]) assessed as attorney's fees and costs has been fully paid.

Maximum Amount Withheld

The maximum amount to be withheld shall not exceed 50 percent of Obligor's disposable earnings.

Employers should not be ordered to send payments for attorney's fees to the state disbursement unit. Payments should be made directly to obligee's attorney.

Method of Payment

The Court ORDERS the employer to pay all amounts withheld on each regular pay day through Obligee's attorney.

All payments shall be made payable to [name of obligee's attorney].

All payments shall identify the names of Obligor and Obligee's attorney and the cause number of this suit.

- b. union dues;
- c. nondiscretionary retirement contributions by Obligor; and
- d. medical, hospitalization, and disability insurance coverage for Obligor and Obligor's child[ren].

More Than One Order Withholding

An employer receiving two or more orders or writs for Obligor shall comply with each order or writ to the extent possible.

If the total amount due under the orders or writs exceeds the maximum amount allowed to be withheld, the employer shall pay, until that maximum is reached, in the following order of priority:

- 1. an equal amount toward the current support in each order or writ until the employer has complied fully with each current support obligation;
- 2. an equal amount toward current spousal maintenance in each order or writ until the employer has complied fully with each current spousal maintenance obligation;
- 3. an equal amount toward the child support arrearages in each order or writ until the employer has complied fully with each order or writ for child support arrearages;
- 4. an equal amount toward the maintenance arrearages in each order or writ until the employer has complied fully with each order or writ for spousal maintenance arrearages; and
- 5. an amount toward the attorney's fees and costs.

Notice of Change of Employment

The Court ORDERS an employer to notify this Court and Obligee's attorney within seven days of the date Obligor terminates employment. The employer is ORDERED to provide Obligor's last known address and the name and address of Obligor's new employer, if known.

7. More than twenty days have elapsed since service of the [order/writ] of income withholding on Employer, and no motion for hearing on the applicability of the [order/writ] has been filed.

Movant requests that Employer be fined $200 for each such failure to [withhold income/remit withheld income within the time required] and for each failure to [withhold/remit withheld] income through the date of trial and that all such fines be paid to Obligee and credited against Obligor's arrearages.

Include 11. if a clarification order that would allow contempt sanctions against the employer is sought.

11. Movant requests that the Court enter a clarifying order, specify in that clarifying order the duties imposed on the respondent Employer, specified agents of Employer, or both, and provide a reasonable time within which compliance will be required.

12. may be used if the hearing will be more than fifty days after service of the motion. If the documents are sought in a shorter time, use a subpoena duces tecum. Also, the court may shorten the time for filing the response on a showing of good cause. Tex. R. Civ. P. 191.1.

failed to appear and wholly made default, although duly and properly cited and notified.

Proceedings

All matters of law and of fact were submitted to the Court, and the Court heard the evidence and considered the pleadings and argument of counsel.

Jurisdiction

The Court finds that it has jurisdiction over the subject matter and the parties in this case. All persons entitled to citation were properly cited.

Record

The making of a record of testimony was waived by the parties with the consent of the Court.

Or

The record of testimony was duly reported by [[name, address]/the court reporter for the [designation] Court].

Findings

The Court finds that [name], Employer, is or at all relevant times was an employer of [name], Obligor, and should have begun withholding income from Obligor's disposable earnings on [date].

The Court finds that Employer should have continued to withhold income from Obligor's disposable earnings [state frequency, e.g., weekly] thereafter of $[amount], which includes $[amount] in [current child support payments/attorney's fees and costs] and $[amount] toward arrearages [or adapt if failure to remit payments or to provide health insurance is alleged].

Include those of the following paragraphs that are applicable.

The Court finds that Employer has failed to pay amounts ordered to be withheld for [number] pay periods since service of the [order/writ]. The total amount not paid in compliance with the [order/writ], including sums [not withheld from Obligor's wages,/withheld from Obligor's wages but not remitted,/not withheld from Obligor's wages and sums withheld but not remitted,] [include if applicable: including an amount equal to the amount of accrued interest on the amount withheld and not paid,] as of the date of this hearing is $[amount].

And/Or

The Court finds that Employer has knowingly violated the provisions of chapter 158 of the Texas Family Code by failing to [withhold money from Obligor's earnings/timely remit withheld income] for [number] pay periods from the date on which withholding should have begun to the date of this trial, that each such failure to [withhold/remit] constitutes a separate violation of the statute subject to a separate fine of $200, and that a fine in the total sum of $[amount] for those violations should be assessed and paid to Obligee, [name], and credited against Obligor's arrearage.

And/Or

The Court finds that Employer's order issued in this case should be clarified by designating [name] as the person responsible to this Court for implementing income withholding from the wages of [name of obligor] and that [name] should be ordered to implement that withholding not later than [date], which the Court specifically finds is a reasonable time for compliance, after which these orders may be enforced by contempt.

Continue with the following.

The Court finds that attorney's fees and costs of $[amount] should be assessed against Employer.

Relief Granted

IT IS ORDERED that [name] is granted judgment against [employer's name] of [number] dollars ($[amount]), such judgment bearing interest at [percent] percent per year compounded annually from the date this order is signed, for which let execution issue.

Include the following if applicable.

IT IS ORDERED that Employer pay to the registry of this Court fines in the total sum of [number] dollars ($[amount]) on or before [date].

Continue with the following.

IT IS ORDERED that judgment is awarded to [name of attorney] in the amount of [number] dollars ($[amount]) for reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs, with interest at [percent] percent per year compounded annually from the date the judgment is signed until paid. The judgment, for which let execution issue, is awarded against Employer, and Employer is ORDERED to pay those fees, expenses, costs, and interest, by cash, cashier's check, or money order, directly to [name of attorney] at [address] on or before [time] on [date]. [Name of attorney] may enforce this judgment for fees, expenses, and costs in [his/her] own name by any means available for the enforcement of a judgment for debt.

IT IS ORDERED that Employer pay [number] dollars ($[amount]), taxed as costs, to [the District Clerk of [county] County, Texas,/Movant/Movant's attorney] at [address] by [time] on [date].

Include the following if applicable.

IT IS ORDERED that [name] shall implement income withholding from the wages of [obligor's name] not later than [date], which the Court specifically finds is a reasonable time for compliance, after which these orders may be enforced by contempt.

Order for Capias [and Setting of Bond]

Use the following for capias based on failure to appear.

On [date] the Court heard [Petitioner's/Movant's] [enforcement petition or motion]. [Petitioner/Movant] appeared and requested that a capias be issued for the arrest of Respondent for failure to appear.

The Court, after reviewing the pleadings and hearing the argument of counsel, finds that this matter was duly and properly set for hearing on [date] at [time] at [location of court] and that Respondent failed to appear.

The Court further finds that Respondent was personally served with timely notice to appear at the above time, place, and date.

The Court further finds that the request for writ of capias should be granted.

In action for enforcement of child support or possession and access, include the following if bond greater than minimum is sought.

The Court further finds that there is evidence that Respondent has [attempted to evade service of process/previously been found guilty of contempt/accrued child support arrearages of more than $1,000], that a cash bond of $250 or an appearance bond of $1,000 would not be reasonable under the circumstances, and that a reasonable [cash/appearance] bond of [$amount] would be reasonable, conditioned on Respondent's promise to appear in Court for a hearing as required by the Court without further personal service of notice.

Use the following for capias based on motion to revoke community supervision.

On [date], [Petitioner's/Movant's] Motion to Revoke Suspension of Commitment and Order to Appear was presented to the Court.

The Court finds that the motion to revoke suspension of commitment alleges a prima facie case that Respondent has violated a term or condition of community supervision.

The Court finds that a writ of capias should be issued for the arrest of Respondent.

Continue with the following.

IT IS ORDERED that the clerk of this Court issue a writ of capias, directed to the sheriff or any peace officer of any county within the state of Texas, commanding that sheriff or peace officer to take the body of [name of respondent], Respondent, and bring [him/her] before this Court to answer the allegations of the [[enforcement petition or motion] previously served on Respondent/motion to revoke].

IT IS ORDERED that the detaining authority shall notify the Court of Respondent's arrest immediately following Respondent's arrest.

Include the following for capias based on failure to appear.

IT IS ORDERED that Respondent shall be permitted to post [a cash bond only of [number] dollars ($amount)], such sum to be deposited in the registry of this Court and/an appearance bond of [number] dollars ($amount)] subject to forfeiture in accordance with law if Respondent fails to appear for hearing on the court date following release from custody.

If Respondent attempts to post bond, IT IS ORDERED that the detaining authority contact the Court before Respondent's release to determine the date and time of the hearing and include such information in the bond conditions.

Continue with the following.

A PEACE OFFICER WHO RELIES ON THE TERMS OF A COURT ORDER AND THE OFFICER'S AGENCY ARE ENTITLED TO THE APPLICABLE IMMUNITY AGAINST ANY CLAIM, CIVIL OR OTHERWISE, REGARDING THE OFFICER'S GOOD FAITH ACTS PERFORMED IN THE SCOPE OF THE OFFICER'S DUTIES IN ENFORCING THE TERMS OF THE ORDER THAT RELATE TO CHILD CUSTODY. EACH PERSON WHO IS A PARTY TO THIS ORDER IS ORDERED TO NOTIFY EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY OF ANY CHANGE IN THE PARTY'S CURRENT RESIDENCE ADDRESS, MAILING ADDRESS, HOME TELEPHONE NUMBER, NAME OF EMPLOYER, ADDRESS OF EMPLOYMENT, DRIVER'S LICENSE NUMBER, AND WORK TELEPHONE NUMBER. THE PARTY IS ORDERED TO GIVE NOTICE OF AN INTENDED CHANGE IN ANY OF THE REQUIRED INFORMATION TO EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY ON OR BEFORE THE 60TH DAY BEFORE THE INTENDED CHANGE. FAILURE BY A PARTY TO OBEY THE ORDER OF THIS COURT TO PROVIDE EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY WITH THE CHANGE IN THE REQUIRED INFORMATION MAY RESULT IN FURTHER LITIGATION TO ENFORCE THE ORDER, INCLUDING CONTEMPT OF COURT. NOTICE TO ANY PEACE OFFICER OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: YOU MAY USE REASONABLE EFFORTS TO ENFORCE THE TERMS OF CHILD CUSTODY SPECIFIED IN THIS ORDER. A PEACE OFFICER WHO RELIES ON THE TERMS OF A COURT

ORDER AND THE OFFICER'S AGENCY ARE ENTITLED TO THE APPLICABLE IMMUNITY AGAINST ANY CLAIM, CIVIL OR OTHERWISE, REGARDING THE OFFICER'S GOOD FAITH ACTS PERFORMED IN THE SCOPE OF THE OFFICER'S DUTIES IN ENFORCING THE TERMS OF THE ORDER THAT RELATE TO CHILD CUSTODY. 19. Warnings to Parties
§ 105.006(d)

Warnings

WARNINGS TO PARTIES: FAILURE TO OBEY A COURT ORDER FOR CHILD SUPPORT OR FOR POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD MAY RESULT IN FURTHER LITIGATION TO ENFORCE THE ORDER, INCLUDING CONTEMPT OF COURT. A FINDING OF CONTEMPT MAY BE PUNISHED BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR UP TO SIX MONTHS, A FINE OF UP TO $500 FOR EACH VIOLATION, AND A MONEY JUDGMENT FOR PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COURT COSTS.

FAILURE OF A PARTY TO MAKE A CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENT TO THE PLACE AND IN THE MANNER REQUIRED BY A COURT ORDER MAY RESULT IN THE PARTY'S NOT RECEIVING CREDIT FOR MAKING THE PAYMENT.

FAILURE OF A PARTY TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT DOES NOT JUSTIFY DENYING THAT PARTY COURT-ORDERED POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD. REFUSAL BY A PARTY TO ALLOW POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD DOES NOT JUSTIFY FAILURE TO PAY COURT-ORDERED CHILD SUPPORT TO THAT PARTY.

Caldwell*, 888 S.W.2d 469, 470 (Tex. 1994). An affidavit under Tex. Fam. Code § 156.006(b–1), however, may be based on the affiant's personal knowledge or on the affiant's belief based on representations made to the affiant by a person with personal knowledge.

Tex. Fam. Code § 152.209 requires that certain information be provided in any child custody proceeding if any party resides outside Texas. See form 56-1 for an affidavit for this purpose.

1. Respondent's legal domicile is outside Texas and is in [location]. Respondent's person and property are not amenable to process issued by the courts of Texas. None of the grounds for personal jurisdiction provided in the Texas Family Code are applicable. Assumption of jurisdiction over Respondent by this Court would offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice. Respondent prays that this Court hear and determine this challenge to personal jurisdiction before hearing any other plea or pleading and enter an appropriate order. In conjunction with this special appearance, Respondent is providing an affidavit that sets out in greater detail the factual circumstances that support this special appearance.

Include the following if applicable.

2. If Respondent's special appearance is denied, Respondent requests this Court to dismiss this action because Texas lacks subject-matter jurisdiction in this action under section 152.201 of the Texas Family Code.

3. In the alternative, if Respondent's special appearance is denied and if the Court finds that it has subject-matter jurisdiction to make a child custody determination in this proceeding, Respondent requests this Court to decline jurisdiction [include if applicable: or, alternatively, stay these proceedings on the condition that a custody proceeding be promptly convened in [state]] because [include one or both of the following: Texas is an inconvenient forum to make a custody determination under the circumstances in this case, and [state] is a more appropriate forum for this custody determination/[and] Petitioner has wrongfully taken the child[ren] from another state or has engaged in similar reprehensible conduct].

Further, if the Court finds that Texas is an inconvenient forum or that Petitioner has engaged in conduct that causes this Court to decline jurisdiction, Respondent asks that the Court require Petitioner to pay necessary travel and other expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by Respondent or any witness of Respondent. Respondent requests that the Court order that payment be made to the clerk of the Court for remittance to Respondent.

EACH PERSON WHO IS A PARTY TO THIS ORDER IS ORDERED TO NOTIFY EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY OF ANY CHANGE IN THE PARTY'S CURRENT RESIDENCE ADDRESS, MAILING ADDRESS, HOME TELEPHONE NUMBER, NAME OF EMPLOYER, ADDRESS OF EMPLOYMENT,

A PEACE OFFICER WHO RELIES ON THE TERMS OF A COURT ORDER AND THE OFFICER'S AGENCY ARE ENTITLED TO THE APPLICABLE IMMUNITY AGAINST ANY CLAIM, CIVIL OR OTHERWISE, REGARDING THE OFFICER'S GOOD FAITH ACTS PERFORMED IN THE SCOPE OF THE OFFICER'S DUTIES IN ENFORCING THE TERMS OF THE ORDER THAT RELATE TO CHILD CUSTODY. FAILURE OF A PARTY TO MAKE A CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENT TO THE PLACE AND IN THE MANNER REQUIRED BY A COURT ORDER MAY RESULT IN THE PARTY'S NOT RECEIVING CREDIT FOR MAKING THE PAYMENT.

[Name of obligor] is ORDERED to provide [name of obligee] written proof from the life insurance company confirming the coverage required under this portion of the order no later than thirty days after the date this order is signed by the Court [through the parties' attorneys/by mailing to [name of obligee] at [address]/by e-mailing to [name of obligee] at [e-mail address]].

IT IS ORDERED that on [date] of each calendar year [name of obligor] and [name of obligee] shall recalculate the amount of Unpaid Child Support, replacing the date of the order or, if applicable, the date of the most recent recalculation with the date of the newest recalculation until the balance of the Unpaid Child Support is zero. After each recalculation, [name of obligor] may decrease the amount of the death benefit of the insurance policy to an amount equal to or greater than the most recently recalculated Unpaid Child Support. If after any recalculation the death benefit of the life insurance policy is less than the recalculated Unpaid Child Support, within thirty days of that recalculation [name of obligor] is ORDERED to increase and maintain the death benefit to an amount equal to or greater than the most recently recalculated Unpaid Child Support.

[name of obligor] authorizes [name of obligee] to obtain directly from the insurance company issuing the life insurance policy the current death benefit of the policy and the policy's beneficiary designation(s). Not later than thirty days after receipt of a form required by the insurance company to authorize [name of obligee] to directly obtain this information, [name of obligor] is ORDERED to execute and deliver each such form to [name of obligee] at [name of obligee]'s last known mailing address.

On the date of this order, [name of obligor] is ORDERED to create an insurance-funded [trust/annuity], the complete terms and documents of which [name of obligor] shall provide to [name of obligee] [through the parties' attorneys/by mailing to [name of obligee] at [address]/by e-mailing to [name of obligee] at [e-mail address]]. If [name of obligor]'s death occurs before the termination of [his/her] child support obligation, the proceeds of the life insurance policy shall fund the [trust/annuity] and shall be distributed as ordered by the Court in accordance with the Texas Family Code. If the proceeds of the life insurance policy are insufficient to satisfy [name of obligor]'s child support obligation as determined by the Court, any unpaid child support obligation shall be an obligation of [name of obligor]'s estate. If the proceeds of the life insurance policy exceed [name of obligor]'s child support obligation as determined by the Court, [name

Settlement of Future Disputes

The Court finds that the parties agree to the following, as evidenced by their signatures below.

Select one of the following.

a. Collaborative Model

Include the following paragraph if the matter was settled using collaborative law.

The parties agree that if a future disagreement arises regarding the child[ren], unless the parties agree otherwise or in the event of an emergency, the parties will attempt to resolve this disagreement, within sixty days of the date of written notice given by a party to the other of the nature of the child-related issue, by using the collaborative law model in substantial conformance with the agreements made in the Collaborative Law Participation Agreement that the parties signed on [date], a copy of which is on file with the Court. The parties agree that a child psychologist, on whom they can mutually agree, shall act as the neutral child consultant to help the parties resolve the disagreement by recommending to the parties resolutions that are in the best interest of the child[ren]. The parties will hire individual collaborative lawyers to represent them in the collaborative model. The parties understand and agree that they are not mandated to come to an agreement regarding this dispute; however, if they are unable to agree within the collaborative law process, their collaborative lawyers shall withdraw as their counsel, and then the parties are free, if they desire, to hire trial counsel. The parties further agree that the neutral child consultant may not testify in any subsequent lawsuit, nor may his or her opinions be utilized by any other expert, unless the parties agree in writing otherwise. The parties will share equally the total costs for the neutral child consultant. If an agreement regarding the dispute is not reached after the signing of the collaborative law participation agreement and at least one four-way meeting, either party may withdraw from the collaborative process and proceed to litigation, or, if agreed, the parties may continue to work through the collaborative law process until resolution is achieved or either or both parties withdraw from the collaborative law process. The parties may use the mediation process, if agreed, in connection with the collaborative law process. The obligee of child support shall not be required to use the collaborative law model to enforce a child support obligation, nor shall the obligor be required to use the collaborative law model before filing a petition to decrease child support.

It is agreed that the party wishing to modify the terms and conditions of conservatorship, possession, or support of the child[ren] shall give written notice to the other party of a desire to mediate the controversy. If, within ten days after receipt of the written notice, the parties cannot agree on a mediator or the other party does not agree to attend mediation or fails to attend a scheduled mediation of the controversy, the party desiring modification shall be released from the obligation to mediate and shall be free to litigate [the/a] suit for modification.

Include the following if the parties agree to arbitrate future claims or controversies.

Respondent requests that the Court order that payment be made to the clerk of the Court for remittance to Respondent.

4. Original Answer

Include 5. if applicable.

5. Objection to Assignment of Case to Associate Judge

Respondent requests postjudgment interest as allowed by law.

8. Prayer

Respondent prays that the Court grant the relief requested in the Special Appearance and Plea to the Jurisdiction. Tex. Fam. Code § 105.007(c) provides for waiver of the requirement of notice of change of information on motion by a party if the court finds the giving of notice would be likely to expose the child or the party to harassment, abuse, serious harm, or injury. See also Tex. Fam. Code § 105.006(c) .

EACH PERSON WHO IS A PARTY TO THIS ORDER IS ORDERED TO NOTIFY EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY OF ANY CHANGE IN THE PARTY'S CURRENT RESIDENCE ADDRESS, MAILING ADDRESS, HOME TELEPHONE NUMBER, NAME OF EMPLOYER, ADDRESS OF EMPLOYMENT, DRIVER'S LICENSE NUMBER, AND WORK TELEPHONE NUMBER. THE PARTY IS

ORDERED TO GIVE NOTICE OF AN INTENDED CHANGE IN ANY OF THE REQUIRED INFORMATION TO EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY ON OR BEFORE THE 60TH DAY BEFORE THE INTENDED CHANGE. IF THE PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR COULD NOT HAVE KNOWN OF THE CHANGE IN SUFFICIENT TIME TO PROVIDE 60-DAY NOTICE, THE PARTY IS ORDERED TO GIVE NOTICE OF THE CHANGE ON OR BEFORE THE FIFTH DAY AFTER THE DATE THAT THE PARTY KNOWS OF THE CHANGE.

THE DUTY TO FURNISH THIS INFORMATION TO EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY CONTINUES AS LONG AS ANY PERSON, BY VIRTUE OF THIS ORDER, IS UNDER AN OBLIGATION TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT OR ENTITLED TO POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD.

FAILURE BY A PARTY TO OBEY THE ORDER OF THIS COURT TO PROVIDE EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY WITH THE CHANGE IN THE REQUIRED INFORMATION MAY RESULT IN FURTHER LITIGATION TO ENFORCE THE ORDER, INCLUDING CONTEMPT OF COURT. A FINDING OF CONTEMPT MAY BE PUNISHED BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR UP TO SIX MONTHS, A FINE OF UP TO $500 FOR EACH VIOLATION, AND A MONEY JUDGMENT FOR PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COURT COSTS.

Notice shall be given to the other party by delivering a copy of the notice to the party by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. Notice shall be given to the Court by delivering a copy of the notice either in person to the clerk of this Court or by registered or certified mail addressed to the clerk at [address]. NOTICE TO ANY PEACE OFFICER OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: YOU MAY USE REASONABLE EFFORTS TO ENFORCE THE TERMS OF CHILD CUSTODY SPECIFIED IN THIS ORDER. A PEACE OFFICER WHO RELIES ON THE TERMS OF A COURT ORDER AND THE OFFICER'S AGENCY ARE ENTITLED TO THE APPLICABLE IMMUNITY AGAINST ANY CLAIM, CIVIL OR OTHERWISE, REGARDING THE OFFICER'S GOOD FAITH ACTS PERFORMED IN THE SCOPE OF THE OFFICER'S DUTIES IN ENFORCING THE TERMS OF THE ORDER THAT RELATE TO CHILD CUSTODY. ANY PERSON WHO KNOWINGLY PRESENTS FOR ENFORCEMENT AN ORDER THAT IS INVALID OR NO LONGER IN EFFECT COMMITS AN OFFENSE THAT MAY BE PUNISHABLE BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR AS LONG AS TWO YEARS AND A FINE OF AS MUCH AS $10,000.

14. Warnings to Parties

Warnings

WARNINGS TO PARTIES: FAILURE TO OBEY A COURT ORDER FOR CHILD SUPPORT OR FOR POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD MAY RESULT IN FURTHER LITIGATION TO ENFORCE THE ORDER, INCLUDING CONTEMPT OF COURT. A FINDING OF CONTEMPT MAY BE PUNISHED BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR UP TO SIX MONTHS, A FINE OF UP TO $500 FOR EACH VIOLATION, AND A MONEY JUDGMENT FOR PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COURT COSTS.

FAILURE OF A PARTY TO MAKE A CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENT TO THE PLACE AND IN THE MANNER REQUIRED BY A COURT ORDER MAY RESULT IN THE PARTY'S NOT RECEIVING CREDIT FOR MAKING THE PAYMENT.

FAILURE OF A PARTY TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT DOES NOT JUSTIFY DENY-ING THAT PARTY COURT-ORDERED POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD.
REFUSAL BY A PARTY TO ALLOW POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD DOES
